Hen Has 'Ducky' Results

"Who are you?", the surprised bantam hen of Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Horner of Purinton Ave., Oakmont, seems to be asking as she takes an astonished look at the eight wild ducklings which hatched Wednesday after she took over the role of mother.

Three Horner children, Janet 10, Chuck 7, and Eloise 11, hold three of the brood which the small hen hatched after the nest of 11 eggs was uprooted.

But the hen's job isn't over yet; she has the egg in the foreground to hatch. And it shouldn't be long; the outline of the duckling is discernible through the shell.

The eggs were discovered May 20 when Horner, a contractor, was loading top soil at the state line. Scooping up dirt, Horner found the nest with the eggs in it.

He brought the eggs home and Mrs. Horner carried out an old theory to determine if the eggs would hatch. She placed them in a bucket of lukewarm water. Two sank to the bottom and were ruled out under the old legend supported by her mother-in-law and grandmother.

The family keeps six bantam hens and a rooster as family pets and the three youngsters hope the wild ducklings adopt it as their home.

There's already talk of filling a tub with water or scooping out a hole in the ground to make a pond for the new pets.

Slashing Expected By Congress Before Its Final Approval

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has voted a $4.7-billion ceiling on foreign aid spending next year —just about what President Kennedy requested.

But there's evidence Congress intends to slash away at the aid program before it finally provides the money that may be spent.

The measure passed Thursday by the Senate 61 to 23 simply sets limits on aid spending in the fiscal year that begins July 1. The appropriations will be handled later in separate legislation.

Actually, the administration had to settle for partial victory on its embattled provision for aid to Communist Poland and Yugoslavia in an attempt to wean them away from Soviet domination.

Wednesday the Senate voted 57 to 24 to bar foreign aid to such countries. But, with heavy pressure from the White House and combined appeals from Democratic and Republican leaders, the Senate retreated Thursday and voted 56 to 34 to exempt gifts and sales of surplus food.

It still left the ban on any assistance under the foreign aid bill itself, including $10 million in economic development loans the administration had programmed for Yugoslavia next fiscal year.

At his news conference Kennedy welcomed the action on food saying it would give him the necessary flexibility to help peoples who want to remain independent.

Only a short time later administration forces succeeded by the narrow vote of 45 to 40 in rejecting an amendment by Sen. Norris Cotton, R-N.H., which would have denied foreign aid to countries

Bring Baby Under Hail Of Bullets

13 East Germans Hijack River Boat, Flee To West

BERLIN (AP) — Bringing a baby with them, 13 young East Germans hijacked a 500-ton river excursion boat early today and escaped to freedom under a hail of machine-gun bullets.

East German police, firing from a watch tower, a pier, a bridge and a patrol boat, pumped over 200 bullets into the fleeing vessel. Nobody was hurt.

West Berlin police fired 10 shots back at the East Germans to check their fire. The boat, the Friedrich Wolf, was riddled and there were bullet marks on buildings on the West Berlin shore.

The escapees included eight men, all employes of East Berlin's "white fleet" of excursion boats, five women, and one couple's 5-month-old boy. The adults, all about 30 or under, told police they had been planning the escape for a week.

Thursday night the men in the group went aboard the Friedrich Wolf at her mooring beside the River Spree and began drinking with her captain and engineer. When the two were off guard, they jumped them and tied them up.

Under cover of darkness they spirited their women and the baby aboard. Then at dawn the men got the two-deck boat moving.

Posts of Vopos — as the East German police are called — opened fire.

The escapees, moving quickly in twos and threes, sprang ashore. They flung themselves to the ground to escape the whipping bullets. When the West Berlin police fired, the Vopos checked their fire.

The whole thing was over in 20 minutes.

The boat's captain and engineer were allowed to get the boat under way and return to East Berlin.

Broad Plan Directed At Prosperity

Kennedy Invites Public's Support, Including Critics

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy pins his strategy tor prosperity on a five-point tax package that includes across-the-board income tax cuts starting next January.

"There is no need for this country to stand helplessly by and watch a recovery run out of gas," Kennedy told his news conference Thursday.

"We have a program to boost it and I hope that all those who are concerned about their stocks or their profits or their jobs will help us get action on this program," he added.

Thus inviting public support, including support from critics who contend administration policies upset the stock market, Kennedy urged Congress to get down to business quickly on his proposals.

Tax talk highlighted the news conference in which Kennedy snapped back at Republican detractors and said he would take the stump for Democratic candidates in the November elections.

He made clear the administration does not intend to recommend an immediate cut in income taxes. But he said he will offer a tax reform bill providing reductions in both personal and corporate income taxes, effective Jan. 1, for congressional action next year. Details are being worked out, he said, but will result in a net loss—the reductions "will not be wholly offset by other reforms."

He listed these other points in the program:

The House-passed tax credit for money invested in new machinery and equipment.

Forthcoming changes in schedules by which companies save money through tax writeoffs for depreciation of plant and equipment.

Kennedy estimated these two steps would represent a tax reduction for business of more than $2.5 billion.

Approval of his request for standby authority to cut taxes in order to head off threats of recession. The House Ways and means committee hasn't acted on this proposal.

Repeal of the 10 per cent tax on rail and bus transportation and cutting the tax on air travel in half, to 5 per cent.

Kennedy declared he will be active in the fall election campaigns. And he congratulated former Vice President Richard M. Nixon for winning the GOP gubernatorial primary in California. That's one state in which Kennedy is expected to appear, on behalf of Nixon's opponent, Gov. Edmund G. Brown. Other states which party sources believe he is most likely to invade are Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Michigan, Kentucky and possibly Oregon, Utah and South Dakota.

Kennedy took a swing at Republican National Chairman William E. Miller and other GOP leaders after repudiating a statement by Democratic Chairman John M. Bailey accusing Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York of prejudice against Negroes. He said he had been waiting "for about a year and a half" for leading Republicans to repudiate some of the charges Miller had flung against him.

On other matters:

Foreign Aid—Kennedy said he was glad the Senate restored at least the government's authority to aid Poland and Yugoslavia with surplus food.

Contracts Totaling $676,857 Cleared At Board's Meeting

Construction of Southern Local School District's new high school may get under way later this month, following approval of contracts totaling $676,857 for the structure on Route 39 near Salineville Thursday night by the Board of Education.

Robert Gribben of Wintersville was awarded the general contract for the modern, one-story building on his offer of $385,405, which includes the original amount of classrooms.

Gribben had been low bidder with an offer of $368,673 on an alternate plan with two less classrooms.

The board last night agreed to include the originally planned classrooms and terrazzo floors, reducing funds allotted for shop equipment and driveways.

Bids opened in February for the project totaled $703,000 and were rejected because they exceeded the estimated cost. A total of $760,000 is available — $356,000 from a voter-approved bond issue and $414,000 from a state grant.

Jack Baker, executive head, said the contracts must be presented to the Ohio Department of Education for final approval, then the contractors can begin work. It is estimated the arrangements may take two or three weeks.

It is expected the new school will be ready by the fall of 1963.

Fire Destroys Auto While On Newell Span

A city man's 5-year-old auto virtually was destroyed by fire Thursday afternoon while he was crossing the Newell bridge.

Firemen said fumes from leaking gasoline in the motor compartment of the 1957 sedan operated by Cecil Pierce, 201 Baum St., apparently exploded and set fire to the motor and right front tire of the vehicle.

There was extensive damage to the motor, firemen said, indicating the car probably would be a total loss.

Firemen received the alarm at 3:36 p. m. and shoved the car off the bridge to open it to traffic.

The car later was towed to Al's Atlantic Station on W. 3rd St. and firemen were called there at 4:45 p. m. because it still was smouldering.

It Takes Luck, Co-Champs In Spelling Say

WASHINGTON (AP)—The co-winners of the National Spelling Bee contest agree that luck, more than anything else, makes a champion speller.

"Most of the words I never heard of," admitted Michael Day, 14, Hardin, Ill., who shares the 1962 title with tall brunette Nettie Crawford, 13, Roswell, N.M.

"It was pretty rough," Nettie thought.

Because most of the words were so difficult the two eighth graders waged what amounted to more of a guessing game in Thursday's final round of the 35th annual spelling bee. Their battle finally was declared a draw.

Nettie and Mike became champions by spelling correctly such tonguetwisters as "unguiculate," meaning having claws or nails, and "monocotyledon," a botanical term referring to seed plants.

The two winners each pick up bronze trophies and a $1,000 prize at a windup banquet tonight and then they'll head for an all-expenses paid sightseeing weekend in New York City.

Nettie's father runs a 600-acre cotton and alfalfa ranch and Mike's dad is with the Social Security Administration in Hardin.

Laos Princes Recess Talks Until Monday

Will Give Members Chance To Reflect On Coalition Plan

KHANG KHAY, Laos (AP) — Neutralist Prince Souvanna Phouma said today the three princes summit conference has decided to adjourn its sessions until Monday to give its members time to reflect on the formation of a coalition government.

Emerging red-faced from a half-hour afternoon meeting with his half-brother, Prince Souphanouvong, and pro-Western Premier Prince Boun Oum, Souvanna told reporters: "One or two unsettled points obliged us to postpone the meeting until Monday and each party has demanded time for reflection."

He added that he hoped Monday's meeting will be the last one before he announces a formation of a coalition Cabinet.

Boun Oum and his delegation, which includes strong man Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, flew back to Vientiane and will return here Monday.

Souvanna, who is to head the coalition if it is formed, told newsmen Thursday "very great progress" had been made in the first

35,000 Seen For June 16 Potter Outing

Thirty-five thousand are expected at the 34th annual Potters Picnic Saturday, June 16, at Meyers Lake Park in Canton, the picnic committee of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters predicted today.

Crowds are expected from ceramic centers throughout Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania, particularly East Liverpool, Chester, Newell, Wellsville, Salem, Beaver Falls, Alliance, Sebring, East Palestine and Salem. Albert Kenst of Local 42 at Salem is general chairman.

The formal program will open at 1:30 p.m. with the traditional baby show in the park dancing pavilion. A field of 300 or more is expected to compete for prizes in three age brackets — up 1; 1-2 and 2-3. Nurses from Molly Stark Hospital in Canton will be judges.

First - place winners in each age bracket will receive $50 U.S. Savings Bonds. The second place winners will get $25 bonds and third place carries an award of $10 in Savings Stamps. Each entrant will receive a ware baby service set.

A penny scramble is scheduled immediately after the baby show, also in the ballroom. The picnic committee will scatter 2,500 pennies for youngsters in three age brackets — 5-7, 8-10, and 11-12. Free dancing is scheduled from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m.

A "junior bathing beauty" contest for boys and girls 4-7 will be held at 3:15 in Moonlight Gardens, the outdoor dancing pavilion. Entrants must be registered by 3 p.m., the picnic committee said.

Secret Army Calls Off Its Terror Drive

ALGIERS (AP)—The European Secret Army Organization today mysteriously halted its terrorism in Algiers at least temporarily after a day of arson and indiscriminate shooting.

Hopeful French officials believed the appeal for peace by Jean Georges Sarradet, head of some 2,000 secret army commandos, was beginning to work.

Most Europeans, however, said skeptically it was the driving rain over the city that stopped the destructive action.

Sarradet called Thursday on his fellow terrorists to abandon their struggle and seek peace with the top leaders of Moslem nationalism.

But at this stage the leaders of the Algerian nationalists apparently had no desire to deal with the European terrorists.

Throughout the morning, thousands of rain-soaked Europeans besieged banks and the remaining post office buildings to withdraw savings.

The secret army spread word through the city that starting Tuesday it will prevent the operation of banks and halt money transfers to France.

At the administrative center at Rocher Noir, the commission controlling the forthcoming self-determination referendum announced that seven political parties registered for the July 1 voting.

Among the parties are the Moslem rebel Front of National Liberation (FLN) and its rival national Algerian movement which registered under its old name of the "Party of the Algerian People."

Not a single party representing Algeria's Europeans made its appearance as the deadline for registrations expired at midnight. The hitherto banned Algerian Communist party asked for permission to campaign.

France's high commissioner in Algiera, Christian Fouchet, was summoned to Paris by President Charles de Gaulle for urgent consultation.

The mysterious halt in secret army terrorism throughout the morning was a surprise, for new fire attacks on government buildings and economic installations in the scorched earth campaign had been expected.

Flames shot high over Oran—Algeria's second largest city—Thursday night after a booby-trapped tank truck exploded and spread flaming gasoline over a new high school used as a police barracks.

Ex-Wellsville Man Will Try Perilous Swim

A former Wellsville resident was to "celebrate" his 38th birthday anniversary today by attempting an underwater swim across the Straits of Messina off Italy.

The attempt to swim through three miles of shark infested waters from Sicily to Italy would be the latest swimming adventure for Fred Baldasare, a cousin of Wellsville Safety-Service Director Fred Baldasare and relative of several other Wellsville residents.

Baldasare, who aids the Air Force in making training movies of swimming, was to depart from Torre-Faro at the northeast tip of Sicility and head for Punta Pezo, a village on the tip of Italy's "boot."

He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Rocco Baldasare of Cocoa, Fla., formerly of Wellsville.

President To Visit Father In New York

NEW YORK (AP) — President Kennedy is coming here late Sunday to visit his father, Joseph P. Kennedy, who is reported improving at the Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation.

The President, it was reported here, plans to stay at the Hotel Carlyle Sunday night and return to Washington Monday morning. His father is under treatment for the after-effects of a stroke suffered last winter.

Ousted GOP Counsel Raps Estes Probe

Claims Inquiry Is Being Distorted, Truth Suppressed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Robert E. Manuel, dismissed Republican counsel to a House investigating committee, charged today the group's inquiry into the Billie Sol Estes case "is being distorted—and the truth suppressed."

In a statement, Manuel quoted an Agriculture Department official as saying Estes personally pressured him by invoking the names of the late House Speaker Sam Rayburn and Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, but that Johnson's name was not brought into public testimony.

Manuel added: "This incident points up the way this investigation is being distorted—and the truth suppressed—either because of shoddy preparation, or a willingness to cover up."

Manuel said another incident involves a discussion by the subcommittee in closed session of how to deal with testimony "which would implicate certain members of Congress and at least one very high-ranking administration official."

"The testimony, taken in executive session, related to a list of individuals to whom Estes allegedly sent gifts in the form of money orders," Manuel added.

He said it was against this background that he decided, "as

Harry Petrosky To Head Steelworkers Local 1212

In an apparent upset, Harry Petrosky defeated Joseph D'Alesio who sought a third term as president of Steelworkers Local 1212 of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co. during the union's election Thursday.

Petrosky, former president of the local polled 1,667 votes to D'Alesio's 1,459, for a margin of 208.

About 3,100 votes were cast at the Steelworkers Hall, slightly higher than in 1960, as 54 steelworkers sought election to the various posts.

Union observers said they believe D'Alesio failed to capture the presidency again because of a large vote of Ohio members who paid the $10 yearly occupation which Midland Council imposed in February, 1961. D'Alesio is a member of Council.

'Escape Clause' Invoked

Tariff Commission Sets Hearing On Pottery Pleas

The U.S. Tariff Commission has notified two dinnerware manufacturers' associations it has set hearings in Washington beginning July 25 on their petitions to seek protection against imports under the so-called "escape clause" in the present tariff act.

The petitions were filed by the U.S. Potters Association, representing principally the East Liverpool district producers of semi-vitreous dinnerware, and the American Fine China Guild, comprised of manufacturers of high-grade chinaware for household use.

An "onrushing tide of imports" will cause the domestic industry to vanish unless relief is granted, the USPA declared in its petition.

The two groups ask either an absolute quota on an annual basis, allocated among foreign countries, or a complete withdrawal of concessions and the imposition of duties at a rate 50 per cent above the levels of 1934.

The petition declared that a boost to a level 50 per cent above the 1934 figure may not be sufficient to save the industry.

The petition of the American Fine China Guild contends the statistics show a downward trend in sales, production and employment among its member firms, along with a decline in its share of the growing domestic market during the 12-year period since tariff concessions were made.

Japanese and European pottery producers expect to be represented at the Tariff Commission hearings, opposing any upward change in U.S. protection that might result.

The Fine China Guild is comprised principally of firms that produce ware of a quality sold by the place setting in jewelry stores — such firms as Lenox China, Syracuse China, Gladding-McBean in Los Angeles and Castleton in New Castle.

Secret Army Calls Off Its Terror Drive

ALGIERS (AP)—The European Secret Army Organization today mysteriously halted its terrorism in Algiers at least temporarily after a day of arson and indiscriminate shooting.

Hopeful French officials believed the appeal for peace by Jean Georges Sarradet, head of some 2,000 secret army commandos, was beginning to work.

Most Europeans, however, said skeptically it was the driving rain over the city that stopped the destructive action.

Sarradet called Thursday on his fellow terrorists to abandon their struggle and seek peace with the top leaders of Moslem nationalism.

But at this stage the leaders of the Algerian nationalists apparently had no desire to deal with the European terrorists.

Throughout the morning, thousands of rain-soaked Europeans besieged banks and the remaining post office buildings to withdraw savings.

The secret army spread word through the city that starting Tuesday it will prevent the operation of banks and halt money transfers to France.

At the administrative center at Rocher Noir, the commission controlling the forthcoming self-determination referendum announced that seven political parties registered for the July 1 voting.

Among the parties are the Moslem rebel Front of National Liberation (FLN) and its rival national Algerian movement which registered under its old name of the "Party of the Algerian People."

Not a single party representing Algeria's Europeans made its appearance as the deadline for registrations expired at midnight. The hitherto banned Algerian Communist party asked for permission to campaign.

France's high commissioner in Algiera, Christian Fouchet, was summoned to Paris by President Charles de Gaulle for urgent consultation.

The mysterious halt in secret army terrorism throughout the morning was a surprise, for new fire attacks on government buildings and economic installations in the scorched earth campaign had been expected.

Flames shot high over Oran—Algeria's second largest city—Thursday night after a booby-trapped tank truck exploded and spread flaming gasoline over a new high school used as a police barracks.

Ex-Wellsville Man Will Try Perilous Swim

A former Wellsville resident was to "celebrate" his 38th birthday anniversary today by attempting an underwater swim across the Straits of Messina off Italy.

The attempt to swim through three miles of shark infested waters from Sicily to Italy would be the latest swimming adventure for Fred Baldasare, a cousin of Wellsville Safety-Service Director Fred Baldasare and relative of several other Wellsville residents.

Baldasare, who aids the Air Force in making training movies of swimming, was to depart from Torre-Faro at the northeast tip of Sicility and head for Punta Pezo, a village on the tip of Italy's "boot."

He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Rocco Baldasare of Cocoa, Fla., formerly of Wellsville.

President To Visit Father In New York

NEW YORK (AP) — President Kennedy is coming here late Sunday to visit his father, Joseph P. Kennedy, who is reported improving at the Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation.

The President, it was reported here, plans to stay at the Hotel Carlyle Sunday night and return to Washington Monday morning. His father is under treatment for the after-effects of a stroke suffered last winter.

Ousted GOP Counsel Raps Estes Probe

Claims Inquiry Is Being Distorted, Truth Suppressed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Robert E. Manuel, dismissed Republican counsel to a House investigating committee, charged today the group's inquiry into the Billie Sol Estes case "is being distorted—and the truth suppressed."

In a statement, Manuel quoted an Agriculture Department official as saying Estes personally pressured him by invoking the names of the late House Speaker Sam Rayburn and Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, but that Johnson's name was not brought into public testimony.

Manuel added: "This incident points up the way this investigation is being distorted—and the truth suppressed—either because of shoddy preparation, or a willingness to cover up."

Manuel said another incident involves a discussion by the subcommittee in closed session of how to deal with testimony "which would implicate certain members of Congress and at least one very high-ranking administration official."

"The testimony, taken in executive session, related to a list of individuals to whom Estes allegedly sent gifts in the form of money orders," Manuel added.

He said it was against this background that he decided, "as

Harry Petrosky To Head Steelworkers Local 1212

In an apparent upset, Harry Petrosky defeated Joseph D'Alesio who sought a third term as president of Steelworkers Local 1212 of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co. during the union's election Thursday.

About 3,100 votes were cast at the Steelworkers Hall, slightly higher than in 1960, as 54 steelworkers sought election to the various posts.

Union observers said they believe D'Alesio failed to capture the presidency again because of a large vote of Ohio members who paid the $10 yearly occupation which Midland Council imposed in February, 1961. D'Alesio is a member of Council.

D'Alesio said, "the better man

Fire Destroys Auto While On Newell Span

A city man's 5-year-old auto virtually was destroyed by fire Thursday afternoon while he was crossing the Newell bridge.

Firemen said fumes from leaking gasoline in the motor compartment of the 1957 sedan operated by Cecil Pierce, 201 Baum St., apparently exploded and set fire to the motor and right front tire of the vehicle.

There was extensive damage to the motor, firemen said, indicating the car probably would be a total loss.

Firemen received the alarm at 3:36 p. m. and shoved the car off the bridge to open it to traffic.

The car later was towed to Al's Atlantic Station on W. 3rd St. and firemen were called there at 4:45 p. m. because it still was smouldering.

Tariff Commission Sets Hearing On Pottery Pleas

The U.S. Tariff Commission has notified two dinnerware manufacturers' associations it has set hearings in Washington beginning July 25 on their petitions to seek protection against imports under the so-called "escape clause" in the present tariff act.

The petitions were filed by the U.S. Potters Association, representing principally the East Liverpool district producers of semi-vitreous dinnerware, and the American Fine China Guild, comprised of manufacturers of high-grade chinaware for household use.

An "onrushing tide of imports" will cause the domestic industry to vanish unless relief is granted, the USPA declared in its petition.

The two groups ask either an absolute quota on an annual basis, allocated among foreign countries, or a complete withdrawal of concessions and the imposition of duties at a rate 50 per cent above the levels of 1934.

The petition declared that a boost to a level 50 per cent above the 1934 figure may not be sufficient to save the industry.

The petition of the American Fine China Guild contends the statistics show a downward trend in sales, production and employment among its member firms, along with a decline in its share of the growing domestic market during the 12-year period since tariff concessions were made.

Japanese and European pottery producers expect to be represented at the Tariff Commission hearings, opposing any upward change in U.S. protection that might result.

The Fine China Guild is comprised principally of firms that produce ware of a quality sold by the place setting in jewelry stores — such firms as Lenox China, Syracuse China, Gladding-McBean in Los Angeles and Castleton in New Castle.

The fiery attacks in Oran came a few hours after three phosphorous bombs started a fire that gutted the main building of Algiers University, in the capital.

With the resumption of the terrorism—including the indiscriminate shooting down of Moslems—came more evidence of the rift in the secret army between the diehards and those ready to give up the fight.

Coming out of hiding, terrorist leader Jean Georges Sarradet called a news conference to appeal to the diehards to quit.

"We have lost the battle," he said.

Sarradet coupled his call with a plea to Moslem nationalists to grant the secret army a general amnesty to pave the way for a peaceful future in the new Algeria.

session and he hoped for a final agreement today. He said the three factions had agreed on the key issue, which group would get the ministries of defense and interior and through them control of the army and police.

Souphanouvong, Souvanna's half brother who heads the pro-Communist Pathet Lao rebels, told reporters he was satisfied and was 'sure that a solution of a coalition is inevitable."

Gen. Phoumi also expressed optimism and said the talks were going smoothly. But he said no agreement had been made on the distribution of jobs.

Thai officials in Bangkok, who have close ties with Phoumi, said the general and Boun Oum were proposing a version of the troika —or three horse—system of control for the defense and interior ministries, as the Soviets proposed last year for the United Nations.

The Thai sources said the Vientiane troika plan calls for Souvanna to be minister of defense and interior as well as premier. But in each ministry he would have three assistant ministers — one from each faction — and all three would have to agree before any administrative action could be taken.

won." He said he will continue to be a strong trade unionist and, as councilman, will fight against any wage or income tax digging too deeply into pockets of out-of-state members.

The Pennsylvania Superior Court recently ruled against the occupation tax and the State Supreme Court refused a borough appeal.

Petrosky, who resides at 1128 Beaver Ave., Midland, is a conductor on the plant railroad. He has been employed at Crucible 36 years. He last served in a union office as president during 1949 to 1951. Previously he was vice president and a treasurer for one term each, and also served as grievance committeeman.

In other races, Eddie Melvin of Midland, now vice president, was elected to the new post of general grievance committeeman with a vote of 1,659 to 1,374 for Nick Mosura, also of Midland. Melvin has held various offices for the last 18 years. Under the Landrum-Griffith bill the new post was created to assume certain duties of the vice president, separate from other offices.

Woody Adkins of East Liverpool won the vice president post, defeating Steve Luketich of Midland, 1,615 to 1,317. Luketich was the present administration's choice.

George Bradshaw of Midland Heights, the administration choice for recording secretary, was defeated by Tom Gallagher, also of Midland Heights. Gallagher received 1,464 votes to Bradshaw's 1,397.

Alfred (Al) Monaco, incumbent, financial secretary, defeated Lou Bruno, 1,576 to 1,313. Both are of Midland.

Pete Vuckovich of Midland, also on the administration's slate, received 1,563 votes, defeating Pete Sinneway of Midland Heights with 1,299 for treasurer.

Opposition candidate, John F. (Jack) Phillips of Midland Heights was elected compensation man, defeating Bill Davis of East Liverpool and Joe DiCiccio, the administration's choice. Their vote was Phillips 1,254, DiCiccio 903 and Davis 676.

Elected as trustees were Bill Dye and Ray Presutti, administration choices, and Joe Wirag, all three of Midland, while the third administration choice, George (Bud) Netherland of Chester finished fourth in the 13-man field.

Here's the way the vote ended:

Dye 923, Wirag 891, Presutti 752, Netherland 691, Lester W. Barr 687, John M. Breckenridge 684, Nick Kleich 587, Robert L. Frontz 535, Joe Prodonovich 515, Joe Lomba 514, Nick D'Innocenzo 478, Joe Yukich 397 and Bryant Perkins 368. Of the other candidates, Frontz and Lomba are from East Liverpool and the remainder from Midland.

Waldo Adkins of East Liverpool won out for guide, defeating Robert Ibbs, also of East Liverpool, 1,814 to 942. Adkins was the administration choice.

Jim Aikens of Midland defeated the administration's choice, George Huha Jr., 1,599 to 1,056, for inside guard.

Elected as department grievance committeemen were Anthony Newtz of Midland, brick department, general labor and carpenter shop; Mitchell Disdore of Midland, transportation department; Carmen Cananzi of Midland, blooming and billet mill; Ernest Badgley, open hearth and electric furnace; James Oliver of Midland, coke plant and blast furnace; Marcus Trough of East Liverpool, cold strip; Joseph Rotuna of Rochester, heat treat and National Drawn; William C. Allison of East Liverpool, burning and welding riggers and electrical; John Zdinak of Midland, conditioning and forged stock, and Al Lona of Midland, finishing mill.

AWOL Pair Remains In Jail For Marshal

Two AWOL sailors from the Norfolk Naval Base remain in jail in Midland today, awaiting to be turned over to a U.S. marshal from Pittsburgh.

Their woman companion is expected to be released as she denied any knowledge of the theft of the car in which the trio was found asleep early Thursday morning on the old Beaver Creek Rd. near the State Line.

Identified as James Alvin Roberts and Michael A. Moehrer, both seamen third class from Wisconsin, they allegedly admitted stealing the car to visit a friend in Cleveland and apparently had given the woman, Virginia Boydrid, 22, of Chicago, a ride from Norfolk.

FBI agents and the Navy Department are investigating the case, police said.

The auto, which has Florida license plates, was stolen in Norfolk, they added. Ohioville police became suspicious when the two sailors were unable to furnish a car's registration.

The armadillo has dim sight and poor hearing.

The fiery attacks in Oran came a few hours after three phosphorous bombs started a fire that gutted the main building of Algiers University, in the capital.

With the resumption of the terrorism—including the indiscriminate shooting down of Moslems—came more evidence of the rift in the secret army between the diehards and those ready to give up the fight.

Coming out of hiding, terrorist leader Jean Georges Sarradet called a news conference to appeal to the diehards to quit.

"We have lost the battle," he said.

Sarradet coupled his call with a plea to Moslem nationalists to grant the secret army a general amnesty to pave the way for a peaceful future in the new Algeria.

session and he hoped for a final agreement today. He said the three factions had agreed on the key issue, which group would get the ministries of defense and interior and through them control of the army and police.

Souphanouvong, Souvanna's half brother who heads the pro-Communist Pathet Lao rebels, told reporters he was satisfied and was 'sure that a solution of a coalition is inevitable."

Gen. Phoumi also expressed optimism and said the talks were going smoothly. But he said no agreement had been made on the distribution of jobs.

Thai officials in Bangkok, who have close ties with Phoumi, said the general and Boun Oum were proposing a version of the troika —or three horse—system of control for the defense and interior ministries, as the Soviets proposed last year for the United Nations.

The Thai sources said the Vientiane troika plan calls for Souvanna to be minister of defense and interior as well as premier. But in each ministry he would have three assistant ministers — one from each faction — and all three would have to agree before any administrative action could be taken.

Radio broadcasting, which began in Pittsburgh, Pa., in 1920 with the establishment of Station KDKA, now comprises more than 3200 stations in the U. Beaver Sets Bidding For Airport Project

BEAVER — County commissioners announced today they will advertise for bids on June 18, June 25 and July 2 for improvement of the Beaver County Airport.

The $355,000 project will include an extension of the runway and taxiway improvements to accommodate two- and four-engine aircraft.

It will be financed by a 50 per cent grant from the Federal Aviation Agency with the county and the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission sharing the other 50 per cent.

won." He said he will continue to be a strong trade unionist and, as councilman, will fight against any wage or income tax digging too deeply into pockets of out-of-state members.

The Pennsylvania Superior Court recently ruled against the occupation tax and the State Supreme Court refused a borough appeal.

Petrosky, who resides at 1128 Beaver Ave., Midland, is a conductor on the plant railroad. He has been employed at Crucible 36 years. He last served in a union office as president during 1949 to 1951. Previously he was vice president and a treasurer for one term each, and also served as grievance committeeman.

In other races, Eddie Melvin of Midland, now vice president, was elected to the new post of general grievance committeeman with a vote of 1,659 to 1,374 for Nick Mosura, also of Midland. Melvin has held various offices for the last 18 years. Under the Landrum-Griffith bill the new post was created to assume certain duties of the vice president, separate from other offices.

Woody Adkins of East Liverpool won the vice president post, defeating Steve Luketich of Midland, 1,615 to 1,317. Luketich was the present administration's choice.

George Bradshaw of Midland Heights, the administration choice for recording secretary, was defeated by Tom Gallagher, also of Midland Heights. Gallagher received 1,464 votes to Bradshaw's 1,397.

Alfred (Al) Monaco, incumbent, financial secretary, defeated Lou Bruno, 1,576 to 1,313. Both are of Midland.

Pete Vuckovich of Midland, also on the administration's slate, received 1,563 votes, defeating Pete Sinneway of Midland Heights with 1,299 for treasurer.

Opposition candidate, John F. (Jack) Phillips of Midland Heights was elected compensation man, defeating Bill Davis of East Liverpool and Joe DiCiccio, the administration's choice. Their vote was Phillips 1,254, DiCiccio 903 and Davis 676.

Elected as trustees were Bill Dye and Ray Presutti, administration choices, and Joe Wirag, all three of Midland, while the third administration choice, George (Bud) Netherland of Chester finished fourth in the 13-man field.

Here's the way the vote ended:

Dye 923, Wirag 891, Presutti 752, Netherland 691, Lester W. Barr 687, John M. Breckenridge 684, Nick Kleich 587, Robert L. Frontz 535, Joe Prodonovich 515, Joe Lomba 514, Nick D'Innocenzo 478, Joe Yukich 397 and Bryant Perkins 368. Of the other candidates, Frontz and Lomba are from East Liverpool and the remainder from Midland.

Waldo Adkins of East Liverpool won out for guide, defeating Robert Ibbs, also of East Liverpool, 1,814 to 942. Adkins was the administration choice.

Jim Aikens of Midland defeated the administration's choice, George Huha Jr., 1,599 to 1,056, for inside guard.

Elected as department grievance committeemen were Anthony Newtz of Midland, brick department, general labor and carpenter shop; Mitchell Disdore of Midland, transportation department; Carmen Cananzi of Midland, blooming and billet mill; Ernest Badgley, open hearth and electric furnace; James Oliver of Midland, coke plant and blast furnace; Marcus Trough of East Liverpool, cold strip; Joseph Rotuna of Rochester, heat treat and National Drawn; William C. Allison of East Liverpool, burning and welding riggers and electrical; John Zdinak of Midland, conditioning and forged stock, and Al Lona of Midland, finishing mill.

AWOL Pair Remains In Jail For Marshal

Two AWOL sailors from the Norfolk Naval Base remain in jail in Midland today, awaiting to be turned over to a U.S. marshal from Pittsburgh.

Their woman companion is expected to be released as she denied any knowledge of the theft of the car in which the trio was found asleep early Thursday morning on the old Beaver Creek Rd. near the State Line.

Identified as James Alvin Roberts and Michael A. Moehrer, both seamen third class from Wisconsin, they allegedly admitted stealing the car to visit a friend in Cleveland and apparently had given the woman, Virginia Boydrid, 22, of Chicago, a ride from Norfolk.

FBI agents and the Navy Department are investigating the case, police said.

The auto, which has Florida license plates, was stolen in Norfolk, they added. Ohioville police became suspicious when the two sailors were unable to furnish a car's registration.

The armadillo has dim sight and poor hearing.

Lausche Knows What He's Doing

There will be an all-out push to water down the sense of the Lausche amendment in the Senate forbidding U.S. aid to countries "known to be dominated by communism or Marxism."

The push will be made in the House. Kennedy administration officials will hammer at the theme that has rubbed millions of us raw these last few years—that only they and the foreign-aid buffs passed along from one administration to the next are smart enough to decide where money should be spent for foreign aid.

This was the official line under the Roosevelt, Truman and Eisenhower administrations. It now is the official line under the Kennedy administration. We taxpayers are entitled to our opinion on other expenditures but whenever foreign aid is involved we must grin and bear it because Big Brother knows best.

We opposed this smug attitude during the Truman and Eisenhower administrations, and we see no sense to it now. During the Roosevelt years it was something that had to be accepted on faith because World War II was in progress and foreign aid was part of the total war policy.

INSTEAD OF watering down the sense of the Lausche amendment, agreed to in the showdown, incidentally, by Ohio's junior senator, Stephen M. Young, members of the House should take counter-measures to beef it up.

They should propose that foreign aid be barred to all countries wholse policies have been consistently hostile to the United States. Not every enemy of popular sovereignty, private enterprise and representative government is dyed red. The most formidable enemy was Nazi Germany, which was dyed brown. Its ally, Fascist Italy, was dyed black, and the other member of the Axis, Japan, was dyed sunrise pink.

The sense of the Lausche amendment, if it reflected the sense of the American people, would be that no nation which makes a point of blocking U.S. policy and undermining U.S. interests is entitled to a penny of U.S. help.

It would say that only nations whose friendship is overt and meaningful have any claim on this nation's productivity and the open-handed policy that enables Americans to share their blessings.

THE AMENDMENT might even make clear that it is the sense of the U.S. Congress that past attempts to buy friendship with money were ill-advised. In the same statement it might declare that in some instances the "investment" in rehabilitation and security paid off handsomely and list by name those countries that have shown their gratitude for being strengthened.

There would need to be a list, also, of nations with no claim on U.S. wealth. Yugoslavia, for example. Poland. And then for the hard part of the job—the non-Communist dictatorships that have been milking the American cow, cooing, "Nice bossy," then kicking bossy in the belly when their pail was full.

Sen. Lausche, as Ohioans all know, is a past master of political savvy. He has read the portents. He knows what he is doing. He proved it in the Senate and if his amendment is broadened out to blacklist all countries that have shown their enmity to the United States and its principles the House of Representatives would prove it by an even wider margin than the 57-24 vote in the Senate.

Common Market Shows Its Teeth

The best thing that could have happened to jar business in this country awake to the new realities of business in Europe was Common Market retaliation for U.S. tariff boosts on carpeting and glass.

Greatest of the new realities in Europe is the collective strength that can be brought to bear by a Common Market collective decision. No sooner did President Kennedy yield to pressure at home to protect carpet and glass manufacturers by boosting tariff rates from 21 to 40 per cent than the European Common Market increased duties as much as 100 per cent on five classes of American products sold abroad.

The effect was to double to about 40 per cent of their value the duties on U.S. polyester, polyethlene and artificial and synthetic textiles and to raise from 16 to 19 per cent the duties on U.S. varnishes and water colors.

Belgium was to have been the principal target of the tariff boosts; it is the principal Common Market producer of carpeting and glass. When it retaliated, the other five members of the Common Market — France, Italy, West Germany, Luxembourg and the Netherlands—showed their teeth too.

Something had to drive home the real reason this country must get on a good footing with this growing organization that promises to change the nature of international trade. It is not love but fear.

The Common Market collectivizes the bargaining resources of its members. If it lives up to only a fraction of its potentialities it will make the British Commonwealth and the sterling bloc, powerful as they were and still are, look like practice sessions for the real game.

The United States could be isolated more completely than its own isolationists ever dreamed of isolating it with tariff walls.

If in due time the expanding Common Market evolved into a political federation, similar to the federation of the original states in America, U.S. enterprise would find itself in competition with a new entity in Europe that would dwarf it in population, resources and, according to all present indications, productivity.

It now has had a fair sample of the length and sharpness of the Common Market's teeth.

A Letter From Max

By Truman Twill

Dear Mr. Truman Twill:

Your recent confession that you were too dumb and-or lazy to grow vegetables in your garden at home and your sweet apology for concentrating on flowers calls for a defense of us gardeners who grow only vegetables and have as our slogan. "If you can't eat it, it isn't worth growing."

It takes all kinds to make a world, even flower growers like yourself. But nothing makes a vegetable grower see red quicker than for some pansy fancier to say, "I like to see beauty, and flowers are beautiful. There is nothing pretty about an ear of corn or a tomato."

Possibly the explanation is that we are living in the ulcer age and a petunia is less painful than a mess of beans, for instance. While it may be true that we Americans are crass and unartistic, it also is true that beans had more to do with making our country great than petunias had. If it came to running a steel mill or a coal mine, which would you want, a pretty flower or some good energy-producing beans?

As for your complaint that the produce from your garden never compensated for the time you spent working in the garden, you missed the point completely. Some people like to play golf, some like to bowl, some like boating, or other unproductive pastimes, while others like vegetable gardening for its own sake.

No matter how small the harvest in edible food, it is a blow for freedom, which amounts to an extra dividend for the pleasant time expended on the garden.

Nothing pleases and amuses a country vegetable gardener more than to see some of his city flower-gardening cousins trampling around his burgeoning garden patch snatching basketfuls of delicious produce. They are like stray cows bloating themselves in a cornfield.

Obviously you never have eaten a vine-ripened melon, sweet corn 10 minutes from stalk to stove, or freshly picked peas. Incidentally, one of the most rewarding sounds in the world is the soft sound of peas falling on peas in a pan when they are being shelled, because it means that at last you have managed to cover the bottom of the pan with shelled peas.

And home-made sauerkraut. You probably quit before you tried that. Once friends or relatives get a taste of it you have to post a security guard. Maybe it is true that a taste for sauerkraut must be acquired, but once acquired a sauerkraut buff prefers that perfume to any of your precious flowers. And the extra sauerkraut juice that can be put in separate fruit jars! Besides being delicious, it may even have medicinal benefits up to and including those claimed for the Fountain of Youth.

Nor do you make any mention of such things as these hardy perennials asparagus and rhubarb, which must have been weeds originally because they thrive on neglect and are made to order for brown-thumbed gardeners. They are grown from plants rather than from seeds, for which you have an aversion. Seeds can't be all that bad. Where would we be without seeds?

A sidelight on this whole discussion is that the success of our gardens could have an influence on so-called civilization for a century, or two, or three. In World War II the United States was known as the arsenal of the free world and now it bids fair to become the granary of the free world, what with the farm surplus and all.

Faithfully yours,
MAX

This And That

The custom of formalizing a marriage by stepping backward over a broom was observed by Negro slaves and sharecroppers in the U. S. south, at least in some remote areas, until about 1900. Such a marriage was considered temporary until a minister could officiate at a legal wedding.

The findings of one recent survey revealed that 33.5 million American families now spend about 2.3 billion man-hours per week watching television — which is more than the amount of time devoted to earning a living in the same households — 1.9 billion man-hours.

Of every 100 Americans today, 62 now claim membership in some church — which is a substantial increase over a century ago when only about 20 of every 100 Americans were church members.

There are 67 waterfalls in the world which are higher than Niagara Falls, 23 of these being in North America, 23 in Europe, 10 in South America, six in Africa, three in Asia, and two in New Zealand.

Merrily They Roll Along!

Kennedy Improves Labor Ties

By Victor Riesel

Those glad hatters now have a feather in their cap. Bob Kennedy put it there. He agreed to follow in his brother's footsteps by accepting the millinery worker's invitation to speak at their union convention. This will be Bob Kennedy's first such labor gathering. And he will stand on the same platform in the same hotel ballroom as did John Kennedy exactly three years ago.

Victor Riesel

Some observers see considerable significance in his agreeing to speak. The Hatters, Cap and Millinery Workers Union, though clean, crusading and a quality outfit, is about as big as one of Jacqueline's bonnets.

Its leader, Alex Rose, however, is one of the nation's most active and restless liberals. Bob and John Kennedy have long been personal friends of Rose, who also heads New York state's Liberal party. But some see Bob Kennedy's first trade union speech as more than a sign of friendship.

SOME SEE Bob's acceptance as a sign that the administration —despite pressure—is tightening its bonds with the liberal and labor movements. There have been suggestions in Washington that these ties be eased as evidence of the desire for a more friendly relationship with the nation's business.

There are Kennedy men who are talking to businessmen, but the ties which bind this administration to its labor friends never will be loosened. They'll be tightened.

Strangely enough one of those doing the tightening—virtually unnoticed—not only with labor but with the liberals, is Lyndon Johnson. Obviously this is with the approval—if not at the direct suggestion—of the President.

It began after the returns were in election night—1960.

The vice president-elect and Mrs. Johnson graciously telephoned David Dubinsky, the ladies' garment union leader and thanked him long distance for his help in carrying New York State.

Not long afterwards, JFK and LBJ discussed government operations. On Dec. 20, 1960, the President-elect announced that he had assigned the vice president-elect the job of overseeing the work of the federal government's anti-discrimination contract compliance committee. This later turned into the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity.

IN LESS than a year the veep was on a first-name basis with most of the powers inside labor. Then came the black-tie banquet thrown by Labor Secretary Arthur Goldberg on Jan. 12, 1962. There at least 90 of the nation's top labor chiefs toasted the vice president.

With a grin Mr. Goldberg "moved" that the "record" of the 1960 Democratic National Convention be expunged of labor's hotel-room criticism of Johnson's selection by John Kennedy. Everybody applauded.

There was also a special luncheon given by AFL-CIO President George Meany for "Lyndon." I say special because there were no speeches. The fraternizing was warmer than the food.

In addition to Mr. Meany, there were such liberals as Walter Reuther, Al Hayes of the Machinists, Jim Carey, the letter carriers' Bill Doherty—and one of the land's most influential, anonymity-loving men, the White House's Larry O'Brien.

SINCE THEN Mr. Johnson has been as active on the liberal and labor circuit as an old country doctor with a broken buggy. There have been many problems to remedy, many feelings to assuage, many friends to make and keep as the home front grew as tense as those abroad.

Rarely has a vice president been as active as LBJ in such circles. For example, on May 23 Lyndon Johnson spoke at the ladies garment workers' convention—and kept them roaring and applauding his stories and promise of friendship.

On May 16, the veep turned in a stellar performance before the men's clothing workers' union. On May 19, in Washington, he hosted a gathering of some 600 Negro leaders.

LAST WEEK he came into town for a special reception given by Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the N.A.A.C.P., and Mrs. Wilkins.

The vice president mixed with well over a hundred northern leaders of liberal organizations. In less than 18 months the vice president has gotten to know many of them and to feel right at home with them—and they with him.

These are associations which neither Mr. Johnson nor any of the Kennedys will relinquish. They do not believe these friendships interfere with the administration's relations with the men of business.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Miss Antoinette Benedict, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Benedict of Midland Ave., was graduated from the Providence Hospital Training School of Nursing at Beaver Falls.

James M. Duffy was named president of the Holy Name Society of St. Aloysius Catholic Church.

Frank M. Potts of Beaver Ave., Midland, was re-elected treasurer of the board of education of the Midland public schools.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Hugh F. Laughlin, former supervisor of music in East Liverpool Schools, died at his home at 429 Thompson Ave. after an illness of 30 months.

Mrs. Lottie Lynch of St. Clair Ave. visited several weeks with her son, Tech. Sgt. Thomas R. Lynch, at Camp Gordon, Ga.

Alec Greaves of Chester presented tenor selections at a meeting of the East Liverpool Rotary Club.

TEN YEARS AGO — Paul Shingler was installed as president of the Men and Women's Missionary Society of the First Church of Christ.

Henry Milton Smoot III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Smoot Jr., was a candidate for the bachelor of arts degree at Baldwin-Wallace Colege, Berea.

Miss Susie Knapp of Lincoln Highway was graduated from Trinity College, at Washington and her sister, Cynthia Knapp, from Mt. deChantel Academy in Wheeling.

Letter To Editor

This letter is being written in protest to an article carried in the June 5 issue of The Review concerning the entrance into Ohio of a group of humans referred to as "gypsies".

First of all, the mere reporting of this incident was unnecessary and was a subtle discrimination against a minority group. The news report was erroneous as the East Liverpool police stated that they did not "escort" the group as reported. A member of the sheriff's office at Lisbon said that the group had placed their trailers on land that they had legally leased and were therefore not "squatting".

We must remember that civil rights are meant to include all peoples. These so-called "gypsies" are American citizens and are thus entitled to all the rights and privileges that are accorded to each of us.

These people were not charged by the police with committing any type of offense. Yet, suspicion already has been cast upon them. There is a great tendency on the part of many people to stereotype various groups. This we must not do. We should, however, learn to judge our fellow man on an individual basis.

Please understand, I am not making a case for these people. I merely wish to point out that civil rights are not civil privileges, to be extended to one group and withdrawn from another.

Tax Confusion

By David Lawrence

Need Seen For Quick Economic Action

An era of tax confusion has begun. What taxes now will be raised? What taxes will be reduced? Just when will the new rates take effect? What changes of regulations are going to be made anyway by the Treasury on the basis of the discretion already granted in existing laws?

David Lawrence

These are but a few of the many questions which, if left unanswered, will tend to cause business to hesitate and the economy to stagnate. As a lack of confidence spreads, a panicky psychology usually ensues.

It is time for stimulating leadership. More and more, President Kennedy is unwittingly creating the impression that he is floundering.

He has reached what might be called a crisis in his political career. The stock market break has brought no action or public expression from the White House that shows an awareness of what has happened.

The economy is in trouble, and the federal government can be the biggest single factor in its recovery. The enactment of a sensible tax reform program is needed now and ought not to be postponed until the end of the congressional session, which would mean a probable deferment until next year.

Congress is ready to act. When will the Kennedy administration get ready to act? The whole world is waiting to see if the President can avert another 1929-1941 depression. The New Deal floundered and failed then, and was rescued only by the expenditures in heavy goods industries when America started arming after the outbreak of World War II in Europe.

Surely the United States has learned that lesson and has a right this time to expect a more realistic leadership and a more constructive program.

What can a president do in the present situation? For one thing, he can accept the advice of those who have had experience in and know the American economy intimately from national and international viewpoints.

He can put aside his partisanship and sit down with the leaders of both sides in Congress to develop a bipartisan program to provide the incentives to business growth and prosperity which are so sorely needed today.

CONGRESS is in session now, and it is ready to follow a sensible leadership. It is entangled today in a tax reform bill on a few items which do not go to the heart of the economic problem. Some of its provisions should either be laid aside or dealt with as part of a general tax revision bill.

At the end of this month, moreover, the corporation tax of 52 per cent automatically goes down to 47 per cent unless the Congress acts to extend or modify the present law.

Congress can give business its greatest inspiration by enacting now a law that will fix a lower tax rate on corporate earnings for a set period of five years. Even if the reduction is just a few points, it will be an incentive to the businesses of the country. It will enable them to plan on the use of the money they will have been told in advance that they will save.

Money spent by business out of tax savings can, in certain ways, generate more spending and increase employment and ultimately result in more tax receipts.

But the political tendency will be to give a tax cut to lower-income brackets because this means more votes.

It can, however, mean a loss of votes, especially if the tax bill fails to cure unemployment. For to increase consumer spending isn't by itself the way to strengthen the economy. Consumer spending at present is not in a bad way.

It is the heavy goods industries that are in a depression and have been since 1958, and this is the key to high unemployment figures.

THE QUESTION already is being asked how the proposals for a general tax cut emanating from administration circles nowadays can do any good if it results in a big deficit in the federal budget.

The answer is that another big deficit will certainly cause inflation to return, which means higher prices and demands for higher wages. When the temporary stimulus has run its course, there would be the same kind of decline in the health of the general economy that is being experienced today.

A simple solution is to confine tax cuts only to those categories which will stimulate the weak spots in the economy. A reduction in corporate tax rates and a revised set of depreciation rules for all types of businesses are imperative today. This would mean an increase in business volume and tax receipts far outweighing any loss of revenue due to reductions in existing tax rates.

There has been too much delay.

CHANGES have been promised, but the promises have not been kept.

Business has become discouraged.

Planning is at a standstill in many enterprises.

Mistakes already have been made by the President which have unsettled the stock markets of the world. Vague generalities will not help any more than will abstract promises about tax reductions that may be made—perhaps next year.

It is a time for action and not for mere words or ambiguous promises.

The Lonely Comrades

By Rawle Knox

BERLIN

The feeling of being cut off from the rest of Europe, and indeed the world, is one of the pressures urging Germans to escape from the Communist "Democratic Republic."

It is not simply that Walter Ulbricht's brutal wall of barbed wire and mines cuts the East Germans off from the West. To the East, the Poles and Czechs behave very unlike brothers, and it's not easy for an East German to get a visa for either country.

The suspicion which the Czechs, Poles and other East Europeans still feel for the Germans does not prevent them coming as tourists to East Germany. Every Sunday they come in busloads to "cultural centers" such as Dresden or Weimar.

They swarm through the magnificent Zwinger gallery in Dresden—in such numbers that it is almost impossible to see the pictures.

One hotel clerk wryly called these outings "victory tours." He meant that the visitors from the east were a reminder of who lost the war. The tourists spend almost nothing, behave with some arrogance—especially if they are Russian—and leave the East German feeling more isolated than ever.

The incomers do not even always behave like good Communists. Late one night in the bar of the "Elefant Hotel" in Leipzig, a young Czech couple got up and danced the Twist. The East Germans looked on in horror. "The Rock 'n' Roll was popular," one German said, "but the Twist is not for us."

There is not even an interchange of labor between East Germany and the other Communist countries, though East Germany is badly short of manpower and there are indications that Poland, at any rate, might be able to help make up the deficit.

At Eisenhuttenstadt (late Stalinstadt) I did see a team of Czechs working on a Czech-designed gas container for the iron foundry. They had brought a complete group from designer down to riveter. They worked by themselves and lived by themselves. They were an exception.

Officials are just as aware of this isolation as is the man in the street, and they do not like it any better. They are philosophical about the territorial losses in the east.

One foreign ministry official said that after 17 years the German refugees from the east were resigned to resettlement: it would solve nothing if they were allowed to go back to their old homes and so cause a new flood of Polish refugees. He added an admission rarely heard in Germany: "We must realize that we are paying the price of a lost war."

"Mississippi" comes from an Indian word, "Mesipi," meaning "the great river". This was the name given to the vast stream by Indians living along its northern banks, according to a review of a biography of Louis Jolliet, the 17th-century explorer of the Mississippi.

Lausche Knows What He's Doing

There will be an all-out push to water down the sense of the Lausche amendment in the Senate forbidding U.S. aid to countries "known to be dominated by communism or Marxism."

The push will be made in the House. Kennedy administration officials will hammer at the theme that has rubbed millions of us raw these last few years—that only they and the foreign-aid buffs passed along from one administration to the next are smart enough to decide where money should be spent for foreign aid.

This was the official line under the Roosevelt, Truman and Eisenhower administrations. It now is the official line under the Kennedy administration. We taxpayers are entitled to our opinion on other expenditures but whenever foreign aid is involved we must grin and bear it because Big Brother knows best.

We opposed this smug attitude during the Truman and Eisenhower administrations, and we see no sense to it now. During the Roosevelt years it was something that had to be accepted on faith because World War II was in progress and foreign aid was part of the total war policy.

INSTEAD OF watering down the sense of the Lausche amendment, agreed to in the showdown, incidentally, by Ohio's junior senator, Stephen M. Young, members of the House should take counter-measures to beef it up.

They should propose that foreign aid be barred to all countries wholse policies have been consistently hostile to the United States. Not every enemy of popular sovereignty, private enterprise and representative government is dyed red. The most formidable enemy was Nazi Germany, which was dyed brown. Its ally, Fascist Italy, was dyed black, and the other member of the Axis, Japan, was dyed sunrise pink.

The sense of the Lausche amendment, if it reflected the sense of the American people, would be that no nation which makes a point of blocking U.S. policy and undermining U.S. interests is entitled to a penny of U.S. help.

It would say that only nations whose friendship is overt and meaningful have any claim on this nation's productivity and the open-handed policy that enables Americans to share their blessings.

THE AMENDMENT might even make clear that it is the sense of the U.S. Congress that past attempts to buy friendship with money were ill-advised. In the same statement it might declare that in some instances the "investment" in rehabilitation and security paid off handsomely and list by name those countries that have shown their gratitude for being strengthened.

There would need to be a list, also, of nations with no claim on U.S. wealth, Yugoslavia, for example. Poland. And then for the hard part of the job—the non-Communist dictatorships that have been milking the American cow, cooing, "Nice bossy," then kicking bossy in the belly when their pail was full.

Sen. Lausche, as Ohioans all know, is a past master of political savvy. He has read the portents. He knows what he is doing. He proved it in the Senate and if his amendment is broadened out to blacklist all countries that have shown their enmity to the United States and its principles the House of Representatives would prove it by an even wider margin than the 57-24 vote in the Senate.

Common Market Shows Its Teeth

The best thing that could have happened to jar business in this country awake to the new realities of business in Europe was Common Market retaliation for U.S. tariff boosts on carpeting and glass.

Greatest of the new realities in Europe is the collective strength that can be brought to bear by a Common Market collective decision. No sooner did President Kennedy yield to pressure at home to protect carpet and glass manufacturers by boosting tariff rates from 21 to 40 per cent than the European Common Market increased duties as much as 100 per cent on five classes of American products sold abroad.

The effect was to double to about 40 per cent of their value the duties on U.S. polyester, polyethlene and artificial and synthetic textiles and to raise from 16 to 19 per cent the duties on U.S. varnishes and water colors.

Belgium was to have been the principal target of the tariff boosts; it is the principal Common Market producer of carpeting and glass. When it retaliated, the other five members of the Common Market — France, Italy, West Germany, Luxembourg and the Netherlands—showed their teeth too.

Something had to drive home the real reason this country must get on a good footing with this growing organization that promises to change the nature of international trade. It is not love but fear.

The Common Market collectivizes the bargaining resources of its members. If it lives up to only a fraction of its potentialities it will make the British Commonwealth and the sterling bloc, powerful as they were and still are, look like practice sessions for the real game.

The United States could be isolated more completely than its own isolationists ever dreamed of isolating it with tariff walls.

If in due time the expanding Common Market evolved into a political federation, similar to the federation of the original states in America, U.S. enterprise would find itself in competition with a new entity in Europe that would dwarf it in population, resources and, according to all present indications, productivity.

It now has had a fair sample of the length and sharpness of the Common Market's teeth.

A Letter From Max

By Truman Twill

Dear Mr. Truman Twill:

Your recent confession that you were too dumb and-or lazy to grow vegetables in your garden at home and your sweet apology for concentrating on flowers calls for a defense of us gardeners who grow only vegetables and have as our slogan. "If you can't eat it, it isn't worth growing."

It takes all kinds to make a world, even flower growers like yourself. But nothing makes a vegetable grower see red quicker than for some pansy fancier to say, "I like to see beauty, and flowers are beautiful. There is nothing pretty about an ear of corn or a tomato."

Possibly the explanation is that we are living in the ulcer age and a petunia is less painful than a mess of beans, for instance. While it may be true that we Americans are crass and unartistic, it also is true that beans had more to do with making our country great than petunias had. If it came to running a steel mill or a coal mine, which would you want, a pretty flower or some good energy-producing beans?

As for your complaint that the produce from your garden never compensated for the time you spent working in the garden, you missed the point completely. Some people like to play golf, some like to bowl, some like boating, or other unproductive pastimes, while others like vegetable gardening for its own sake.

No matter how small the harvest in edible food, it is a blow for freedom, which amounts to an extra dividend for the pleasant time expended on the garden.

Nothing pleases and amuses a country vegetable gardener more than to see some of his city flower-gardening cousins trampling around his burgeoning garden patch snatching basketfuls of delicious produce. They are like stray cows bloating themselves in a cornfield.

Obviously you never have eaten a vine-ripened melon, sweet corn 10 minutes from stalk to stove, or freshly picked peas. Incidentally, one of the most rewarding sounds in the world is the soft sound of peas falling on peas in a pan when they are being shelled, because it means that at last you have managed to cover the bottom of the pan with shelled peas.

And home-made sauerkraut. You probably quit before you tried that. Once friends or relatives get a taste of it you have to post a security guard. Maybe it is true that a taste for sauerkraut must be acquired, but once acquired a sauerkraut buif prefers that perfume to any of your precious flowers. And the extra sauerkraut juice that can be put in separate fruit jars! Besides being delicious, it may even have medicinal benefits up to and including those claimed for the Fountain of Youth.

Nor do you make any mention of such things as these hardy perennials asparagus and rhubarb, which must have been weeds originally because they thrive on neglect and are made to order for brown-thumbed gardeners. They are grown from plants rather than from seeds, for which you have an aversion. Seeds can't be all that bad. Where would we be without seeds?

A sidelight on this whole discussion is that the success of our gardens could have an influence on so-called civilization for a century, or two, or three. In World War II the United States was known as the arsenal of the free world and now it bids fair to become the granary of the free world, what with the farm surplus and all.

Faithfully yours,
MAX

This And That

The custom of formalizing a marriage by stepping backward over a broom was observed by Negro slaves and sharecroppers in the U. S. south, at least in some remote areas, until about 1900. Such a marriage was considered temporary until a minister could officiate at a legal wedding.

The findings of one recent survey revealed that 33.5 million American families now spend about 2.3 billion man-hours per week watching television — which is more than the amount of time devoted to earning a living in the same households — 1.9 billion man-hours.

Of every 100 Americans today, 62 now claim membership in some church — which is a substantial increase over a century ago when only about 20 of every 100 Americans were church members.

There are 67 waterfalls in the world which are higher than Niagara Falls, 23 of these being in North America, 23 in Europe, 10 in South America, six in Africa, three in Asia, and two in New Zealand.

Merrily They Roll Along!

By Victor Riesel

Those glad hatters now have a feather in their cap. Bob Kennedy put it there. He agreed to follow in his brother's footsteps by accepting the millinery worker's invitation to speak at their union convention. This will be Bob Kennedy's first such labor gathering. And he will stand on the same platform in the same hotel ballroom as did John Kennedy exactly three years ago.

Victor Riesel

Some observers see considerable significance in his agreeing to speak. The Hatters, Cap and Millinery Workers Union, though clean, crusading and a quality outfit, is about as big as one of Jacqueline's bonnets.

Its leader, Alex Rose, however, is one of the nation's most active and restless liberals. Bob and John Kennedy have long been personal friends of Rose, who also heads New York state's Liberal party. But some see Bob Kennedy's first trade union speech as more than a sign of friendship.

SOME SEE Bob's acceptance as a sign that the administration —despite pressure—is tightening its bonds with the liberal and labor movements. There have been suggestions in Washington that these ties be eased as evidence of the desire for a more friendly relationship with the nation's business.

There are Kennedy men who are talking to businessmen, but the ties which bind this administration to its labor friends never will be loosened. They'll be tightened.

Strangely enough one of those doing the tightening—virtually unnoticed—not only with labor but with the liberals, is Lyndon Johnson. Obviously this is with the approval—if not at the direct suggestion—of the President.

It began after the returns were in election night—1960.

The vice president-elect and Mrs. Johnson graciously telephoned David Dubinsky, the ladies' garment union leader and thanked him long distance for his help in carrying New York State.

Not long afterwards, JFK and LBJ discussed government operations. On Dec. 20, 1960, the President-elect announced that he had assigned the vice president-elect the job of overseeing the work of the federal government's anti-discrimination contract compliance committee. This later turned into the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity.

IN LESS than a year the veep was on a first-name basis with most of the powers inside labor. Then came the black-tie banquet thrown by Labor Secretary Arthur Goldberg on Jan. 12, 1962. There at least 90 of the nation's top labor chiefs toasted the vice president.

With a grin Mr. Goldberg "moved" that the "record" of the 1960 Democratic National Convention be expunged of labor's hotel-room criticism of Johnson's selection by John Kennedy. Everybody applauded.

There was also a special luncheon given by AFL-CIO President George Meany for "Lyndon." I say special because there were no speeches. The fraternizing was warmer than the food.

In addition to Mr. Meany, there were such liberals as Walter Reuther, Al Hayes of the Machinists, Jim Carey, the letter carriers' Bill Doherty—and one of the land's most influential, anonymity-loving men, the White House's Larry O'Brien.

SINCE THEN Mr. Johnson has been as active on the liberal and labor circuit as an old country doctor with a broken buggy. There have been many problems to remedy, many feelings to assuage, many friends to make and keep as the home front grew as tense as those abroad.

Rarely has a vice president been as active as LBJ in such circles. For example, on May 23 Lyndon Johnson spoke at the ladies garment workers' convention—and kept them roaring and applauding his stories and promise of friendship.

On May 16, the veep turned in a stellar performance before the men's clothing workers' union. On May 19, in Washington, he hosted a gathering of some 600 Negro leaders.

LAST WEEK he came into town for a special reception given by Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the N.A.A.C.P., and Mrs. Wilkins.

The vice president mixed with well over a hundred northern leaders of liberal organizations. In less than 18 months the vice president has gotten to know many of them and to feel right at home with them—and they with him.

These are associations which neither Mr. Johnson nor any of the Kennedys will relinquish. They do not believe these friendships interfere with the administration's relations with the men of business.

Down Through The Years

TEN YEARS AGO — Paul Shingler was installed as president of the Men and Women's Missionary Society of the First Church of Christ.

Henry Milton Smoot III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Smoot Jr., was a candidate for the bachelor of arts degree at Baldwin-Wallace Colege, Berea.

Miss Susie Knapp of Lincoln Highway was graduated from Trinity College, at Washington and her sister, Cynthia Knapp, from Mt. deChantel Academy in Wheeling.

Letter To Editor

This letter is being written in protest to an article carried in the June 5 issue of The Review concerning the entrance into Ohio of a group of humans referred to as "gypsies".

First of all, the mere reporting of this incident was unnecessary and was a subtle discrimination against a minority group. The news report was erroneous as the East Liverpool police stated that they did not "escort" the group as reported. A member of the sheriff's office at Lisbon said that the group had placed their trailers on land that they had legally leased and were therefore not "squatting".

We must remember that civil rights are meant to include all peoples. These so-called "gypsies" are American citizens and are thus entitled to all the rights and privileges that are accorded to each of us.

These people were not charged by the police with committing any type of offense. Yet, suspicion already has been cast upon them. There is a great tendency on the part of many people to stereotype various groups. This we must not do. We should, however, learn to judge our fellow man on an individual basis.

Please understand, I am not making a case for these people. I merely wish to point out that civil rights are not civil privileges, to be extended to one group and withdrawn from another.

Tax Confusion

By David Lawrence

Need Seen For Quick Economic Action

An era of tax confusion has begun. What taxes now will be raised? What taxes will be reduced? Just when will the new rates take effect? What changes of regulations are going to be made anyway by the Treasury on the basis of the discretion already granted in existing laws?

David Lawrence

These are but a few of the many questions which, if left unanswered, will tend to cause business to hesitate and the economy to stagnate. As a lack of confidence spreads, a panicky psychology usually ensues.

It is time for stimulating leadership. More and more, President Kennedy is unwittingly creating the impression that he is floundering.

He has reached what might be called a crisis in his political career. The stock market break has brought no action or public expression from the White House that shows an awareness of what has happened.

The economy is in trouble, and the federal government can be the biggest single factor in its recovery. The enactment of a sensible tax reform program is needed now and ought not to be postponed until the end of the congressional session, which would mean a probable deferment until next year.

Congress is ready to act. When will the Kennedy administration get ready to act? The whole world is waiting to see if the President can avert another 1929-1941 depression. The New Deal floundered and failed then, and was rescued only by the expenditures in heavy goods industries when America started arming after the outbreak of World War II in Europe.

Surely the United States has learned that lesson and has a right this time to expect a more realistic leadership and a more constructive program.

What can a president do in the present situation? For one thing, he can accept the advice of those who have had experience in and know the American economy intimately from national and international viewpoints.

Beaver Creek Area's Origin Told Kiwanis

The geological history of the Beaver Creek area and the scenic attractions of the creek valleys were outlined by E. R. (Pete) Chandler at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday.

Chandler, executive secretary of the East Liverpool Area Chamber of Commerce and amateur naturalist, described the glacier effects upon Columbiana County and the creek whose three forks drain three - fifths of the county.

He also described the Beaver Creek State Park, a 1,200-acre tract in St. Clair, Madison and Elkrun Townships, which area organizations are seeking to have developed further as a recreation area.

Slide pictures of the creek district were screened by Lawrence Black, program chairman, who introduced Chandler.

Merrill Hall, first vice president, commented on the scenic beauty of such creek areas as Fredericktown and Sprucevale. "So many of us take a trip to other places in the nation only to come back and find we have just as beautiful if not better places in our own backyard."

Methodists OK Fund Drive For Aid To Colleges

LAKESIDE, Ohio (AP)—Mount Union and Baldwin - Wallace colleges and Ohio Wesleyan and Ohio Northern universities could get $1.5 million from a four-year fund-raising campaign approved by the Ohio Conference of the Methodist Church.

Delegates to the conference's annual meeting approved a report Thursday calling for a joint effort with the North-East Ohio Conference to raise the money during the 1964-68 quadrennium for the state's Methodist schools. Another $1 million would be raised for the Wesley Foundation units on state university campuses.

The North-East Ohio Conference meets here later this month and will have the report on its agenda.

A proposal to raise the minimum salary for married ministers $200 to $4,200, plus an allowance for $300 for each child in parsonage families receiving minimum support, also was approved.

5 From City Receive Degrees At Geneva

Five city men and women were among 166 who received degrees at the Geneva College Commencement this week at Beaver Falls.

They were: Karl Fife, 1621 St. Clair Ave., bachelor of science degree in pre-medicine; Paul Fogal of R.D. 3, B.S. in physics; Gary Liebschner, 2801 St. Clair Ave., B. S. in mathematics; James Martin, 811 St. Clair Ave., who graduated in January and was awarded in absentia a B. S. degree in physics, and Rachel DeLaney of Belmar Ave., who was graduated from the evening school with a B. S. in education with a major in elementary education.

Fogal was awarded the J. L. McCartney science prize, a medal presented for the best work on some assigned topic in a field of science.

Harsha Amendment Due On Foreign Aid

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—U. S. Rep. William Harsha, R-Ohio, says he will offer an amendment to the foreign aid bill before Congress which would forbid aid or contribution of surplus commodities to any country with a Communist form of government.

Thursday the Senate passed an amendment partially exempting surplus commodity shipments from the ban on aid to Soviet satellites.

Tax Collections Show Boost For Auto Sales

Auto sales in Columbiana County are continuing to gain in 1962, compared with 1961, according to sales tax collection figures announced today at Columbus by State Trasurer Joseph T. Ferguson.

Taxes on car sales produced $12,463 in the week ending June 2, up $3,602 from the $8,861 listed in the comparable week of 1961. The collections stand at $465,493 since the fiscal year started last July 1, up $17,632 from the $448,-131 shown at the same time in the preceding fiscal year.

Advance collections on other retail sales taxes produced $6,197 in the week ending June 2, compared with $38,530 in sales of prepaid tax stamps in the same week of 1961 when a different collection system was used, Ferguson said. Overall collections since the start of the fiscal year are $963,-011, off $211,933 from the $1,174,-944 shown at the same time in the preceding fiscal year.

Youth Electrocuted On Contacting Fence

ELIZABETH, W. Va. (AP) — A Wirt County youth, Melvin Wayne Hill of near Leroy, was electrocuted yesterday when he came in contact with an electric fence.

Sheriff Ira Lockhart said the 14-year-old boy touched the fence when his clothes were still wet from swimming. The youngster had been swimming with two other boys in Right Reedy Creek.

Beaver Creek Area's Origin Told Kiwanis

The geological history of the Beaver Creek area and the scenic attractions of the creek valleys were outlined by E. R. (Pete) Chandler at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday.

Chandler, executive secretary of the East Liverpool Area Chamber of Commerce and amateur naturalist, described the glacier effects upon Columbiana County and the creek whose three forks drain three - fifths of the county.

He also described the Beaver Creek State Park, a 1,200-acre tract in St. Clair, Madison and Elkrun Townships, which area organizations are seeking to have developed further as a recreation area.

Slide pictures of the creek district were screened by Lawrence Black, program chairman, who introduced Chandler.

Merrill Hall, first vice president, commented on the scenic beauty of such creek areas as Fredericktown and Sprucevale. "So many of us take a trip to other places in the nation only to come back and find we have just as beautiful if not better places in our own backyard."

Methodists OK Fund Drive For Aid To Colleges

LAKESIDE, Ohio (AP)—Mount Union and Baldwin - Wallace colleges and Ohio Wesleyan and Ohio Northern universities could get $1.5 million from a four-year fund-raising campaign approved by the Ohio Conference of the Methodist Church.

Delegates to the conference's annual meeting approved a report Thursday calling for a joint effort with the North-East Ohio Conference to raise the money during the 1964-68 quadrennium for the state's Methodist schools. Another $1 million would be raised for the Wesley Foundation units on state university campuses.

The North-East Ohio Conference meets here later this month and will have the report on its agenda.

A proposal to raise the minimum salary for married ministers $200 to $4,200, plus an allowance for $300 for each child in parsonage families receiving minimum support, also was approved.

5 From City Receive Degrees At Geneva

They were: Karl Fife, 1621 St. Clair Ave., bachelor of science degree in pre-medicine; Paul Fogal of R.D. 3, B.S. in physics; Gary Liebschner, 2801 St. Clair Ave., B. S. in mathematics; James Martin, 811 St. Clair Ave., who graduated in January and was awarded in absentia a B. S. degree in physics, and Rachel DeLaney of Belmar Ave., who was graduated from the evening school with a B. S. in education with a major in elementary education.

Fogal was awarded the J. L. McCartney science prize, a medal presented for the best work on some assigned topic in a field of science.

Harsha Amendment Due On Foreign Aid

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—U. S. Rep. William Harsha, R-Ohio, says he will offer an amendment to the foreign aid bill before Congress which would forbid aid or contribution of surplus commodities to any country with a Communist form of government.

Thursday the Senate passed an amendment partially exempting surplus commodity shipments from the ban on aid to Soviet satellites.

3 From City Get Degrees At OSU

Three city men and women were among 12 Columbiana County students who received degrees from Ohio State University today at Columbus.

Graduating were Peter K. Hacker, bachelor of science, Barbara J. Stevens, master of arts, and Franklin D. Wilson, bachelor of science in education, all of East Liverpool.

Ronald M. Presutti of Wellsville, bachelor degree in education; Edward B. Hartford of Lisbon, bachelor degree in architecture; James Springer of Lisbon R. D., bachelor of science; John Murphy of Columbiana, science; James E. Poulton of Columbiana, education.

THE REVIEW

School

It will accommodate some 350-400 pupils, compared to the present high school at Salineville, which is now overcrowded with 260 students, school officials said.

On a proposal by Charles Allison, a member, the board last night authorized the enrollment of the present eighth grade class of 28 at Salineville High School in the fall.

Previously, No. 16 area students now in Wellsville High will continue there. However, from now on, pupils leaving No. 16 will attend the Southern Local school under the new policy.

This change will boost the enrollment at the high school next year to an estimated 310, Tom Leek, principal, said today.

Other contracts for the new high school approved by the board last night included electrical work, Firestone Electric of Salem, $65,322; heating and ventilating, Salem Plumbing of Salem, $87,071; plumbing, Cardinal Plumbing & Heating of Sebring, $69,891.

Clothing lockers, Alan Wood Co. of Pittsburgh, $10,712; tile flooring, Durable Floor Co. of Youngstown, $5,321; gymnasium wood floor, Thompson Flooring Co. of Pittsburgh, $9,675; kitchen equipment, W. C. Zabel of Youngstown, $12,740; science equipment, Kyser Equipment Co. of Niles, $11,299, and home economics equipment, St. Charles Manufacturing Co. of St. Charles, Ill., $7,420.

Originally, bids of $14,000 for shop equipment and $12,000 for blacktopped driveways had been received, but the board decided last night the new school could be provided with adequate shop equipment by $6,000 in new items plus present equipment at Salineville High School, which is to become an elementary school.

The present Salineville elementary school will be closed.

The board also felt $6,000 would be all that would be needed at present for driveways, and rejected bids of $2,000 for seeding and fertilizing grounds and $778 for landscaping in order to save money for the present.

In other action, the board made a revision of salary schedule for teachers with bachelor degrees, providing an increment of $100 for each year's experience in order to make up an oversight in the pay schedule approved in May.

The board also authorized driver training instruction at the high school starting in the fall. The course, begun about 1956, was discontinued four years ago.

A formal request for a transportation survey by the State Education Department was authorized, to determine if any bus routes should be revised.

The board also set a revised pay schedule for athletic coaches. Head football and basketball coaches will get $500 for their duties, compared to $400 previously; assistants will get $200, compared to $100, minor sports coaches will receive $200, and elementary school directors will get $100, and departmentalized seventh and eighth grade coaches will get $300.

Kennedy argued, would not nullify the Kerr-Mills law.

De Gaulle—Kennedy said he hadn't heard anything of a report he and President Charles de Gaulle of France are arranging to meet.

Legislation—With time growing short and Congress members eager to get home in this election year, Kennedy said a priority list of legislation the administration particularly wants passed will have to be drawn up.

Spain—The President answered with a terse "No" when asked if he had met with Spanish Republicans while in Venezuela last December and told them he would work to overthrow the Franco regime in Spain.

Mexico—He still intends to visit Mexico the end of this month.

Cigarettes—Kennedy declined to comment on the controversy over the possible effect of cigarette smoking on lung cancer, other than to cite plans of the Public Health Service to appoint a panel of experts to study the question.

Potato Field Day Set Aug. 15 Near Poland

LISBON — Plans were completed for the Eastern Ohio Potato Field Day Aug. 15 when the Board of Directors of the Columbiana - Mahoning Potato Growers Association met Thursday night at the Barth farm, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture. It will be at Barth farm south of Poland.

Indications are there will be a large display of equipment and supplies and the program will include demonstrations of various kinds of equipment, brief speaking program, tour of the farm and potato fields.

Visitors will see 30 different varieties, plats with systemic insect control and chemical weed control plots. Lunch will be served at noon.

The board will meet in July to go over the plans and a complete program will be announced later, Lower said.

a matter of conscience and duty to the public," to give a confidential Agriculture Department report on the Estes case to a newspaper reporter.

The reporter, who Manuel described as a longtime friend, was Earl Mazo of the New York Tribune.

It was for this action that Manuel was discharged after a day-long subcommittee wrangle behind closed doors Thursday. Democratic members spoke of a "breach of ethics."

The subcommittee, headed by Rep. L. H. Fountain, D-N.C., delayed resuming public hearings to decide what to do with Manuel. It took an all-day session behind guarded doors.

In the meantime, the scheduled witness, James T. Ralph, cooled his heels in the nearby House Caucus Room, waiting for a call that never came. He is to testify today.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman fired Ralph, a former assistant secretary, May 15, saying he had used a telephone credit card belonging to Estes for personal calls. Ralph has denied accepting expensive suits from the West Texas speculator.

By a straight party vote of 4 to 2, the subcommittee voted to fire Manuel shortly before 4 p.m. Thursday, although his dismissal had been reported as early as midmorning.

Fountain said although Republican members thought Manuel should get a second chance, the subcommittee unanimously believed "he had made a serious mistake."

He said Manuel gave a number of reasons for doing it, including "the purpose of making it available to the attorney general of Texas."

The Texas official, Will Wilson, has been conducting a grand jury investigation into the death of Henry H. Marshall, an Agriculture Department official in Texas who had been investigating Estes' transfers of valuable cotton allotments. Marshall's death by five gunshot wounds was first ruled suicide. But a pathologist now says Marshall may have been murdered. The death is now under investigation.

The report given to the newspaper dealt in part with Marshall's death, and the Agriculture Department eventually made parts of it available to the Texas grand jury.

Manuel is not a newcomer to congressional investigations, although he had worked for the Fountain subcommittee for just about two weeks.

He has served as minority counsel on a House subcommittee investigating public roads scandals, and also on the Senate committee that conducted a marathon investigation of unions.

Wellsville Driver Upsets In Pursuit

Fleeing from Wellsville police after crashing a red traffic signal, a Wellsville man overturned his car early today along Route 45, and an East Liverpool man was injured.

Police said Donald Deem, 25, of 2016 Buckeye Ave., rolled his auto three times along Pleasant Valley Rd., with a cruiser in pursuit.

Ronald Waite, 29, of 314 Garfield St., a passenger, received multiple abrasions and cuts of the scalp and a possible rib injury in the crash at 12:05 a.m. He was treated at City Hospital.

Deem was fined $25, plus $8.70 court costs, at a hearing today before Mayor William Daugherty on a charge of reckless operation. Police said he failed to obey the stop light at 3rd St. and Broadway.

No attempts were made to cut the bill so far as money is concerned.

It carries authority for $600 million for fiscal 1963 for the Alliance for Progress program in Latin America and $800 million for each of the succeeding three years.

In addition it authorizes $1.5 billion for military assistance and $1.25 billion for economic development loans outside Latin America, authorized last year.

Neither of these items were subject to reduction in the authorization bill but likely will be the targets for sharp cuts when the appropriations bill comes up.

Carpenter Tells Senior Class To Reach For Moon

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—Astronaut Malcolm Scott Carpenter urged a starry-eyed Boulder High School graduating class Thursday night to reach for the moon.

"Your horizons are limited only by your own vision," said the Navy lieutenant commander, who was graduated from the same school 19 years ago.

Carpenter, 37, received a standing ovation from the 316 seniors and 2,500 relatives and guests.

The hometown hero, who two weeks earlier orbited the earth, said: "Going to the moon is no longer fantasy. There's a slight chance that men my age might someday be on the moon. Possibly people of your age will land not on the moon, but on the moons of Mars, and then on Mars itself."

Recalling his youth, Carpenter termed the world one of chaos when he was graduated in 1943.

"But the world you enter, in case you've heard news to the contrary, is rich with promise," he said. "You really don't know what riches await you. They await but they're not going to drop into your lap. You have to go get them."

Carpenter said the graduates have their work cut out for them.

"We are engaged now in a battle with another ideology for the minds of men, the effects of which may be felt for another 1,000 years," he said. "It is your responsibility, whether you like it or not, to see that our God-fearing way of life continues and that freedom survives."

The famous Sir Malcolm Campbell became the first man to drive a car 300 miles an hour, when on Sept. 3, 1935, he drove his 2,500-horsepower aircraft-engined Blue Bird at a record of 301.129 miles per hour at Bonneville Salt Falts, in Utah.

112 Kindergarten Pupils Expected

Some 112 youngsters are expected to attend five Beaver Local School District kindergarten classes starting June 25, Urban Petros, elementary supervisor, announced today.

As a result of preliminary spring reports and registration this week, Petros expects 60 at Calcutta School, where there will be two classes, 16 each at Elkton and West Point and 20 at Rogers.

About 28 pupils at the Beaver Local Public School have registered through today for make-up and extra credit classes at the public school, also begining June 25.

The high school summer session will open Monday with about 125 students registered in courses such as English, mathematics, typing, history and driver training.

WHY Milligan's Changed Store Hours!

The decision to close on Saturday afternoons and to remain open on Wednesday afternoons was made after careful consideration.

Our records indicate that our customers prefer to shop here Monday through Saturday morning. The average customer seems to buy his hardware supplies during these five and one half days and is either using the material he has purchased or doing something else on Saturday afternoons.

Wednesday afternoon is a different story: our industrial customers work at this time; the tradesmen work then, too. We feel we must be open on Wednesday afternoons to accommodate these people.

Economies dictate that we can work profitably only so many hours per week. Saturday afternoon is our slowest time; thus, our decision to close. Wednesday afternoon openings, so far, have proved successful.

We want our customers to know that we have no desire to make shopping inconvenient. Instead, we want to gain additional business.

Our decision was made mainly because so few customers bought hardware supplies on Saturday afternoons and we felt this fact indicated our remaining open on Wednesday afternoons would be more convenient and more satisfactory to both us and the public.

It will accommodate some 350-400 pupils, compared to the present high school at Salineville, which is now overcrowded with 260 students, school officials said.

On a proposal by Charles Allison, a member, the board last night authorized the enrollment of the present eighth grade class of 28 at Salineville High School in the fall.

Previously, No. 16 area students now in Wellsville High will continue there. However, from now on, pupils leaving No. 16 will attend the Southern Local school under the new policy.

This change will boost the enrollment at the high school next year to an estimated 310, Tom Leek, principal, said today.

Other contracts for the new high school approved by the board last night included electrical work, Firestone Electric of Salem, $65,322; heating and ventilating, Salem Plumbing of Salem, $87,071; plumbing, Cardinal Plumbing & Heating of Sebring, $69,891.

Clothing lockers, Alan Wood Co. of Pittsburgh, $10,712; tile flooring, Durable Floor Co. of Youngstown, $5,321; gymnasium wood floor, Thompson Flooring Co. of Pittsburgh, $9,675; kitchen equipment, W. C. Zabel of Youngstown, $12,740; science equipment, Kyser Equipment Co. of Niles, $11,299, and home economics equipment, St. Charles Manufacturing Co. of St. Charles, Ill., $7,420.

Originally, bids of $14,000 for shop equipment and $12,000 for blacktopped driveways had been received, but the board decided last night the new school could be provided with adequate shop equipment by $6,000 in new items plus present equipment at Salineville High School, which is to become an elementary school.

The present Salineville elementary school will be closed.

The board also felt $6,000 would be all that would be needed at present for driveways, and rejected bids of $2,000 for seeding and fertilizing grounds and $778 for landscaping in order to save money for the present.

In other action, the board made a revision of salary schedule for teachers with bachelor degrees, providing an increment of $100 for each year's experience in order to make up an oversight in the pay schedule approved in May.

The board also authorized driver training instruction at the high school starting in the fall. The course, begun about 1956, was discontinued four years ago.

A formal request for a transportation survey by the State Education Department was authorized, to determine if any bus routes should be revised.

The board also set a revised pay schedule for athletic coaches. Head football and basketball coaches will get $500 for their duties, compared to $400 previously; assistants will get $200, compared to $100, minor sports coaches will receive $200, and elementary school directors will get $100, and departmentalized seventh and eighth grade coaches will get $300.

Kennedy argued, would not nullify the Kerr-Mills law.

De Gaulle—Kennedy said he hadn't heard anything of a report he and President Charles de Gaulle of France are arranging to meet.

Legislation—With time growing short and Congress members eager to get home in this election year, Kennedy said a priority list of legislation the administration particularly wants passed will have to be drawn up.

Spain—The President answered with a terse "No" when asked if he had met with Spanish Republicans while in Venezuela last December and told them he would work to overthrow the Franco regime in Spain.

Mexico—He still intends to visit Mexico the end of this month.

Cigarettes—Kennedy declined to comment on the controversy over the possible effect of cigarette smoking on lung cancer, other than to cite plans of the Public Health Service to appoint a panel of experts to study the question.

Potato Field Day Set Aug. 15 Near Poland

LISBON — Plans were completed for the Eastern Ohio Potato Field Day Aug. 15 when the Board of Directors of the Columbiana - Mahoning Potato Growers Association met Thursday night at the Barth farm, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture. It will be at Barth farm south of Poland.

Indications are there will be a large display of equipment and supplies and the program will include demonstrations of various kinds of equipment, brief speaking program, tour of the farm and potato fields.

Visitors will see 30 different varieties, plats with systemic insect control and chemical weed control plots. Lunch will be served at noon.

The board will meet in July to go over the plans and a complete program will be announced later, Lower said.

Estes

a matter of conscience and duty to the public," to give a confidential Agriculture Department report on the Estes case to a newspaper reporter.

The reporter, who Manuel described as a longtime friend, was Earl Mazo of the New York Tribune.

It was for this action that Manuel was discharged after a day-long subcommittee wrangle behind closed doors Thursday. Democratic members spoke of a "breach of ethics."

The subcommittee, headed by Rep. L. H. Fountain, D-N.C., delayed resuming public hearings to decide what to do with Manuel. It took an all-day session behind guarded doors.

In the meantime, the scheduled witness, James T. Ralph, cooled his heels in the nearby House Caucus Room, waiting for a call that never came. He is to testify today.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman fired Ralph, a former assistant secretary, May 15, saying he had used a telephone credit card belonging to Estes for personal calls. Ralph has denied accepting expensive suits from the West Texas speculator.

By a straight party vote of 4 to 2, the subcommittee voted to fire Manuel shortly before 4 p.m. Thursday, although his dismissal had been reported as early as midmorning.

Fountain said although Republican members thought Manuel should get a second chance, the subcommittee unanimously believed "he had made a serious mistake."

He said Manuel gave a number of reasons for doing it, including "the purpose of making it available to the attorney general of Texas."

The Texas official, Will Wilson, has been conducting a grand jury investigation into the death of Henry H. Marshall, an Agriculture Department official in Texas who had been investigating Estes' transfers of valuable cotton allotments. Marshall's death by five gunshot wounds was first ruled suicide. But a pathologist now says Marshall may have been murdered. The death is now under investigation.

The report given to the newspaper dealt in part with Marshall's death, and the Agriculture Department eventually made parts of it available to the Texas grand jury.

Manuel is not a newcomer to congressional investigations, although he had worked for the Fountain subcommittee for just about two weeks.

He has served as minority counsel on a House subcommittee investigating public roads scandals, and also on the Senate committee that conducted a marathon investigation of unions.

Wellsville Driver Upsets In Pursuit

Fleeing from Wellsville police after crashing a red traffic signal, a Wellsville man overturned his car early today along Route 45, and an East Liverpool man was injured.

Police said Donald Deem, 25, of 2016 Buckeye Ave., rolled his auto three times along Pleasant Valley Rd., with a cruiser in pursuit.

Ronald Waite, 29, of 314 Garfield St., a passenger, received multiple abrasions and cuts of the scalp and a possible rib injury in the crash at 12:05 a.m. He was treated at City Hospital.

Deem was fined $25, plus $8.70 court costs, at a hearing today before Mayor William Daugherty on a charge of reckless operation. Police said he failed to obey the stop light at 3rd St. and Broadway.

Rides throughout the park, with a few exceptions, will be free from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., the picnic committee reminded.

Free coffee will be dispensed into family - size containers for both the noon and evening meals. Coffee also will be served free by the cup throughout the day.

A long list of awards will be made, including a $10 cash prize for the oldest IBOP member to register at the picnic ground.

In East Liverpool, charter service has been arranged with the Inter-City Bus Co. to help carry crowds to the park. The first bus will leave the Diamond at 9 a.m. On the return trip, the first bus will leave the park at 6:30 p.m.

No attempts were made to cut the bill so far as money is concerned.

It carries authority for $600 million for fiscal 1963 for the Alliance for Progress program in Latin America and $800 million for each of the succeeding three years.

In addition it authorizes $1.5 billion for military assistance and $1.25 billion for economic development loans outside Latin America, authorized last year.

Neither of these items were subject to reduction in the authorization bill but likely will be the targets for sharp cuts when the appropriations bill comes up.

Carpenter Tells Senior Class To Reach For Moon

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—Astronaut Malcolm Scott Carpenter urged a starry-eyed Boulder High School graduating class Thursday night to reach for the moon.

"Your horizons are limited only by your own vision," said the Navy lieutenant commander, who was graduated from the same school 19 years ago.

Carpenter, 37, received a standing ovation from the 316 seniors and 2,500 relatives and guests.

The hometown hero, who two weeks earlier orbited the earth, said: "Going to the moon is no longer fantasy. There's a slight chance that men my age might someday be on the moon. Possibly people of your age will land not on the moon, but on the moons of Mars, and then on Mars itself."

Recalling his youth, Carpenter termed the world one of chaos when he was graduated in 1943.

"But the world you enter, in case you've heard news to the contrary, is rich with promise," he said. "You really don't know what riches await you. They await but they're not going to drop into your lap. You have to go get them."

Carpenter said the graduates have their work cut out for them.

"We are engaged now in a battle with another ideology for the minds of men, the effects of which may be felt for another 1,000 years," he said. "It is your responsibility, whether you like it or not, to see that our God-fearing way of life continues and that freedom survives."

The famous Sir Malcolm Campbell became the first man to drive a car 300 miles an hour, when on Sept. 3, 1935, he drove his 2,500-horsepower aircraft-engined Blue Bird at a record of 301.129 miles per hour at Bonneville Salt Falts, in Utah.

112 Kindergarten Pupils Expected

Some 112 youngsters are expected to attend five Beaver Local School District kindergarten classes starting June 25, Urban Petros, elementary supervisor, announced today.

As a result of preliminary spring reports and registration this week, Petros expects 60 at Calcutta School, where there will be two classes, 16 each at Elkton and West Point and 20 at Rogers.

About 28 pupils at the Beaver Local Public School have registered through today for make-up and extra credit classes at the public school, also begining June 25.

The high school summer session will open Monday with about 125 students registered in courses such as English, mathematics, typing, history and driver training.

WHY Milligan's Changed Store Hours!

The decision to close on Saturday afternoons and to remain open on Wednesday afternoons was made after careful consideration.

Our records indicate that our customers prefer to shop here Monday through Saturday morning. The average customer seems to buy his hardware supplies during these five and one half days and is either using the material he has purchased or doing something else on Saturday afternoons.

Wednesday afternoon is a different story: our industrial customers work at this time; the tradesmen work then, too. We feel we must be open on Wednesday afternoons to accommodate these people.

Economies dictate that we can work profitably only so many hours per week. Saturday afternoon is our slowest time; thus, our decision to close. Wednesday afternoon openings, so far, have proved successful.

We want our customers to know that we have no desire to make shopping inconvenient. Instead, we want to gain additional business.

Our decision was made mainly because so few customers bought hardware supplies on Saturday afternoons and we felt this fact indicated our remaining open on Wednesday afternoons would be more convenient and more satisfactory to both us and the public.

Kennedy Economy Aides Sift West Europe Policies

By STERLING F. GREEN
AP Economic Affairs Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration is probing the growth possibilities in a European-style policy of neutral federal budgets—less concern over small and temporary deficits, less emphasis each year on surpluses.

President Kennedy has ordered his Council of Economic Advisers to study Western Europe's budget, tax and economic policies to find out, if it can, what makes Europe run while America walks.

Behind his decision is the fact that for the past five years the European allies have been expanding their output twice as fast as the United States. Some have gone beyond "full employment" and now have labor shortages.

Some reasons are evident—the swift development of the Common Market, the rush to raise living standards which still are far below this country's, different economic planning. Still other elements have caught the eye of administration economists.

Whether or not these fiscal policies have helped build Europe's visible prosperity can be debated. But the Kennedy administration, now searching for ways to turn a merely satisfactory recovery into full employment prosperity, intends to find out if it can.

Of special interest are Europe's tax structures, for Kennedy has announced he will send Congress this summer the blueprint for a massive 1963 tax overhaul. There is speculation that it will contain a net tax cut of up to $5 billion. At what points should this tax relief be concentrated to produce maximum growth?

Republicans who blame Kennedy economic policies for the stock market's wild gyrations, already have assiled the European study as "a real Alice-in-wonderland" adventure.

There are ample signs that the study and its director, Chairman Walter W. Heller of the Economic Council, will be the target of GOP campaign speeches throughout the fall congressional election campaign.

The Heller study is expected to propose some changes in the budget itself — the "administrative budget" historically used for federal bookkeeping. Economists have long argued that it is a poor yardstick for measuring the actual impact of federal spending and tax-collecting on the economy.

Heller has indicated he favors a budget which would show the economic effects of the huge government held trust funds, including Social Security.

But Kennedy and Heller are focusing on matters of greater moment than tinkering with the fiscal yardsticks. They want to know for instance, whether a tax cut in 1963 might have the same beneficial effect that the last one had, in 1954. And whether it might be preferable as a stimulant — as Britain seems to believe — to a rapid increase in federal spending.

Historically, Americans have expected their government -- no matter which party is in power —to budget for a surplus. All too often the surpluses have turned into deficits, but the goal of balancing the budget has been accepted as synonymous with fiscal responsibility.

One aim of the Heller study, some officials here suggest privately, is a public relations purpose—to pave the way for public acceptance of some possible departures from time-honored American fiscal tradition.

That squares with the current hints that Kennedy will ask Congress, to start considering a sizable tax cut in 1963 as part of a basic revision of the patchwork U.S. tax system. A tax cut almost certainly would mean a calculated budget deficit—to be erased later, hopefully, by the shot in the arm it would give the economy.

500 Attend Fair Held By Negley Firemen

NEGLEY — Over 500 attended the annual fair of Negley volunteer firemen Thursday night with the Denver Bill's Ranchhands providing entertainment.

The Youngstown "Cowboys" will give another performance tonight. The fair opens at 7.

There will be a children's matinee Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5.

Among the 82 units in the firemen's parade Wednesday were the Elk "Scotch-ettes" of Chapter 352 in Beaver Falls, and an antique auto of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Blackmore of East Liverpool.

2 Toronto Men Fined In Cumberland Court

NEW CUMBERLAND — Two Toronto men were fined for traffic charges by Police Chief William Webster at hearings Thursday before Municipal Court Judge John D. Herron.

Jack Brady, 23, was fined $50 and costs for failure to report an accident and $20 and costs for failure to have his car under control.

Gary Stovall, 21, was fined $20 and costs on a charge of illegal towing of another car. Squire Herron said only Brady's vehicle was involved in the accident in New Cumberland.

Destroyer Grounded

NICE, France (AP) — The destroyer Sumner, serving with the U.S. 6th Fleet, grounded in a high windstorm Thursday night. The 2,200-ton ship, off Golfe Juan, dragged its anchor and ran into rocks about 50 yards from shore. Navy auxiliary craft began work at dawn to tow it back into deep water.

Lisbon Graduates Receive Diplomas At 92nd Exercises

LISBON — Presentation of diplomas to 69 seniors, an address by Dr. Theodore J. Jenson of Ohio State University and speeches by Miss Sandra Yoos, valedictorian, and Miss Dian L. Hall, salutatorian, highlighted the 92nd annual commencement exercises of Lisbon High School Thursday night at the Memorial Stadium.

Dr. Jenson discussed "Ideas and Ideals," urging the graduates to set their sights high and work towards that goal.

Miss Yoos' subject was "Dare to Live," and Miss Hall's "Good Luck."

The high school band, under the direction of Theodore Greener, played for the processional and gave several selections during the program.

Dr. Wade Bacon, president of the Board of Education, presented diplomas as Principal George Nace Jr. introduced the students.

The Rev. Paul T. Gerrard, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, gave the invocation and benediction.

Barbara A. Albright, Jay Andrason, Janice Kay Apple, Diane Armstrong, Mark Arnold, Donna Arter, Bonnie Blackhurst, Karen Boehm, Fred Bowman, Jr., Jerry Brown.

Larry Buckley, Mary Buckley, Patricia A. Callahan, Thomas Coontz, Mary Copeland, Gregg Deemer, Mary Ann Deville, Sandra Dotson, Judith Ehrhart, Lois Everett.

500 Attend Fair Held By Negley Firemen

NEGLEY — Over 500 attended the annual fair of Negley volunteer firemen Thursday night with the Denver Bill's Ranchhands providing entertainment.

The Youngstown "Cowboys" will give another performance tonight. The fair opens at 7.

There will be a children's matinee Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5.

Among the 82 units in the firemen's parade Wednesday were the Elk "Scotch-ettes" of Chapter 352 in Beaver Falls, and an antique auto of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Blackmore of East Liverpool.

2 Toronto Men Fined In Cumberland Court

NEW CUMBERLAND — Two Toronto men were fined for traffic charges by Police Chief William Webster at hearings Thursday before Municipal Court Judge John D. Herron.

Jack Brady, 23, was fined $50 and costs for failure to report an accident and $20 and costs for failure to have his car under control.

Gary Stovall, 21, was fined $20 and costs on a charge of illegal towing of another car. Squire Herron said only Brady's vehicle was involved in the accident in New Cumberland.

Destroyer Grounded

NICE, France (AP) — The destroyer Sumner, serving with the U.S. 6th Fleet, grounded in a high windstorm Thursday night. The 2,200-ton ship, off Golfe Juan, dragged its anchor and ran into rocks about 50 yards from shore. Navy auxiliary craft began work at dawn to tow it back into deep water.

Open House Set On Anniversary Of Lisbon Pair

LISBON — Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gaydos of R. D. 3 will be honored with an open house reception Sunday afternoon, June 17, in observance of their golden wedding anniversary.

Their children are arranging the event and hours will be 2 to 5 o'clock.

Circumstances prevented the reception being held on the actual date, the couple having been married in Steubenville May 18, 1912.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaydos reside on the former Charles Wymer farm just off Route 7 east of Lisbon, which they purchased in 1923. Gaydos was a heater at the Weirton Steel Co., retiring in 1936.

They have two sons, George Gaydos of R.D. 3 and Joe Gaydos of Fontana, Calif., and two daughters, Mrs. James McLaughlin of R. D. 5 and Mrs. Wayne Grandy of Cleveland. There are 11 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Not THE Bing Crosby

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Clerks at the Columbus Traffic Fines Bureau did a double-take Thursday when they received a $5 check signed by Bing Crosby. A quick check disclosed it was not from the famous crooner but from Gilford Bingston Crosby of Steubenville, who signs his name Bing Crosby. Crosby was fined for jay walking.

Treasurer Receives $4,091 From Courts

LISBON — A total of $4,091.49 was paid to the county treasurer by the three County Courts during May, according to Carl L. Stacey, clerk of courts.

A breakdown shows $2,629.45 from fines and $1,462.04 from civil cases and costs.

The state treasurer received $1,885.15 as 45 per cent of the Ohio Highway Patrol cases.

The courts at Salem, East Palestine and Lisbon handled 290 criminal cases and 97 civil cases during the month.

Teen-Age Church Interest High

- Plastic Flasks
- Eye Movements

Q. Is it OK to store liquor in plastic bottles?

A. Yes. Most plastic bottles sold as flasks for liquors are made of polyethylene, a plastic which is not soluble to any appreciable degree in alcoholic beverages. There seems to be no reason to believe that the slight amount of material that may be dissolved from polyethylene would be harmful.

Q. As people get older do they develop a greater interest in religion?

A. There is no adequate proof that people become more religious as they age. This conclusion was reached by the Assistant Director, Inter-University Training Institute in Social Gerontology, University of Michigan, who analyzed church attendance of almost 7,000 adults, age 21 and over. Other studies have shown that the most intense periods of religious feeling and concern are associated with youth and adolescence. In general, the teen-age is the period of most rapid religious development and change.

Q. Do the eyes move or remain fixed in one position during sleep?

A. Eye movements occur during certain parts of the sleep cycle. These periods account for about 20 per cent of total sleep time. Eye movement periods seem to be associated with dreaming. The eyes apparently follow the hallucinatory events experienced while dreaming.

Open House Set On Anniversary Of Lisbon Pair

LISBON — Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gaydos of R. D. 3 will be honored with an open house reception Sunday afternoon, June 17, in observance of their golden wedding anniversary.

Their children are arranging the event and hours will be 2 to 5 o'clock.

Circumstances prevented the reception being held on the actual date, the couple having been married in Steubenville May 18, 1912.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaydos reside on the former Charles Wymer farm just off Route 7 east of Lisbon, which they purchased in 1923. Gaydos was a heater at the Weirton Steel Co., retiring in 1936.

They have two sons, George Gaydos of R.D. 3 and Joe Gaydos of Fontana, Calif., and two daughters, Mrs. James McLaughlin of R. D. 5 and Mrs. Wayne Grandy of Cleveland. There are 11 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Treasurer Receives $4,091 From Courts

LISBON — A total of $4,091.49 was paid to the county treasurer by the three County Courts during May, according to Carl L. Stacey, clerk of courts.

A breakdown shows $2,629.45 from fines and $1,462.04 from civil cases and costs.

The state treasurer received $1,885.15 as 45 per cent of the Ohio Highway Patrol cases.

The courts at Salem, East Palestine and Lisbon handled 290 criminal cases and 97 civil cases during the month.

Sheriff, constable and city police fees amounted to $267.73.

Hotel Manager Dies

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo. (AP) — Max W. Richmond, 48, manager of the Sheraton-Elms Hotel, was killed Thursday in a traffic accident.

Teen-Age Church Interest High

- Plastic Flasks
- Eye Movements

Q. Is it OK to store liquor in plastic bottles?

A. Yes. Most plastic bottles sold as flasks for liquors are made of polyethylene, a plastic which is not soluble to any appreciable degree in alcoholic beverages. There seems to be no reason to believe that the slight amount of material that may be dissolved from polyethylene would be harmful.

Q. As people get older do they develop a greater interest in religion?

A. There is no adequate proof that people become more religious as they age. This conclusion was reached by the Assistant Director, Inter-University Training Institute in Social Gerontology, University of Michigan, who analyzed church attendance of almost 7,000 adults, age 21 and over. Other studies have shown that the most intense periods of religious feeling and concern are associated with youth and adolescence. In general, the teen-age is the period of most rapid religious development and change.

Q. Do the eyes move or remain fixed in one position during sleep?

A. Eye movements occur during certain parts of the sleep cycle. These periods account for about 20 per cent of total sleep time. Eye movement periods seem to be associated with dreaming. The eyes apparently follow the hallucinatory events experienced while dreaming.

Queen Crowned At Cumberland School's Prom

"Hawaiian Sunset" was the theme and Paul Campbell's band played.

A dinner followed in Swaney Memorial Library and students returned to the auditorium later for more dancing.

Annual "Ivy Day" exercises were scheduled today at the school, with C. D. Henderson, former principal, as speaker. Henderson was principal from 1924 until his retirement in 1958. He now resides in Pueblo, Colo.

Achievement awards are to be presented during the program. Manford Martin has been named recipient of a scholarship to Fairmont State College.

DiSalle Hurls 12th Question At GOP Rival

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Auditor James A. Rhodes, republican gubernatorial nominee, has been asked another question by his Democratic rival, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle.

The question, the 12th to be put before Rhodes, was:

"Do you favor lowering the amount now being paid to the widows and children of workmen killed in the course of employment in Ohio?"

The state auditor was not available for comment. However, Rhodes has told newsmen the questions probably would be discussed during the course of the campaign.

The governor said Thursday he believed his questions served to focus attention on the real differences between the two and added that he would discuss the questions himself if they went unanswered after Aug. 18, the last day for nominees to withdraw from political races.

Chester Legion Auxiliary Elects New President

Queen Crowned At Cumberland School's Prom

"Hawaiian Sunset" was the theme and Paul Campbell's band played.

A dinner followed in Swaney Memorial Library and students returned to the auditorium later for more dancing.

Annual "Ivy Day" exercises were scheduled today at the school, with C. D. Henderson, former principal, as speaker. Henderson was principal from 1924 until his retirement in 1958. He now resides in Pueblo, Colo.

Achievement awards are to be presented during the program. Manford Martin has been named recipient of a scholarship to Fairmont State College.

DiSalle Hurls 12th Question At GOP Rival

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Auditor James A. Rhodes, republican gubernatorial nominee, has been asked another question by his Democratic rival, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle.

The question, the 12th to be put before Rhodes, was:

"Do you favor lowering the amount now being paid to the widows and children of workmen killed in the course of employment in Ohio?"

The state auditor was not available for comment. However, Rhodes has told newsmen the questions probably would be discussed during the course of the campaign.

The governor said Thursday he believed his questions served to focus attention on the real differences between the two and added that he would discuss the questions himself if they went unanswered after Aug. 18, the last day for nominees to withdraw from political races.

Chester Legion Auxiliary Elects New President

Others named were Mrs. Dorothy Smith, first vice president; Mrs. Eleanor Huff, second vice president; Mrs. Nina Marion, recording secretary; Mrs. Wilda Beaumont, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Beatrice Triner, treasurer; Mrs. Evelyn Casto, chaplain; Mrs. Emma Rogers, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Alma Dalrymple, assistant sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Eldora Spencer, historian, and Mrs. Twyla Finley, Mrs. Miriam Corcoran and Mrs. Ruth Allison, Executive Board members.

Officers will be installed Aug. 1.

A contribution of $10 was authorized towards purchase of a television set at a Veterans Hospital, and a donation was approved for a "Block for Freedom" at Gettysburg.

Mrs. Mary Logue was named social committee chairman for the meeting June 20 when initiation will be held. About 23 attended.

300 To 1,000 Due At Ohio State Branch

CLEVELAND (AP) — An estimated 800 to 1,000 students will enter Ohio State University's new suburban Lakewood branch when it opens Sept. 24, according to Dr. Kenneth J. Arisman, Ohio State's director of off-campus education.

Dr. Arisman spoke Thursday night to the branch advisory committee at Lakewood High School where evening college classes will be held. He said with proper scheduling, the building eventually could accommodate nearly 4,000 full time students. A full time load at a branch is 12 hours.

Tuition will be $12 a credit hour, with a maximum of $110 per academic quarter.

19 At Meeting Held By Chester Firemen

Nineteen attended a meeting of the Chester volunteer firemen Thursday night at which David Lee Cowey was enrolled as a member for a one-year probationary period.

A contribution of $25 was authorized for the Chester High School post-prom party held June 1. Further plans were made for the annual firemen's fair July 30-Aug. 4.

The firemen will be host to the Hancock County Firemen's Association June 19. Lunch was served. Fire Chief William Glover was in charge. Next meeting is July 5.

It is estimated some 300 atomic explosions have been set off since 1945.

Dear Heloise: One important problem which seems to be of general concern is that of laundering new type fabrics—both the synthetics and resin-finished cottons.

The L.S.U. Agricultural Extension Service has recently published a little booklet with the following information that perhaps some might be interested in:

White synthetics (such as Nylon and Polyester) should be laundered alone as they tend to absorb colors quite readily.

Softeners added to hard water will help prevent greying.

Soap is an excellent cleaner, but will form a chemical reaction in hard water as well as iron rust deposits on clothing. Bluing causes deposits to cling to clothing.

Synthetic detergents (the word "detergent" on the box specifies this) are usually recommended for laundering since they may be used successfully in either hard or soft water.

Do not interchange soaps as they tend to work against one another.

When the manufacturer states a garment is chlorine retentive, avoid using chlorine bleaches (especially on resin-treated cottons) as the garment may turn yellow. The yellow discoloration can be removed by soaking in a hot solution of a commercial color remover.

Oxygen bleach (sodium perborate) is a preventive bleach which maintains rather than restores whiteness. This may be purchased as a commercial bleach sold under trade names. Check all bleaches available and look for "sodium perborate" written on the box. This may be safely used with all types of fabrics including synthetics and resin finish cottons.

2 Lions Members, Wives To Leave For Paris Sunday

Two East Liverpool Lions Club members and their wives will fly to Paris Sunday to begin a 10-day tour of six countries prior to the Lions International convention June 20 in Nice which they will attend.

District Gov. and Mrs. George McCullough and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Walker will go to Cleveland Sunday morning to join 144 other Ohioans who will attend the convention.

The group originally was scheduled to fly from Cleveland on a chartered Air France flight to New York and then onto Paris. Because of the fatal crash on takeoff of a chartered Air France jet in Paris last Sunday, the group will be divided among four smaller planes for the trip to New York, and then board the Air France special for the Paris flight.

The group will visit in France, Belgium, Germany, Italy, Austria and Switzerland before going to Nice. McCullough will leave the tour June 17 in Lucerne, Switzerland, to go to Nice to attend a three-day school for district governors. Mrs. McCullough and Mr. and Mrs. Walker are scheduled to arrive in Nice on June 23.

They are scheduled to fly back to Cleveland on June 24.

It will be the fifth international convention the Walkers have attended and the fourth for the McCulloughs. The Walkers have attended two conventions in Chicago and one each in San Francisco and New York while the McCulloughs have attended the sessions in San Francisco, New York, Chicago and Atlantic City.

Hookstown Class Plans Festival

Plans for an ice cream and strawberry festival and dinner, to be held Saturday at the Bethel Methodist Church near Hookstown, were made at a meeting of the Willing Workers Circle Tuesday night.

Serving will begin at 5 p. m. and the benefit affair is open to the public. Mrs. Harold Ivell and Mrs. Lloyd Beal will be in charge.

The WSCS meeting was postponed from June 26 to July 10. It will be an all-day meeting for both the Willing Workers and the uilters Circles.

The group met at the home of Mrs. Leo Tingler of Georgetown R. D. 1, who served refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Reason Mayhew. Mrs. Roland McAfee led devotions. Mrs. Beal president, conducted business.

Sports Heads Are Named For DeMolays

Gary Hicks, state senior councilor and a student at Bowling Green State University, was named to head a summer bowling program when Harding Chapter, Order of DeMolay, met Thursday night in the Masonic Temple.

The chapter also named John Geren as chairman of a softball team committee. Mark Wilson, master councilor, presided. David Conley, scribe, read the minutes.

Geren and Hoffman were recognized as recipients of the Representative DeMolay award.

Roger Hicks announced there will be competition in bowling, chess, tennis, billiards and golf at the Ohio Conclave in Cleveland Aug. 9-12.

The chapter has accepted invitations to escort three area Job's Daughter Bethels at their installation ceremonies. They are Salineville Wednesday, East Liverpool June 16, and Lisbon June 25.

Guests from Dillion Crist Chapter of Alliance were Carl Bevington, past master councilor and chevalier, and state senior councilor's aide, Clifford Wilson, past master councilor, and Don Millor.

Dedication Set For Post Office At Georgetown

Robert W. McArthur, postal service officer of Philadelphia, will be principal speaker at dedication ceremonies Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at the new Georgetown Post Office.

Mrs. Phyllis E. Mackall, postmaster, said Rep. Frank M. Clark will be among guests. The South Side High School band of near Hookstown will furnish music.

The new building was completed and opened for business in January.

The new facility is part of the Post Office Department's commercial leasing plan. Investment financing is used to obtain needed facilities which remain under private ownership, pays local taxes and is leased to the federal government.

Mrs. Mackall said "mail business in this area has gone up. For example, 10 years ago revenue was $1,500 compared to $2,500 today."

The Georgetown Post Office was established in 1802. There are three employes now, the same number as 10 years ago.

Preceding Mrs. Mackall, was Francis O. Todd, who held office from 1934 to 1957.

Healthful Exercise Needed By All

With today's killing pace, exercise is a life-saver. "But why should I exercise—I'm tired already!" one hears on all sides.

Ida Jean Kain

With all our labor saving devices, why is everyone so tired? We have escalators, elevators, automobiles and every conceivable cushion against physical exertion.

That's the root of the trouble. Our daily routine does not include enough physical activity to keep circulation up and doing and our bodies in good running order. Inertia sets in. The loss we do the less we want to do.

Exercise, physical exercise helps us to unwind and let go of body tensions. While we don't know all the answers with regard to the nebulous factor of stress in our number one killer, heart disease, stress is believed by many authorities to be a contributing factor.

ACCORDING TO Dr. Paul Dudley White, Mr. Heart himself, "When you really get physically tired, you don't have stress." This authority is a strong exponent of daily exercise, and it is well known that he takes his own advice.

What kind of exercise is best? The kind you enjoy the most. In this sedentary age, we have gotten away from natural activities. If we could regain the recognition of the real pleasure involved in physical activity, this would take the resistance out of exercise.

Exercise has a psychological impact. When we recapture the joy of moving freely this helps us alter a fundamental feeling about ourselves. We need not feel old and stiff, awkward or bulky.

While good exercise habits may not extend the life span, adequate exercise can keep us feeling young. There is no fountain of youth that compares with a supple, slim figure.

In comparing obese and normal - weight people, researchers have found that, as a group, the overweights were less than half as active as their slimmer sisters and brothers.

It isn't easy today to get enough healthful exercise. Some families are turning their backyards into playgrounds for adults, too.

HOW ABOUT gamescaping your backyard? A family playground might include badminton, shuffleboard, perhaps painted on the driveway, horseshoes, darts, archery, volley ball, one-goal basketball, and if there is room, a croquet court.

In the suburbs where there are no sidewalks to walk on it is almost imperative to turn the backyard into a playground where adults can unwind.

Klondyke Crash Damages Sedan; Motorist Sought

A Calcutta car was damaged in a Klondyke hit-skip crash Thursday night at 9:40, police reported.

A witness described the crash to police and furnished a partial description of the offending car.

The unidentified driver made a wide, sweeping turn through the driveway of a service station across the street and struck the Sias car when completing the sweep, the witness said. The offending car then proceeded west on Harvey Ave., police were told. Patrolman Paul Blevins investigated.

An auto was damaged slightly in another mishap at 2:53 p. m. yesterday on the municipal parking lot adjoining City Hall, officers said.

Mrs. Bonnie R. Martin, 3300 St. Clair Ave., backing from a parking space, bumped the right rear quarter panel of a parked 1956 sedan of Helen Newlen, 1133 White St., Wellsville, police said. The Martin car, a 1959 sedan, was undamaged.

With all our labor saving devices, why is everyone so tired? We have escalators, elevators, automobiles and every conceivable cushion against physical exertion.

That's the root of the trouble. Our daily routine does not include enough physical activity to keep circulation up and doing and our bodies in good running order. Inertia sets in. The loss we do the less we want to do.

Exercise, physical exercise helps us to unwind and let go of body tensions. While we don't know all the answers with regard to the nebulous factor of stress in our number one killer, heart disease, stress is believed by many authorities to be a contributing factor.

ACCORDING TO Dr. Paul Dudley White, Mr. Heart himself, "When you really get physically tired, you don't have stress." This authority is a strong exponent of daily exercise, and it is well known that he takes his own advice.

What kind of exercise is best? The kind you enjoy the most. In this sedentary age, we have gotten away from natural activities. If we could regain the recognition of the real pleasure involved in physical activity, this would take the resistance out of exercise.

Exercise has a psychological impact. When we recapture the joy of moving freely this helps us alter a fundamental feeling about ourselves. We need not feel old and stiff, awkward or bulky.

While good exercise habits may not extend the life span, adequate exercise can keep us feeling young. There is no fountain of youth that compares with a supple, slim figure.

In comparing obese and normal - weight people, researchers have found that, as a group, the overweights were less than half as active as their slimmer sisters and brothers.

It isn't easy today to get enough healthful exercise. Some families are turning their backyards into playgrounds for adults, too.

HOW ABOUT gamescaping your backyard? A family playground might include badminton, shuffleboard, perhaps painted on the driveway, horseshoes, darts, archery, volley ball, one-goal basketball, and if there is room, a croquet court.

In the suburbs where there are no sidewalks to walk on it is almost imperative to turn the backyard into a playground where adults can unwind.

Klondyke Crash Damages Sedan; Motorist Sought

A Calcutta car was damaged in a Klondyke hit-skip crash Thursday night at 9:40, police reported.

A witness described the crash to police and furnished a partial description of the offending car.

The unidentified driver made a wide, sweeping turn through the driveway of a service station across the street and struck the Sias car when completing the sweep, the witness said. The offending car then proceeded west on Harvey Ave., police were told. Patrolman Paul Blevins investigated.

An auto was damaged slightly in another mishap at 2:53 p. m. yesterday on the municipal parking lot adjoining City Hall, officers said.

Mrs. Bonnie R. Martin, 3300 St. Clair Ave., backing from a parking space, bumped the right rear quarter panel of a parked 1956 sedan of Helen Newlen, 1133 White St., Wellsville, police said. The Martin car, a 1959 sedan, was undamaged.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I know you must work hard writing your column which appears six days a week. Do you ever wonder if you are getting through to people?

Well, I'm the mother of four children, and I'd like to tell you what your column has done for our family. It has provided us with new ground rules to live by. Here are just a few:

1. B.A.L. (Before Ann Landers) everyone in the house used to open up every bit of mail regardless of the name on the envelope. You put a stop to this practice.

2. Our relatives used to drop in three times a week. Your column gave us the courage to ask them please to call first. Now when we have other plans we tell them and we are no longer trapped in our own home by unexpected company. (And, incidentally, they are over here much less often, which suits us fine.)

3. Our 15-year-old daughter told us three months ago she is not going to smoke no matter what the rest of the crowd does because "Ann Landers says it is a filthy, stupid, expensive, unattractive habit which doesn't do one thing for anybody."

4. My husband used to go on "silent spells" when something bothered him. He learned from Ann Landers the wisdom of talking things out. You may have saved him from an ulcer.

5. I used to nag my husband endlessly about hanging up his clothes and putting things in their proper place. Your column taught me that it takes less energy to do these things myself. You may have saved me from an ulcer.

6. I don't know whether I should kiss you or kill you for this one, Ann — but now I'm ironing the bedsheets. — TRUE BELIEVERS.

Dear Believers: Thanks for a marvelous letter. You've made my day.

Free-Loading Guests

Dear Ann: My husband and I have a lovely home and we entertain fairly often. We enjoy company and it's no strain for me to have a dinner party for 12 or 14. When the weather is good we have had as many as 30 for a barbecue.

Many people we have entertained have never invited us back. There are five or six couples we've had to dinner at least a half dozen times. I know for a fact that they have had parties and not included us. Yet whenever I invite them they are Johnny-on-the-spot.

My husband says if they didn't care for us they wouldn't accept our invitations. But why don't they invite us back? Am I petty? —EX-CLUDED.

Dear Ex: Some people like you well enough to go to your parties, but not quite well enough to invite you to theirs.

If you've learned who these people are, wise up and take them off your guest list.

Etiquette Query

Dear Ann: I am 15 and trying hard to learn good manners. When I meet a person for the first time I feel foolish saying, "How do you do?" because this phrase has no meaning. I think, "Pleased to meet you" is better.

My girl friend says it's corny. After a person says, "Pleased to meet you," I find myself saying, "Same here," and I feel like a sap. But what else is there to say?

Maybe something is wrong with me but I dread meeting new people because I'm uncomfortable about such things. Can you help me or am I beyond hope? — MUSHMOUTH.

Dear Mushmouth: Nothing is wrong with "how do you do?" but if it seems foolish to you, by all means say something else, such as "I'm happy to meet you."

I agree with your girl friend about "pleased to meet you." It's cornball and more often than not it comes out "pleeze-tameetcha."

"Same here" suggests a brankrupt vocabulary. It's far better to say, "I'm happy to have met you, too." And if you will add the person's name to whatever phrase you use, it always sounds better.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Nuclear Reactor At Piqua Seen No Danger To Public

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nuclear reactor at Piqua, Ohio, can be operated without endangering the health or safety of the public, officials of North American Aviation and the Atomic Energy Commission say.

North American's Atomic International Division constructed the 11,400 - kilowatt reactor for the AEC. A hearing was held Thursday on the AEC's application for provisional operating authorization to load nuclear fuel into the reactor and operate it not more than one year.

A decision on the hearing will not be announced for several weeks, official said. The AEC said authority for operating the reactor beyond the one year period will be subject to later hearings.

Thursday Dr. Sidney Siegel, vice president of Atomic International testified that his firm has personnel at the site who are technically qualified to operate the reactor. Jack Jacobson, project engineer for the Piqua facilities, said city personnel are working along with North American technicians.

Jacobson and Norman Klug, reactor physicist in the AEC's Licensing and Regulatory Division, also testified that the reactor could be operated without danger to the public.

Death Benefits From Ohio Asked In Mate's Death

WAVERLY, Ohio (AP) — A Tampa, Fla., woman is seeking death benefits from the state of Ohio. She claims her husband died of acute lymphatic leukemia after coming into contact with radiation at the Pike County atomic energy plant.

Mrs. Ruby Smith Donathan, now - remarried, is seeking the right to State Industrial Commission death payments in her suit against the commission, the Ohio Bureau of Workmen's Compensation and the Goodyear Atomic Corp., operators of the plant near here.

The jury trial opened Thursday.

Her late husband, Herbert L. Smith Jr., reportedly came in contact with radioactive gases while working on a seal in a pipe at the plant in 1956. He died Feb. 15, 1957.

Committee Proposes Guidelines

Veteran Editors Eye Code As Test Of Good Papers

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The test of a good newspaper is how well it meets the standards of integrity, accuracy, responsibility and leadership, says a committee of veteran editors.

The committee, made up of members of The Associated Press Managing Editors Association, spent 18 months of study in drawing up a proposed code to help the public and press evaluate newspapers.

Called a "Criteria of a Good Newspaper," the code represents the first broad-scale effort ever made to establish such guidelines.

John H. Colburn, managing editor of the Richmond Times-Dispatch and committee chairman, said it now embodies the suggestions of nearly 50 editors and publishers and heads of 15 journalism schools.

J. Edward Murray, managing editor of The Arizona Republic, of Phoenix, conceived the idea for the code two years ago when he was president of the managing editors association.

In addition to Colburn and Murray, other members of the committee were Frank Eyerly, managing editor of the Des Moines Register and Tribune; Vincent S. Jones, executive editor of the Gannett Newspapers; James S. Pope, former executive editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal and Times, and J. Montgomery Curtis, director of the American Press Institute.

Colburn said it is hoped that publication of the code also will demonstrate that the vast majority of the nation's 1,768 daily newspapers are both responsible and informative.

INTEGRITY

"Maintain vigorous standards of honesty and fair play in the selection and editing of its contents as well as in all relations with news sources and the public."

ACCURACY

"Exert maximum effort to print the truth in all news situations. Strive for completeness and objectivity."

RESPONSIBILITY

"Use mature and considered judgment in the public interest at all times. Select, edit and display news on the basis of its significance and its genuine usefulness to the public."

LEADERSHIP

"Stimulate and vigorously support public officials, private groups and individuals in crusades to increase the good works and eliminate the bad in the community."

The report gave this guide for a good newspaper:

"A good newspaper should be guided in the publication of all material by a concern for truth, the hallmark of freedom, by a concern for human decency and human betterment, and by a respect for the accepted standards of its own community."

Newell Women Due Hearing For Collision

Mrs. Barbara Ann Thompson, 25, of 102 Grant St., Newell, involved in a collision in Chester Thursday afternoon, is scheduled for a hearing Monday before Mayor Ray Collins on a charge of failure to have her vehicle under control.

She was cited yesterday afternoon at 1:05 by Police Chief Harold Davis, who said her 1962 sedan hit the rear of a 1954 sedan operated by James Frank Rayl, 20, of Henry Ave., East Liverpool.

Officer Faces Cross-Quiz In Ratterman Case

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP) — The fourth day of the trial of six men charged with violating the civil rights of George Ratterman, sheriff of neighboring Campbell County, was to get underway today in U.S. District Court with the cross-examinationof the third government witness.

The witness, Lt. Clyde Bishop of Newport, Ky., police, admitted Thursday he made a false statement to the FBI about the movements of one of the defendants the night before Ratterman was arrested in a Newport Hotel with strip tease dancer April Flowers.

Bishop said Patrick Ciafardini, 39, Newport detective who led the raid, asked him to tell the FBI he returned from an out-of-town fraternal meeting several hours after he actually did. The officer said he did as Ciafardini requested, but later told FBI investigators the truth.

Ratterman's arrest May 9, 1961, came after he announced his candidacy as sheriff on a reform platform pledged to rid wide - open Newport of gaming and vice. Ratterman claimed he had been drugged and framed.

The other defendants are Joseph Quitter, 43, Upshere White, 49, Charles Lester, Edward Buccieri, 39, and Tito Carinci, 32.

Defense lawyers assailed Bishop's testimony as irrelevant and J. Leonard Walker of Louisville, attorney for Lester, called it "an attempt to impeach the testimony of a witness who hasn't testified yet."

Man Gets Life Term In Slaying Of Jeweler

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — John T. Jackson, 26, has been sentenced to life imprisonment following his plea of guilty to first-degree murder charges in the slaying of a jewelry store owner.

Jackson also received an additional 10-25 year indeterminate sentence on a charge of armed robbery. A panel of three Common Pleas Court judges recommended Thursday that the terms be served consecutively.

The victim, Irving Garlikov, brother of Dayton Daily News sports writer Ben Galikov, was shot to death in his store Jan. 9.

Politically Explosive Question

Kennedy, McCormack? Answer Awaited Tonight

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP)—Bickering Massachusetts Democrats try to simmer down enough tonight to get a preliminary answer to this politically explosive question:

Who will it be, Teddy or Eddie?

In more formal language, will the Democrats endorse Edward M. (Ted) Kennedy, brother of the President, or the state attorney general, Edward J. McCormack Jr., nephew of House Speaker John McCormack, for U.S. senator?

Party chieftains will put in a full day before reaching their big decision, probably late tonight.

Both men—Teddy is 30, Eddie is 38—flashed brilliant, confident smiles and claimed victory.

Kennedy—"We will have a clear majority" with possibly 1,000 votes.

McCormack—"I have 916."

Since it takes 862 votes to win if all the delegates are present, somebody's arithmetic is remarkably shoddy.

Charges and counter-charges flew. McCormack told a news conference he is "doing the President a favor" by attempting to defeat his brother.

"There is a lot of talk about the national dynasty issue now," he explained. "The Republicans would have the greatest domestic issue if Ted is elected, but if Ted is defeated the dynasty issue is dead."

Kennedy denied emphatically at his own news session rumors that income tax investigations, deportation proceedings and promises of postmasterships were being used to swing delegates into his camp. McCormack specifically mentioned 52 postmasterships left unfilled.

Kennedy answered that such charges "insult the integrity" of McCormack supporters.

McCormack charges pressure and "arm-twisting" have been used to lure his delegates. He said he has affidavits to prove such pressure but did not want to use them because they could hurt the President in 1964.

Kennedy made an unqualified denial that either of his brothers, the President or Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, had used their influence to help him.

Newsmen told him McCormack had said he would keep his affidavits secret unless Kennedy challenged him to disclose them.

"Then I challenge him," Kennedy declared.

Although the convention has had all the hard fighting and all the backstage huddling of a national political convention, the truth is that it's almost meaningless.

For the loser can, and probably will, enter the primaries, too, and a victory here won't necessarily be of great advantage.

Furthermore, the final Democratic winner to come out of the primary may have to run against still a third nationally famous family representative.

For George Lodge, 34, is contending for the Republican nomination against U.S. Rep. Laurence Curtis. George's father is Henry Cabot Lodge, former ambassador to the United Nations and GOP candidate for vice president in 1960.

John F. Kennedy beat Henry Cabot Lodge for this same Senate seat in 1952—and with that victory took a giant stride toward the White House.

Differ On Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio's two Democratic senators voted against each other in Thursday's roll call to adopt the Mansfield-Dirksen amendment. The amendment calls for restoring to the foreign aid bill authority for President Kennedy to ship surplus food to Yugoslavia and Poland. Sen. Stephen M. Young favored the amendment which passed 56-34. Sen. Frank J. Lausche opposed it.

3 Salt Firms Acquitted Of Price Rigging

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Three major salt companies accused of scheming to rig prices of rock salt were acquitted Thursday night by a federal jury.

The panel, which deliberated nearly seven hours, cleared Morton Salt. Co., Chicago; International Salt Co., Clarks Summit, Pa., and Diamond Crystal Salt Co., St. Clair, Mich.

The government had accused them of conspiring to fix prices on rock salt over a five-year period in violation of the Sherman Anti-trust Act. Conviction could have meant fines of up to $50,000.

Also named in the June 28, 1961, indictment was Carey Salt Co., Hutchinson, Kan., which entered a plea of nolo contendre (no contest).

U.S. District Court Judge Edward J. Devitt, who presided at the trial of the other three, did not indicate immediately what disposition would be made of that case.

Named as coconspirators with the major firms but not indicted were American Salt Co., Olathe, Kan.; Barton Salt Co., Hutchinson, Kan.; Cutler-Magner Co., Duluth, Minn.; Hardy Salt Co., St. Louis, and Cargill Inc., Minneapolis.

The grand jury indictment said the alleged conspiracy had the effect of "forcing state, municipal and private purchasers to pay high, arbitrary and noncompetitive prices for rock salt."

Chicken Haven Good Spot To Lay Her Eggs

ATLANTA (AP) — A little black hen showed up at an Atlanta restaurant operated by retired police lieutenant George Tumlin.

She built a nest of old paper napkins outside the door under an awning and laid three eggs, Tumlin says.

City Woman Hurt In Fall

A woman hurt in a fall at home was admitted early today to City Hospital, where three other area residents were treated Thursday after separate mishaps.

Mrs. Vadie Corbett, 840 Fairview St., is in "fairly good" condition with a possible fracture of the right wrist suffered in a fall at home.

Lisa Kelly, 6, daughter of John Kelly, 1029 Vine St., was treated last night for abrasions and bruises of the forehead received in a fall on steps.

Keith Simpson, 24, of Rogers R. D. 1, bottle machine operator at the Golden Star Dairy Co. plant, was treated at noon yesterday for bruises of the hand received on machinery.

U.S. Agency Urges 14 New Airports In Ohio

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Aviation Agency has proposed that 14 new airports be constructed in Ohio in the next five years.

The additions were among a list of 514 new airports throughout the nation which the FAA said should be built as soon as possible.

Among the list were a new airline airport for Sandusky and 13 general aviation airports to relieve traffic congestion at major terminals. They included four at Cleveland, three at Dayton, two each at Cincinnati and Columbus and one each at Toledo and East Liverpool.

The term "horsepower" was coined by the famous pioneer power engineer, James Watt (1736-1819), when he found that a horse could move 33,000 pounds of coal one foot upward in one minute.

Committee Proposes Guidelines

Veteran Editors Eye Code As Test Of Good Papers

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The test of a good newspaper is how well it meets the standards of integrity, accuracy, responsibility and leadership, says a committee of veteran editors.

The committee, made up of members of The Associated Press Managing Editors Association, spent 18 months of study in drawing up a proposed code to help the public and press evaluate newspapers.

Called a "Criteria of a Good Newspaper," the code represents the first broad-scale effort ever made to establish such guidelines.

John H. Colburn, managing editor of the Richmond Times-Dispatch and committee chairman, said it now embodies the suggestions of nearly 50 editors and publishers and heads of 15 journalism schools.

J. Edward Murray, managing editor of The Arizona Republic, of Phoenix, conceived the idea for the code two years ago when he was president of the managing editors association.

In addition to Colburn and Murray, other members of the committee were Frank Eyerly, managing editor of the Des Moines Register and Tribune; Vincent S. Jones, executive editor of the Gannett Newspapers; James S. Pope, former executive editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal and Times, and J. Montgomery Curtis, director of the American Press Institute.

Colburn said it is hoped that publication of the code also will demonstrate that the vast majority of the nation's 1,768 daily newspapers are both responsibie and informative.

INTEGRITY

"Maintain vigorous standards of honesty and fair play in the selection and editing of its contents as well as in all relations with news sources and the public."

ACCURACY

"Exert maximum effort to print the truth in all news situations. Strive for completeness and objectivity."

RESPONSIBILITY

"Use mature and considered judgment in the public interest at all times. Select, edit and display news on the basis of its significance and its genuine usefulness to the public."

LEADERSHIP

"Stimulate and vigorously support public officials, private groups and individuals in crusades to increase the good works and eliminate the bad in the community."

The report gave this guide for a good newspaper:

"A good newspaper should be guided in the publication of all material by a concern for truth, the hallmark of freedom, by a concern for human decency and human betterment, and by a respect for the accepted standards of its own community."

Kennedy answered that such charges "insult the integrity" of McCormack supporters.

McCormack charges pressure and "arm-twisting" have been used to lure his delegates. He said he has affidavits to prove such pressure but did not want to use them because they could hurt the President in 1964.

Kennedy made an unqualified denial that either of his brothers, the President or Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, had used their influence to help him.

Newsmen told him McCormack had said he would keep his affidavits secret unless Kennedy challenged him to disclose them.

"Then I challenge him," Kennedy declared.

Although the convention has had all the hard fighting and all the backstage huddling of a national political convention, the truth is that it's almost meaningless.

For the loser can, and probably will, enter the primaries, too, and a victory here won't necessarily be of great advantage.

Furthermore, the final Democratic winner to come out of the primary may have to run against still a third nationally famous family representative.

For George Lodge, 34, is contending for the Republican nomination against U.S. Rep. Laurence Curtis. George's father is Henry Cabot Lodge, former ambassador to the United Nations and GOP candidate for vice president in 1960.

John F. Kennedy beat Henry Cabot Lodge for this same Senate seat in 1952—and with that victory took a giant stride toward the White House.

Differ On Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio's two Democratic senators voted against each other in Thursday's roll call to adopt the Mansfield-Dirksen amendment. The amendment calls for restoring to the foreign aid bill authority for President Kennedy to ship surplus food to Yugoslavia and Poland. Sen. Stephen M. Young favored the amendment which passed 56-34. Sen. Frank J. Lausche opposed it.

3 Salt Firms Acquitted Of Price Rigging

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Three major salt companies accused of scheming to rig prices of rock salt were acquitted Thursday night by a federal jury.

The panel, which deliberated nearly seven hours, cleared Morton Salt. Co., Chicago; International Salt Co., Clarks Summit, Pa., and Diamond Crystal Salt Co., St. Clair, Mich.

The government had accused them of conspiring to fix prices on rock salt over a five-year period in violation of the Sherman Anti-trust Act. Conviction could have meant fines of up to $50,000.

Also named in the June 28, 1961, indictment was Carey Salt Co., Hutchinson, Kan., which entered a plea of nolo contendre (no contest).

U.S. District Court Judge Edward J. Devitt, who presided at the trial of the other three, did not indicate immediately what disposition would be made of that case.

Named as coconspirators with the major firms but not indicted were American Salt Co., Olathe, Kan.; Barton Salt Co., Hutchinson, Kan.; Cutler-Magner Co., Duluth, Minn.; Hardy Salt Co., St. Louis, and Cargill Inc., Minneapolis.

The grand jury indictment said the alleged conspiracy had the effect of "forcing state, municipal and private purchasers to pay high, arbitrary and noncompetitive prices for rock salt."

Chicken Haven Good Spot To Lay Her Eggs

She built a nest of old paper napkins outside the door under an awning and laid three eggs, Tumlin says.

The name of the restaurant? Chicken Haven.

City Woman Hurt In Fall

A woman hurt in a fall at home was admitted early today to City Hospital, where three other area residents were treated Thursday after separate mishaps.

Mrs. Vadie Corbett, 840 Fairview St., is in "fairly good" condition with a possible fracture of the right wrist suffered in a fall at home.

Lisa Kelly, 6, daughter of John Kelly, 1029 Vine St., was treated last night for abrasions and bruises of the forehead received in a fall on steps.

Keith Simpson, 24, of Rogers R. D. 1, bottle machine operator at the Golden Star Dairy Co. plant, was treated at noon yesterday for bruises of the hand received on machinery.

U.S. Agency Urges 14 New Airports In Ohio

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Aviation Agency has proposed that 14 new airports be constructed in Ohio in the next five years. The additions were among a list of 514 new airports throughout the nation which the FAA said should be built as soon as possible.

Among the list were a new airline airport for Sandusky and 13 general aviation airports to relieve traffic congestion at major terminals. They included four at Cleveland, three at Dayton, two each at Cincinnati and Columbus and one each at Toledo and East Liverpool.

The term "horsepower" was coined by the famous pioneer power engineer, James Watt (1736-1819), when he found that a horse could move 33,000 pounds of coal one foot upward in one minute.

Crash Injures Trio After Commencement

STEUBENVILLE — Three youths bound for Pittsburgh after commencement exercises at Steubenville High School are hospitalized today here with injuries received in a traffic crash in Pennsylvania at 2:15 a. m.

The youths were traveling east on Route 22 when their station wagon collided on a curve with a tractor-trailer truck in North Fayette Township in Allegheny County.

Pennsylvania State Police of Carnegie said they have not determined which youth was the driver. Operator of the truck was Thomas Caral, 35, of Bellefonte, Pa.

Straying Horse Eats Shrubbery And Furniture

A horse with an appetite rivaling that of a goat feasted on some shrubbery and outdoor furniture of a Liverpool Township couple Thursday night.

Township Constable Leonard Watters said the animal escaped from its enclosed pasture and was found chomping away on shrubbery and an outdoor rattan table at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Weiner of Pond St.

The animal ate a hole through the top of the table, the constable reported.

The owner, Michael Pusateri of Meadow Rd., told Constable Watters he would pay for damage to the Weiner property. The black and white riding horse was returned to its pasture to graze on "common" grass.

Watters requested townships residents to contact Harold McCall of Rogers, dog warden, on complaints of stray canines.

When you are planning to broil flank steak, before cooking you may want to pound the meat with the edge of a heavy saucer across the grain of the meat. This pounding will break the fibers and help make the meat tender. Two other aids to tenderness: a very short broiling time and carving in thin diagonal slices.

Crash Injures Trio After Commencement

STEUBENVILLE — Three youths bound for Pittsburgh after commencement exercises at Steubenville High School are hospitalized today here with injuries received in a traffic crash in Pennsylvania at 2:15 a. m.

The youths were traveling east on Route 22 when their station wagon collided on a curve with a tractor-trailer truck in North Fayette Township in Allegheny County.

Pennsylvania State Police of Carnegie said they have not determined which youth was the driver. Operator of the truck was Thomas Caral, 35, of Bellefonte, Pa.

Straying Horse Eats Shrubbery And Furniture

A horse with an appetite rivaling that of a goat feasted on some shrubbery and outdoor furniture of a Liverpool Township couple Thursday night.

Township Constable Leonard Watters said the animal escaped from its enclosed pasture and was found chomping away on shrubbery and an outdoor rattan table at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Weiner of Pond St.

The animal ate a hole through the top of the table, the constable reported.

The owner, Michael Pusateri of Meadow Rd., told Constable Watters he would pay for damage to the Weiner property. The black and white riding horse was returned to its pasture to graze on "common" grass.

Watters requested township residents to contact Harold McCall of Rogers, dog warden, on complaints of stray canines.

When you are planning to broil flank steak, before cooking you may want to pound the meat with the edge of a heavy saucer across the grain of the meat. This pounding will break the fibers and help make the meat tender. Two other aids to tenderness: a very short broiling time and carving in thin diagonal slices.

Who Says Enmity Toward TV Is Dead?

Hal Humphrey

Are you loving TV more and hating it less? The Schwerin Research Corp., one of the multitude of outfits always surveying TV viewers, says you are.

"One of the differences between this survey and the previous two (1959 and 1961) was the absence of expressions of undying enmity toward the medium," reports Schwerin Corp. One survey question was, "In single word or short sentence, what is your main criticism of TV?" and the result showed 17 per cent of those questioned not only refused to criticize, but they wrote in praise of TV, says the survey.

IT'S DIFFICULT to believe that no one was found with even a tiny bit of enmity toward TV churning around in his stomach. Just a cursory inventory of a week's TV fare reveals several peaks on my enmity-toward-TV chart, and I'm sure I can't be alone.

I'll never quite forgive my TV set for exposing me to Bill Cullen, the unctuous emcee of "Price Is Right" and panel sitter on "I've Got a Secret." One of those forced smiles from Cullen, and my enmity toward TV soars.

The same reaction hits me when Bennett Cerf chides John Daly for misleading the "What's My Line?" panel as it tries so desperately to guess the chicken plucker from Odessa, Tex. I find myself shouting, "Okay, Cerf, ask the questions and cut out the palaver!"

NO SURVEYOR is going to convince me that he can't find hundreds of enmity-filled viewers with for-sale signs hanging on their TV sets because they no longer stand that oafish yokel who comes into the gal's kitchen and says, "Chee, lady, you ain't usin' da right detergent," or something to that effect.

What keeps that gal from dunking this bird's head into her washing machine and flipping on the switch, I'll never know.

Generally, I can take kids or leave them alone on TV, but Jay North (the kid who plays "Dennis the Menace") can turn me into a sadist with that shrill, forced gaiety he displays. If a kid really acted like TV's Dennis, he wouldn't live past the age of 5.

HUGH DOWNS is beginning to pall on me, too, and there are even moments when I hate Lassie and Perry Como.

If Downs was ever a Boy Scout, I'll bet he not only helped old ladies across the street, but then took five minutes to explain to them why crossing the street can be a very dangerous venture — especially if there is no street there, because the men who drew the plans for it couldn't get the city council to rezone the land.

It's Lassie's superb confidence that she can do anything which I find is getting to be a drag. If she's a superdog, where is her cape?

As for Como, why can't he just for once blow his stack over something, or maybe laugh hard enough so we can hear him? Nobody can be that quiet and even-tempered and still be alive. Come on, Como, prove you're alive!

WHERE ARE the surveyors of enmity when we're trying to watch an old John Wayne movie on TV? Just as Wayne is about to put his arm around the girl, or plug another Indian, James Daly interrupts to ask, "Are you smoking more now and enjoying it less?"

Daly used to be a fine dramatic actor, until about four or five years ago when he took to peddling cigarettes. Now he just smokes all the time on TV, and most of us never are sure if Wayne gets the Indians in the end, or the girl.

Am I also the only one getting a little tired of watching Julie Harris, Ingrid Bergman and Laurence Olivier waltz on to TV once a season in some standard, well-rehearsed vehicle to cop off the Emmy awards for best actress and actor?

Why let them compete with the TV actor who gets two days' rehearsal instead of two weeks, and who has to fight an original script instead of a ready-made Shakespeare or Maugham?

Show me a TV survey without enmity represented, and I'll show you a phony survey.

Liz And Eddie Disagree Over Divorce Moves

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Eddie Fisher and Elizabeth Taylor—separated by an ocean—appear to be in disagreement on how their divorce is to be handled.

Fisher said here Thursday that it wouldn't be gentlemanly for him to shed the actress, so he'll sue for divorce in Las Vegas, Nev., and she'll get the decree by countersuit.

The couple will cooperate to end he marriage, the singer said.

But Miss Taylor's personal secretary, who is with the actress in Rome, said the screen siren knows nothing about the announced divorce-filing plan.

Richard Hanley said Miss Taylor had no comment when told about Fisher's statement.

Fisher said the divorce grounds would be mental cruelty. He'll start the required six-week Nevada residence on July 24 when he begins a night club engagement in Las Vegas.

Miss Taylor is playing Cleopatra to Richard Burton's Marc Antony in a film in Rome. Burton is the actor involved in the rift in the Fisher-Taylor marriage.

The buck-sawing record was established in 1936, when Thomas Walling, of Rockcroft, Ontario, made the prescribed four cuts through a four-foot hard maple log in 34 seconds.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Child Can't Enjoy Forced Meals

Dr. Garry Meyers

You may have seen a child, 6, 10 or 12, sitting at the table long after the rest of the family has finished eating and gone away, because he was told not to leave the table till he had a clean plate. Finally, in desperation, such a youngster may wash down with milk or water bites of one or more foods he dislikes, and thus win release from the long siege. Now a clean plate may be a desirable objective, but such a way of arriving at this objective may prove very costly to the child, even to the whole family.

This problem may be prevented, even solved, in the following ways:

WHEN YOU SERVE the child, put very little food on his plate. Let him tell you how small an amount of each food he desires, so long as it is visible. In some special instances, when the variety of food served contains a food strongly disliked by the child, you might omit it or make its amount infinitesimally small.

In some cases it may be better to let the child serve himself, choosing as little of each food as he likes, encouraging him to take a small total of food on his plate. If he then asks for a second helping, be sure to make the portion or portions very small, and omit those foods he dislikes.

If he seems to choose too liberally, warn — even limit — his taking too much.

In most cases in which the child lingers long and painfully in order to have a clean plate, too much food had been put on this plate.

WHEN A CHILD is forced to sit long, meal after meal, in order to leave a clean plate, he can't enjoy his meals and there can't be a happy family mealtime.

Some of the problems involved may have started when the child was two or hree and was urged or forced to eat more of any one or all foods than he wanted, or even had food pushed into him against his strong resistance.

A good rule with young children is to serve one food at a time in a very, very small portion, not telling him he must eat anything, letting him choose what to eat, but limiting the choices. Assume that he does the eating and will eat when he is hungry.

My bulletins, "Eating Problems: Their Prevention and Solution, I and II," may be had by sending a self - addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Witnesses Refuse To Testify At Hearing On Red Activities

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Committee on Un-American Activities completed its fourth day of hearings on Communist Party activities in the Cleveland area with another rash of witnesses refusing to testify.

The witnesses brought to the stand Thursday had been implicated by an earlier witness, Mrs. Julia Brown, of engaging in Communist activities in the Cleveland area. Mrs. Brown said she worked for the FBI when she was a member of the Communist Party.

Two sisters, Cleveland attorneys Elsie R. and Viola Tarcai, said their political beliefs were none of the committee's business and refused to say if they are members of the Communist Party now. They both said that, to the best of their knowledge, they had never met Mrs. Brown.

Molton Tannenbaum, another of the more than 100 Cleveland area residents singled out as Communists by Mrs. Brown, said Mrs. Brown evidently testified that every social, religious and civic meeting she ever attended was a Communist meeting. Committee chairman Francis E. Walter, D-Pa., said "That's not correct."

Tannenbaum declined to answer whether he participated in a 1961 "walk for peace" sponsored by the Cleveland Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy. He said the question was "designed to hold me up to ridicule."

Committee counsel Alfred Nittle said Communist - front organizations to which Tannenbaum belonged included the Cleveland Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions, the Ohio Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case and the Cleveland Council of Soviet Understanding.

Other witnesses Thursday included attorney Norman Heller of the American Civil Liberties Union, who is representing Sylvia and Abraham Strauss; both Strauss and his wife; Regina Sokol, and Ruth Emmer.

Chairman Walter dismissed several of Thursday's witnesses after brief questioning with the comment, "It is obvious that this witness is not going to testify."

$23,000 Cleared In MS Campaign

Total collections in the three-county Multiple Sclerosis Hope Chest fund drive stand now at $23,000 — about $12,000 short of the $35,000 goal — George Garland of Youngstown, campaign chairman, announced today.

Garland heads the drive in Columbiana, Mahoning and Trumbull Counties, sponsored by the Tru-Mah-Col Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Most of the total represents proceeds in a house-to-house canvass held throughout the three counties Friday and Saturday by 4,500 volunteers, Garland explained. East Liverpool's contribution, $460, was reported Monday. Reports have not been received from other participating Columbiana County communities, including Salem and East Palestine, Garland said. In all, about 1,000 of the volunteers have not reported.

Based on past experience, the campaign chairman said he expects the goal will be attained by the time the drive ends June 17.

California has surpassed all other states throughout the past 10 years in population growth, followed in order by Florida, New York, Texas, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, and New Jersey.

Who Says Enmity Toward TV Is Dead?

Are you loving TV more and hating it less? The Schwerin Research Corp., one of the multitude of outfits always surveying TV viewers, says you are.

Hal Humphrey

"One of the differences between this survey and the previous two (1959 and 1961) was the absence of expressions of undying enmity toward the medium," reports Schwerin Corp. One survey question was, "In single word or short sentence, what is your main criticism of TV?" and the result showed 17 per cent of those questioned not only refused to criticize, but they wrote in praise of TV, says the survey.

IT'S DIFFICULT to believe that no one was found with even a tiny bit of enmity toward TV churning around in his stomach. Just a cursory inventory of a week's TV fare reveals several peaks on my enmity-toward-TV chart, and I'm sure I can't be alone.

I'll never quite forgive my TV set for exposing me to Bill Cullen, the unctuous emcee of "Price Is Right" and panel sitter on "I've Got a Secret." One of those forced smiles from Cullen, and my enmity toward TV soars.

The same reaction hits me when Bennett Cerf chides John Daly for misleading the "What's My Line?" panel as it tries so desperately to guess the chicken plucker from Odessa, Tex. I find myself shouting, "Okay, Cerf, ask the questions and cut out the palaver!"

NO SURVEYOR is going to convince me that he can't find hundreds of enmity-filled viewers with for-sale signs hanging on their TV sets because they no longer stand that oafish yokel who comes into the gal's kitchen and says, "Chee, lady, you ain't usin' da right detergent," or something to that effect.

What keeps that gal from dunking this bird's head into her washing machine and flipping on the switch, I'll never know.

Generally, I can take kids or leave them alone on TV, but Jay North (the kid who plays "Dennis the Menace") can turn me into a sadist with that shrill, forced gaiety he displays. If a kid really acted like TV's Dennis, he wouldn't live past the age of 5.

HUGH DOWNS is beginning to pall on me, too, and there are even moments when I hate Lassie and Perry Como.

If Downs was ever a Boy Scout, I'll bet he not only helped old ladies across the street, but then took five minutes to explain to them why crossing the street can be a very dangerous venture — especially if there is no street there, because the men who drew the plans for it couldn't get the city council to rezone the land.

It's Lassie's superb confidence that she can do anything which I find is getting to be a drag. If she's a superdog, where is her cape?

As for Como, why can't he just for once blow his stack over something, or maybe laugh hard enough so we can hear him? Nobody can be that quiet and even-tempered and still be alive. Come on, Como, prove you're alive!

WHERE ARE the surveyors of enmity when we're trying to watch an old John Wayne movie on TV? Just as Wayne is about to put his arm around the girl, or plug another Indian, James Daly interrupts to ask, "Are you smoking more now and enjoying it less?"

Daly used to be a fine dramatic actor, until about four or five years ago when he took to peddling cigarettes. Now he just smokes all the time on TV, and most of us never are sure if Wayne gets the Indians in the end, or the girl.

Am I also the only one getting a little tired of watching Julie Harris, Ingrid Bergman and Laurence Olivier waltz on to TV once a season in some standard, well-rehearsed vehicle to cop off the Emmy awards for best actress and actor?

Why let them compete with the TV actor who gets two days' rehearsal instead of two weeks, and who has to fight an original script instead of a ready-made Shakespeare or Maugham?

Liz And Eddie Disagree Over Divorce Moves

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Eddie Fisher and Elizabeth Taylor—separated by an ocean—appear to be in disagreement on how their divorce is to be handled.

Fisher said here Thursday that it wouldn't be gentlemanly for him to shed the actress, so he'll sue for divorce in Las Vegas, Nev., and she'll get the decree by countersuit.

The couple will cooperate to end he marriage, the singer said.

But Miss Taylor's personal secretary, who is with the actress in Rome, said the screen siren knows nothing about the announced divorce-filing plan.

Richard Hanley said Miss Taylor had no comment when told about Fisher's statement.

Fisher said the divorce grounds would be mental cruelty. He'll start the required six-week Nevada residence on July 24 when he begins a night club engagement in Las Vegas.

Miss Taylor is playing Cleopatra to Richard Burton's Marc Antony in a film in Rome. Burton is the actor involved in the rift in the Fisher-Taylor marriage.

The buck-sawing record was established in 1936, when Thomas Walling, of Rockcroft, Ontario, made the prescribed four cuts through a four-foot hard maple log in 34 seconds.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Child Can't Enjoy Forced Meals

You may have seen a child, 6, 10 or 12, sitting at the table long after the rest of the family has finished eating and gone away, because he was told not to leave the table till he had a clean plate. Finally, in desperation, such a youngster may wash down with milk or water bites of one or more foods he dislikes, and thus win release from the long siege. Now a clean plate may be a desirable objective, but such a way of arriving at this objective may prove very costly to the child, even to the whole family.

Dr. Garry Meyers

This problem may be prevented, even solved, in the following ways:

—:—

WHEN YOU SERVE the child, put very little food on his plate. Let him tell you how small an amount of each food he desires, so long as it is visible. In some special instances, when the variety of food served contains a food strongly disliked by the child, you might omit it or make its amount infinitesimally small.

In some cases it may be better to let the child serve himself, choosing as little of each food as he likes, encouraging him to take a small total of food on his plate. If he then asks for a second helping, be sure to make the portion or portions very small, and omit those foods he dislikes.

If he seems to choose too liberally, warn — even limit — his taking too much.

In most cases in which the child lingers long and painfully in order to have a clean plate, too much food had been put on this plate.

WHEN A CHILD is forced to sit long, meal after meal, in order to leave a clean plate, he can't enjoy his meals and there can't be a happy family mealtime.

Some of the problems involved may have started when the child was two or hree and was urged or forced to eat more of any one or all foods than he wanted, or even had food pushed into him against his strong resistance.

A good rule with young children is to serve one food at a time in a very, very small portion, not telling him he must eat anything, letting him choose what to eat, but limiting the choices. Assume that he does the eating and will eat when he is hungry.

My bulletins, "Eating Problems: Their Prevention and Solution, I and II," may be had by sending a self - addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Witnesses Refuse To Testify At Hearing On Red Activities

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Committee on Un-American Activities completed its fourth day of hearings on Communist Party activities in the Cleveland area with another rash of witnesses refusing to testify.

The witnesses brought to the stand Thursday had been implicated by an earlier witness, Mrs. Julia Brown, of engaging in Communist activities in the Cleveland area. Mrs. Brown said she worked for the FBI when she was a member of the Communist Party.

Two sisters, Cleveland attorneys Elsie R. and Viola Tarcai, said their political beliefs were none of the committee's business and refused to say if they are members of the Communist Party now. They both said that, to the best of their knowledge, they had never met Mrs. Brown.

Molton Tannenbaum, another of the more than 100 Cleveland area residents singled out as Communists by Mrs. Brown, said Mrs. Brown evidently testified that every social, religious and civic meeting she ever attended was a Communist meeting. Committee chairman Francis E. Walter, D-Pa., said "That's not correct."

Tannenbaum declined to answer whether he participated in a 1961 "walk for peace" sponsored by the Cleveland Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy. He said the question was "designed to hold me up to ridicule."

Committee counsel Alfred Nittle said Communist - front organizations to which Tannenbaum belonged included the Cleveland Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions, the Ohio Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case and the Cleveland Council of Soviet Understanding.

Other witnesses Thursday included attorney Norman Heller of the American Civil Liberties Union, who is representing Sylvia and Abraham Strauss; both Strauss and his wife; Regina Sokol, and Ruth Emmer.

Chairman Walter dismissed several of Thursday's witnesses after brief questioning with the comment, "It is obvious that this witness is not going to testify."

$23,000 Cleared In MS Campaign

Total collections in the three-county Multiple Sclerosis Hope Chest fund drive stand now at $23,000 — about $12,000 short of the $35,000 goal — George Garland of Youngstown, campaign chairman, announced today.

Garland heads the drive in Columbiana, Mahoning and Trumbull Counties, sponsored by the Tru-Mah-Col Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Most of the total represents proceeds in a house-to-house canvass held throughout the three counties Friday and Saturday by 4,500 volunteers, Garland explained. East Liverpool's contribution, $460, was reported Monday. Reports have not been received from other participating Columbiana County communities, including Salem and East Palestine, Garland said. In all, about 1,000 of the volunteers have not reported.

Based on past experience, the campaign chairman said he expects the goal will be attained by the time the drive ends June 17.

California has surpassed all other states throughout the past 10 years in population growth, followed in order by Florida, New York, Texas, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, and New Jersey.

Apple Sales Group Elects

LISBON—Henry Ross of Greenford was elected chairman of the interim operative board to guide and direct the development of an apple division of the Ohio Agricultural Marketing Association at a meeting Tuesday at Newcomerstown.

Other members of the board are Paul Less of Salem, Don Simmons of Rogers, Harry Lutz of Carrollton, George Downes of Magnolia, Mason McConnel of Ravenna, David Dean of Geneva, Paul Livezey of Barnesville, Walter Wells of Wilkesville, Ben Davis of Clyde and Miles Phillips of Berlin Heights.

John Hackenbracht, manager of the Fruit Growers Marketing Association, was named manager of the new division of OAMA, which will join six other states in the American Agricultural Marketing Association to help stabilize and improve the market for processing apples.

The Ohio association, along with the American association, is an affiliate of the Farm Bureau. Ohio produces about five million bushels of apples annually and about 10 per cent are sold to processors, the rest are consumed in their fresh state, according to S. C. Cashman, general manager of the Ohio Agricultural Marketing Association.

Legislation Eyed For Setting Time Limit On Burial

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Discovery of the bodies of nine infants at a funeral home early this week has prompted Law Director James V. Barbuto to seek legislation by City Council setting a time limit on burial.

Barbuto said Thursday he hopes to have a proposed ordinance before Council Tuesday.

"I personally feel a week to 10 days should be time enough to arrange for a decent burial," said Barbuto. He pointed out there is no state statute now on how soon a body must be buried and added the legislature could not enact a law before 1963.

Police continued investigating the babies' bodies case. Clarence Irby, 37, secretary - treasurer of the funeral home, has been charged with suspicion and is free on $300 bond pending arraignment.

Apple Sales Group Elects

LISBON—Henry Ross of Greenford was elected chairman of the interim operative board to guide and direct the development of an apple division of the Ohio Agricultural Marketing Association at a meeting Tuesday at Newcomerstown.

John Hackenbracht, manager of the Fruit Growers Marketing Association, was named manager of the new division of OAMA, which will join six other states in the American Agricultural Marketing Association to help stabilize and improve the market for processing apples.

The Ohio association, along with the American association, is an affiliate of the Farm Bureau. Ohio produces about five million bushels of apples annually and about 10 per cent are sold to processors, the rest are consumed in their fresh state, according to S. C. Cashman, general manager of the Ohio Agricultural Marketing Association.

Legislation Eyed For Setting Time Limit On Burial

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Discovery of the bodies of nine infants at a funeral home early this week has prompted Law Director James V. Barbuto to seek legislation by City Council setting a time limit on burial.

Barbuto said Thursday he hopes to have a proposed ordinance before Council Tuesday.

"I personally feel a week to 10 days should be time enough to arrange for a decent burial," said Barbuto. He pointed out there is no state statute now on how soon a body must be buried and added the legislature could not enact a law before 1963.

Police continued investigating the babies' bodies case. Clarence Irby, 37, secretary - treasurer of the funeral home, has been charged with suspicion and is free on $300 bond pending arraignment.

Stuart's 9th Inning Homer Trips LA

Highly Regarded . . .

When a basketball player is a regular on one of the top 10 college cage teams in the nation, he has to have something on the ball, especially if he is only 5-feet-10.

Apparently East Liverpool's Bob Dawson has what it takes.

He is highly regarded in the Bowling Green area where he carved quite a name for himself on the hardwood as captain of the Falcon basketball squad, which finished ninth in the country this past season.

They thought so much of him that he topped the list and was named to a head coaching position at a nearby high school—Eastwood by name.

Dawson will be taking quite a big step for a young man who was graduated from college only last Sunday.

At East Liverpool High, we always considered Bob one of the cleverist guards to be seen around here. He and his teammate, Don (Duck) Rogers, made quite a formidable pair for the Potters.

As Dawson's coach, Harold Anderson, said his trademark was the theft of the basketball. Bob was a slick passer and playmaker for the Falcons and on occasions even went on a scoring binge.

Anderson tells a pretty good story to point out Dawson's ability as a leader.

It happened prior to the Bradley-Bowling Green game last season, which served as the opener for the Falcons.

Anderson made his talk to the boys and just as he finished Dawson asked that he be allowed to say a few words. He only said a few, Anderson relates, but when he finished, the rest of the players literally tore down the locker room door to get on the floor. The rest is history as the Falcons scored a surprising 78-63 win over Bradley.

During the summer months Dawson will be working at a sporting goods store in Bowling Green, a job he has held the past few years.

We understand there were some 50 applications for the Eastwood job.

Schalk Called Shot . . .

IN 1959 as Bernie Allen was passing Purdue to an upset victory over Wisconsin at Purdue's Ross Ade Stadium, in the stands talking to a Chicago sportswriter was Ray Schalk, one of nine catchers whose name is enshrined in the Baseball Hall of Fame.

Schalk was serving in an advisory capacity for baseball at Purdue.

Looking out on the muddy gridiron, Schalk turned to the sportswriter and said, "There's a future major league baseball player out there."

The sportswriter, amazed at the sudden change in conversation from football to baseball, asked, "Where?"

"That No. 15," Schalk said, meaning Allen, who was quarterbacking the Boilermakers that day.

Well the sportswriter never forgot Schalk's keen observation and when the Minnesota Twins visited Chicago two weeks ago the writer went to great lengths to describe the many accomplishments of the East Liverpool lad and the fact that Schalk was quite a fine judge of talent.

Nicknames And Baseball . . .

NICKNAMES and baseball have gone together almost as long as the bat and ball. Ballplayers were labeled with all sorts of "horns" especially several decades ago.

Where did the tags come from? One reference reports that some came from the comic strips, animal kingdom and a likeness for certain foods. And nationalities had a lot to do with it.

From the animal kingdom came names like Ducky Medwick, Rabbit Maranville, Skeeter Newsome, Goose Goslin, Birdie Tebbetts, Harry (The Cat) Brecheen and Harvey (The Kitten) Haddix.

A steady diet of certain foods turned out Pie Traynor, Salty Parker and Candy Cummings, while stepping out of the comic strips was Muggsy McGraw for the late John McGraw, Flash Gordon and Dusty Rhodes.

The sensational Cy Young picked up his since Cy was short for Cyclone, a manner in which he appeared to opposing batters.

Then there was Pee Wee Reese. Many baseball fans figures his nickname came from his small size, but actually Reese at one time was a champion at marbles (which are also known as "pee wees").

Geographic locations produced Dixie Walker who was born at Villa Rica, Ga. and Arky Vaughn from Clifty, Ark. Casey Stengel because he come from Kansas City (KC).

Those players fond of talking included Lippy Durocher, Gabby Hartnett, Dizzy Dean and Foghorn Kennedy.

Mike Rice Lands Central Job . . .

STEUBENVILLE Central has appointed a new head basketball coach and Martins Ferry High School is looking for one.

Mike Rice, 23-year-old star of the Duquesne University 1961-62 NIT squad, has been named to the head coaching job at Central, replacing Francis Sebring.

Rice also will tutor the golf team.

McBurneys Win, Gain Edge In LL Standings

With the first half of play scheduled to end Saturday, McBurney's are setting on top in the once-scrambled National Division standing in the local Little League.

McBurney's came on to break a tie with Chester Legion by taking an 8-4 decision from their rival Thursday.

Pridemore was the winning hurler, limiting Chester to five hits but one was a home run by Earl Diddle, the losing pitcher. McBurney's backed Pridemore with a solid 10-hit attack.

Rex Campbell turned in a neat one-hit performance as he pitched the Medics nine to a 12-0 shutout over Burbick's. The youngster was near perfect as he fanned 13 batters and didn't issue a walk. Wayne Stewart led the winners by clouting a home run, double and single. Ed Carpenter had the only hit off Campbell, a single.

In an American Division contest, Million's outlasted Veteran Glass, 11-8.

Marv Schell received credit for the victory. Dan Cunningham, Talbott and Brown all collected doubles for the winners. Dan Standley had a pair of two baggers for the Veteran Glass nine and Randy McVay stroked three singles.

Illinois Golfer, 61, Takes Seniors Title

RYE, N.Y., (AP)—You might say it runs in the family. Golf talent in the Dawson family, that is.

George Dawson, 61, and the brother of a former winner, captured the U.S. Senior's Golf Association championship Thursday by two strokes in a playoff with George Haggarty, 59, a southpaw from Detroit.

Dawson, from Glen Ellyn, Ill., shot a 2-over-par 74 while Haggarty carded 76 over the Apawamis course.

Dawson's younger brother John, won the tournament in 1958, 1959 and 1960, so George's victory makes it four out of five years for the family.

Twins Move Into Second On 5-2 Win

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Minnesota Twins climbed a notch toward the American League top Thursday, beating Kansas City 5-2 behind the pitching of right-hander Joe Bonikowski and the key hitting of Rich Rollins.

That victory, coupled with the New York Yankees 4-0 shutout of Cleveland reshuffled the top of the standings. The Yanks kept their hold on first place, but Minnesota jumped up to second—one game out—and the Indians fell to third, two games behind.

In other games—Boston tripped Detroit 5-4, Chicago beat Los Angeles 8-4, and Baltimore crushed Washington 12-5.

Bonikowski, 21, a slender Pennsylvanian, held the Athletics to six hits. He struck out five and did not allow a walk, winning his fifth against four losses.

Kansas City starter Dave Wickersham took the defeat.

Bill Stafford's shutout was the Yanks' second straight over Cleveland in their abbreviated two-game series with the Indians.

Stafford faced only 29 men, retiring the first 10 in order.

Roger Maris led off the fourth with his 10th homer for New York's first hit off loser Jim Perry, and it stayed 1-0 until the Yankees got three insurance runs in the eighth.

The Red Sox nipped the Tigers with an eighth inning run. Before that it had been a home run duel, with pitcher Earl Wilson and Gary Geiger connecting for Boston and Rocky Colavito and Jake Wood for Detroit. Arnold Earley was the winning pitcher and Ron Kline the loser.

Al Smith sparked the White Sox over the Angels, getting five hits in five tries. In all, Chicago batters collected 14 hits off five Los Angeles pitchers, starting with loser Eli Grba.

Eddie Fisher got the victory in relief of Juan Pizarro.

The Orioles scored in all but two innings against the Senators, hammered out 14 hits, collected seven walks and rolled up their biggest score of the season. Jack Fisher was Baltimore's starting pitcher but failed to last past the third. He was taken out after Chuck Hinton's two-run homer and Billy Hoeft went the rest of the way. Washington left-hander Pete Burnside, chased in the Orioles' four-run second, was the loser.

Ohio U. Places 3 On Conference Nine

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP) — Ohio University placed three players on the 1962 all-Mid American Conference baseball team. They are Bob Wandersleben, who shares the first base spot with Tom Tiettmeyer of Bowling Green; John Zaffer, 3b, and Larry Thomas, outfield.

Outfielder Frank Ritchie of Miami (Ohio) also was named to the first team.

Harmony Reigns In Cards' Camp

ST. LOUIS (AP)—All is harmony, at least on the surface, in the camp of the St. Louis Cardinals, where a small tempest boiled up over young southpaw pitcher Ray Sadecki.

It all started Tuesday night when Sadecki gave up five runs on two home run balls and made two errors in one inning against Cincinnati.

Manager Johnny Keane said Sadecki was goofing off, called it the poorest effort he had ever seen on a major league diamond and fined the 21-year-old $50,000 bonus baby $250.

Keane, backed up by General Manager Bing Devine, suspended Sadecki, who has a 2-3 record.

Sadecki demanded that he be traded and Devine said that was out of the question.

Thursday afternoon Sadecki, Devine and Keane went into a session behind closed doors and after the meeting Devine issued a terse statement that said Keane and Sadecki "resolved their differences." Sadecki's suspension has been lifted.

Arnie 'Way Out,' Brewer In Front

That was the laughing analysis offered by two-time National Amateur champion Jack Nicklaus when 45 players scored better than Arnold Palmer in the first round of the $100,000 Classic tournament at the Upper Montclair Country Club Thursday.

It was given, however, with a slightly rueful chuckle that indicated nobody, least of all his pro rivals, figures Arnie will be far away when the $25,000 first prize is handed out Sunday night.

Gay Brewer, heavy-hitting Kentucky-bred pro who plays from Crystal River, Fla., solved the tricky greens on the 7,055-yard course to take the first round lead with 33-33—66.

He was one stroke ahead of Gene Littler, who is tuning up here to defend his U.S. Open championship at Oakmont, Pa., next week, and Earl Stewart, 40, a club pro from Dallas, Tex.

Palmer, winner of six tournaments this year, favorite to add to his immense earnings here and probable favorite for next week's National Open, had a 73, one over par. He was still feeling the effects of a cold that has bothered him for more than a week.

Two players, Fred Hawkins and Dave Ragan, had 68s and six had 69s, among them Nicklaus.

'The Crusher' Vs. Freeman Heads Beaver Local Show

Proceeds from the show will be used by the Boosters Club to purchase an airline's limousine to transport members of the school's athletic teams.

Special children's prices will be offered at 75 cents for any child under 12 years of age. Adult ringside tickets are $2 with general admission $1.50.

Tickets are on sale at Heimie's, Jordan's Sunoco and Rearks.

Cards Ready For Invading Frisco Nine

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Stimulated by a psychological boost that carried them out of a great depression, the St. Louis Cardinals are primed for the first place Giants who open a four game series here tonight.

Manager Johnny Keane said the great lift came Tuesday night when the Cards pulled from behind an 9-1 deficit and went on to beat the Cincinnati Reds 10-9 in 11 innings on Stan Musial's homer.

"They wouldn't have gotten the same boost if they had won the game 5-3 in nine innings," Keane said after the Cards had completed a three game sweep of the series with the Reds, winning 8-2 on 18 hits. The victory string followed eight straight losses.

"It takes a long time to fall back into a slump once you're out of one," the manager said—obviously pleased that the darkest slump of the year was behind him.

The Giants are 10 games in front of the Cards but they come here with a two game losing streak.

Boyce Nine, St. Ann's Win

Al Dawson's grand slam homer and single sent Boyce Methodist on its way to a 9-2 victory over Oakland Free Methodist in the YMCA-Church Softball League Thursday.

The winners collected 13 hits for the winning hurler Jim Tyler. Augue Comfort blasted two doubles while Keith Tice, Sam Clutter and Don Perkins each connected for a double and single.

St. Ann's packed 22 hits into a 20-4 victory over Glenmoor Presbyterian. Adkins came up with four hits while Shields, Bell and Canton had three each for the winners. Shields was the winning hurler. Smith and Williams collected two hits apiece for the losers.

Short Stop Helps Edge Giants, 4-3

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Andre Rodgers may have saved his job with a sudden display of power for the Chicago Cubs.

The young shortstop stroked a bases-loaded single in a three-run fourth inning uprising against National League leading San Francisco, then tagged a homer in the sixth for the deciding run as the Cubs whipped his former teammates 4-3 Thursday.

Rodgers, 27 and hitting only .263, might have been on the bench if Alex Grammas, acquired in a trade two days ago, had reported to the Cubs. At game time Grammas still was missing and Rodgers played.

Second-place Los Angeles lost an opportunity to take over first place when Dick Stuart hit a three-run homer in the last of the ninth and gave Pittsburgh a 3-2 victory over the Dodgers. That kept the Dodgers a half-game back of the Giants.

Elsewhere, St. Louis won its third straight after snapping an eight-game losing streak by belting Cincinnati 8-2 and Houston came from behind to edge Milwaukee and Warren Spahn 3-2. The New York Mets and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

Rodgers' heroics tagged left-hander Billy Pierce with his first National League defeat after eight victories. Don Cardwell (2-6), who scattered six hits, went the route for the victory.

The Dodgers gave Johnny Podres a 2-0 lead on Willie Davis' homer with one on in the third and the southpaw had a four-hit shutout until the ninth when Dick Groat and Roberto Clemente hit consecutive singles leading off the inning. That chased Podres and brought on Larry Sherry, whose second pitch was hit by Stuart for the game-winner. ElRoy Face (4-1) picked up the triumph in relief.

Backed by an 18-hit Cardinal attack, Ernie Broglio (2-2) held the Reds to seven hits.

Julian Javier and Julio Gotay each had three hits off Jim O'Toole (4-6) and his successors.

The Braves moved ahead 2-1 in the fifth on Ed Mathews' run-producing single. But singles by Jim Pendleton, Norm Larker, Merritt Ranew and Billy Goodman gave the Colts two in the last of the ninth and left Spahn (6-6) with the loss. Former Brave Don McMahon (2-1) won it in relief.

Stuart's 9th Inning Homer Trips LA

The Sports Bench

By BOB DUFFY
Sports Editor

Highly Regarded . . .

When a basketball player is a regular on one of the top 10 college cage teams in the nation, he has to have something on the ball, especially if he is only 5-feet-10.

Apparently East Liverpool's Bob Dawson has what it takes.

He is highly regarded in the Bowling Green area where he carved quite a name for himself on the hardwood as captain of the Falcon basketball squad, which finished ninth in the country this past season.

They thought so much of him that he topped the list and was named to a head coaching position at a nearby high school—Eastwood by name.

Dawson will be taking quite a big step for a young man who was graduated from college only last Sunday.

At East Liverpool High, we always considered Bob one of the cleverist guards to be seen around here. He and his teammate, Don (Duck) Rogers, made quite a formidable pair for the Potters.

As Dawson's coach, Harold Anderson, said his trademark was the theft of the basketball. Bob was a slick passer and playmaker for the Falcons and on occasions even went on a scoring binge.

Anderson tells a pretty good story to point out Dawson's ability as a leader.

It happened prior to the Bradley-Bowling Green game last season, which served as the opener for the Falcons.

Anderson made his talk to the boys and just as he finished Dawson asked that he be allowed to say a few words. He only said a few, Anderson relates, but when he finished, the rest of the players literally tore down the locker room door to get on the floor. The rest is history as the Falcons scored a surprising 78-63 win over Bradley.

During the summer months Dawson will be working at a sporting goods store in Bowling Green, a job he has held the past few years.

We understand there were some 50 applications for the Eastwood job.

Schalk Called Shot . . .

IN 1959 as Bernie Allen was passing Purdue to an upset victory over Wisconsin at Purdue's Ross Ade Stadium, in the stands talking to a Chicago sportswriter was Ray Schalk, one of nine catchers whose name is enshrined in the Baseball Hall of Fame.

Schalk was serving in an advisory capacity for baseball at Purdue.

Looking out on the muddy gridiron, Schalk turned to the sportswriter and said, "There's a future major league baseball player out there."

The sportswriter, amazed at the sudden change in conversation from football to baseball, asked, "Where?"

"That No. 15," Schalk said, meaning Allen, who was quarterbacking the Boilermakers that day.

Well the sportswriter never forgot Schalk's keen observation and when the Minnesota Twins visited Chicago two weeks ago the writer went to great lengths to describe the many accomplishments of the East Liverpool lad and the fact that Schalk was quite a fine judge of talent.

Nicknames And Baseball . . .

NICKNAMES and baseball have gone together almost as long as the bat and ball. Ballplayers were labeled with all sorts of "horns" especially several decades ago.

Where did the tags come from? One reference reports that some came from the comic strips, animal kingdom and a likeness for certain foods. And nationalities had a lot to do with it.

From the animal kingdom came names like Ducky Medwick, Rabbit Maranville, Skeeter Newsome, Goose Goslin, Birdie Tebbetts, Harry (The Cat) Brecheen and Harvey (The Kitten) Haddix.

A steady diet of certain foods turned out Pie Traynor, Salty Parker and Candy Cummings, while stepping out of the comic strips was Muggsy McGraw for the late John McGraw, Flash Gordon and Dusty Rhodes.

The sensational Cy Young picked up his since Cy was short for Cyclone, a manner in which he appeared to opposing batters.

Then there was Pee Wee Reese. Many baseball fans figures his nickname came from his small size, but actually Reese at one time was a champion at marbles (which are also known as "pee wees").

Geographic locations produced Dixie Walker who was born at Villa Rica, Ga. and Arky Vaughn from Clifty, Ark. Casey Stengel because he come from Kansas City (KC).

Those players fond of talking included Lippy Durocher, Gabby Hartnett, Dizzy Dean and Foghorn Kennedy.

Mike Rice Lands Central Job . . .

STEUBENVILLE Central has appointed a new head basketball coach and Martins Ferry High School is looking for one.

Mike Rice, 23-year-old star of the Duquesne University 1961-62 NIT squad, has been named to the head coaching job at Central, replacing Francis Sebring.

Rice also will tutor the golf team.

Twins Move Into Second On 5-2 Win

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Minnesota Twins climbed a notch toward the American League top Thursday, beating Kansas City 5-2 behind the pitching of right-hander Joe Bonikowski and the key hitting of Rich Rollins.

That victory, coupled with the New York Yankees 4-0 shutout of Cleveland reshuffled the top of the standings. The Yanks kept their hold on first place, but Minnesota jumped up to second—one game out—and the Indians fell to third, two games behind.

In other games—Boston tripped Detroit 5-4, Chicago beat Los Angeles 8-4, and Baltimore crushed Washington 12-5.

Bonikowski, 21, a slender Pennsylvanian, held the Athletics to six hits. He struck out five and did not allow a walk, winning his fifth against four losses.

Bill Stafford's shutout was the Yanks' second straight over Cleveland in their abbreviated two-game series with the Indians.

Stafford faced only 29 men, retiring the first 10 in order.

Roger Maris led off the fourth with his 10th homer for New York's first hit off loser Jim Perry, and it stayed 1-0 until the Yankees got three insurance runs in the eighth.

The Red Sox nipped the Tigers with an eighth inning run. Before that it had been a home run duel, with pitcher Earl Wilson and Gary Geiger connecting for Boston and Rocky Colavito and Jake Wood for Detroit. Arnold Earley was the winning pitcher and Ron Kline the loser.

Al Smith sparked the White Sox over the Angels, getting five hits in five tries. In all, Chicago batters collected 14 hits off five Los Angeles pitchers, starting with loser Eli Grba.

The Orioles scored in all but two innings against the Senators, hammered out 14 hits, collected seven walks and rolled up their biggest score of the season. Jack Fisher was Baltimore's starting pitcher but failed to last past the third. He was taken out after Chuck Hinton's two-run homer and Billy Hoeft went the rest of the way. Washington left-hander Pete Burnside, chased in the Orioles' four-run second, was the loser.

Ohio U. Places 3 On Conference Nine

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP) — Ohio University placed three players on the 1962 all-Mid American Conference baseball team. They are Bob Wandersleben, who shares the first base spot with Tom Tiettmeyer of Bowling Green; John Zaffer, 3b, and Larry Thomas, outfield.

Outfielder Frank Ritchie of Miami (Ohio) also was named to the first team.

Harmony Reigns In Cards' Camp

ST. LOUIS (AP)—All is harmony, at least on the surface, in the camp of the St. Louis Cardinals, where a small tempest boiled up over young southpaw pitcher Ray Sadecki.

It all started Tuesday night when Sadecki gave up five runs on two home run balls and made two errors in one inning against Cincinnati.

Manager Johnny Keane said Sadecki was goofing off, called it the poorest effort he had ever seen on a major league diamond and fined the 21-year-old $50,000 bonus baby $250.

Sadecki went into a sulk and didn't bother to show up for the next night's game.

Keane, backed up by General Manager Bing Devine, suspended Sadecki, who has a 2-3 record.

Sadecki demanded that he be traded and Devine said that was out of the question.

Thursday afternoon Sadecki, Devine and Keane went into a session behind closed doors and after the meeting Devine issued a terse statement that said Keane and Sadecki "resolved their differences." Sadecki's suspension has been lifted.

Arnie 'Way Out,' Brewer In Front

That was the laughing analysis offered by two-time National Amateur champion Jack Nicklaus when 45 players scored better than Arnold Palmer in the first round of the $100,000 Classic tournament at the Upper Montclair Country Club Thursday.

It was given, however, with a slightly rueful chuckle that indicated nobody, least of all his pro rivals, figures Arnie will be far away when the $25,000 first prize is handed out Sunday night.

Gay Brewer, heavy-hitting Kentucky-bred pro who plays from Crystal River, Fla., solved the tricky greens on the 7,055-yard course to take the first round lead with 33-33—66.

He was one stroke ahead of Gene Littler, who is tuning up here to defend his U.S. Open championship at Oakmont, Pa., next week, and Earl Stewart, 40, a club pro from Dallas, Tex.

Palmer, winner of six tournaments this year, favorite to add to his immense earnings here and probable favorite for next week's National Open, had a 73, one over par. He was still feeling the effects of a cold that has bothered him for more than a week.

Two players, Fred Hawkins and Dave Ragan, had 68s and six had 69s, among them Nicklaus.

'The Crusher' Vs. Freeman Heads Beaver Local Show

Proceeds from the show will be used by the Boosters Club to purchase an airline's limousine to transport members of the school's athletic teams.

Special children's prices will be offered at 75 cents for any child under 12 years of age. Adult ringside tickets are $2 with general admission $1.50.

Tickets are on sale at Heimie's, Jordan's Sunoco and Rearks.

Cards Ready For Invading Frisco Nine

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Stimulated by a psychological boost that carried them out of a great depression, the St. Louis Cardinals are primed for the first place Giants who open a four game series here tonight.

Manager Johnny Keane said the great lift came Tuesday night when the Cards pulled from behind an 9-1 deficit and went on to beat the Cincinnati Reds 10-9 in 11 innings on Stan Musial's homer.

"They wouldn't have gotten the same boost if they had won the game 5-3 in nine innings," Keane said after the Cards had completed a three game sweep of the series with the Reds, winning 8-2 on 18 hits. The victory string followed eight straight losses.

"It takes a long time to fall back into a slump once you're out of one," the manager said—obviously pleased that the darkest slump of the year was behind him.

The Giants are 10 games in front of the Cards but they come here with a two game losing streak.

Boyce Nine, St. Ann's Win

Al Dawson's grand slam homer and single sent Boyce Methodist on its way to a 9-2 victory over Oakland Free Methodist in the YMCA-Church Softball League Thursday.

The winners collected 13 hits for the winning hurler Jim Tyler. Augue Comfort blasted two doubles while Keith Tice, Sam Clutter and Don Perkins each connected for a double and single.

St. Ann's packed 22 hits into a 20-4 victory over Glenmoor Presbyterian. Adkins came up with four hits while Shields, Bell and Canton had three each for the winners. Shields was the winning hurler. Smith and Williams collected two hits apiece for the losers.

McBurneys Win, Gain Edge In LL Standings

With the first half of play scheduled to end Saturday, McBurney's are setting on top in the once-scrambled National Division standing in the local Little League.

McBurney's came on to break a tie with Chester Legion by taking an 8-4 decision from their rival Thursday.

Pridemore was the winning hurler, limiting Chester to five hits but one was a home run by Earl Diddle, the losing pitcher. McBurney's backed Pridemore with a solid 10-hit attack.

Rex Campbell turned in a neat one-hit performance as he pitched the Medics nine to a 12-0 shutout over Burbick's. The youngster was near perfect as he fanned 13 batters and didn't issue a walk. Wayne Stewart led the winners by clouting a home run, double and single. Ed Carpenter had the only hit off Campbell, a single.

In an American Division contest, Million's outlasted Veteran Glass, 11-8.

Marv Schell received credit for the victory. Dan Cunningham, Talbott and Brown all collected doubles for the winners. Dan Standley had a pair of two baggers for the Veteran Glass nine and Randy McVay stroked three singles.

Illinois Golfer, 61, Takes Seniors Title

RYE, N.Y., (AP)—You might say it runs in the family. Golf talent in the Dawson family, that is.

George Dawson, 61, and the brother of a former winner, captured the U.S. Senior's Golf Association championship Thursday by two strokes in a playoff with George Haggarty, 59, a southpaw from Detroit.

Dawson, from Glen Ellyn, Ill., shot a 2-over-par 74 while Haggarty carded 76 over the Apawamis course.

Dawson's younger brother John, won the tournament in 1958, 1959 and 1960, so George's victory makes it four out of five years for the family.

By JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The richest of all Belmont stakes since the great classic was inaugurated in 1867, will be raced Saturday at Belmont Park.

Seven 3-year-olds are scheduled to go postward in the 1⅛-mile test, barring any late developments.

The leading contenders are George A. Pope Jr.'s Decidedly, Donald P. Ross' Greek Money, George D. Widener's Jaipur, and Peter W. SalmenSr.' Crimson Satan.

The others, who can't be counted out after last year's experience with Sherluck ($132.10—for $2), are Fred W. Hooper's Admiral's Voyage, Frank E. Power's Vimy Ridge, and Louis Wolfson's David K.

Decidedly broke the Churchill Downs track record in winning the Kentucky Derby five weeks ago. But ran poorly in the Preakness at Pimlico May 19, as Greek Money nosed Ridan in their rough finish line thriller.

Jim Hissom Hurls Second No-Hitter In Colt League

Hissom's masterpiece came Thursday as he pitched Friendly Bowling to a 4-0 victory over Riverview.

On his way to the no-hitter, Hissom fanned 10 batters and received some fine support from his teammates in the field. Friendly Bowling collected five hits off Miller, the loser who had 12 strikeouts to his credit.

Stephens and Horger paced the winners at the plate with a triple each.

Four Share Lead In Women's Golf Event With 69s

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Veteran Gloria Fecht and tour sophomore Sandra Haynie, a couple of golfers who never have won a tournament, matched strokes with big guns Mickey Wright and Jackie Pung to create a four-way lead in the $7,500 Austin Civitan Open first round.

They led the parade into the second 18 holes today with five-under-par 69's.

They were two strokes ahead of Marilynn Smith, who shot a 71. Bunched at 72 were Judy Kimball of Sioux City, Iowa; Mary Mills of Ocean Park, Miss., and Sherry Wheeler, the tour freshman from Glasgow, Ky.

Miss Haynie, the tiny girl who got her golfing start at the Austin Country Club, scene of the tournament, had to birdie the last hole with an eight-foot putt to tie Miss Fecht, Miss Wright and Mrs. Pung for the lead.

The most pleased golfer on the course was Mrs. Bettye Mims Danoff got a hole-in-one with a No. 6 iron blast on the 157-yard twelfth hole.

New coach Wally Lemm of the St. Louis Cardinals football team believes Sam Etcheverry will be his No. 1 quarterback next fall. Sam had arm trouble last season.

Minor Leaguers On Scoring Binge

High scoring contests marked Thursday's Little - Minor League front.

Tri-State Appliance pushed the most runs across the plate in scoring an 18-5 victory over First National Bank, with Bill Williams socking a triple with the bases loaded. J. Jolly and D. Breener each had a pair of doubles. Mike Vernaiccini was the winning hurler for Tri-State.

Potters Savings and Loan was outhit, 14-9, but still managed to come out on top, 16-10 over T.S.&T. VanMeter was the winning hurler while G. Pittenger and F. Robinson collected two hits each. The leading hitter of the evening was Steve Murray of T.S.&T. with four safeties.

Cornell's pounded out 11 hits and a 15-10 victory over Knowles. Rich Wolfe was the winning hurler and only gave up three hits. Fred Henderson put on his hitting shoes to belt a double and two singles.

Named Grid Coach

PORT CLINTON, Ohio (AP)—Charles E. Ramsey, a member of the coaching staff at Cuyahoga Falls High School, has been named head football coach and assistant track coach at Oak Harbor High School in Ottawa County.

Post 374 Wins Season's Opener; To Play Sunday

Ed Six, ace of the East Liverpool High staff, hurled a three-hitter for the locals.

Twin No-Hitters Recorded In S. Side Hot Stove Loop

It is rare when a no-hitter is pitched, but what about two in the same league on the same night.

It happened in the South Side Hot Stove Senior League Thursday and the owners of the no-hit games were Bill Wright of Lawrenceville and Dave Trimble of the Georgetown - Shippingport entry.

Wright hurled Lawrenceville to a 13-1 victory and sent 18 batters down swinging. His teammates backed him with a solid 12-hit attack.

Trimble's masterpiece came in a 5-1 victory for Georgetown-Shippingport over Newell. Trimble had 17 strikeouts, just one less than Wright. Bayless, the losing hurler, fanned 11.

In the South Side Junior League, Georgetown must have set some kind of a record in blasting Shippingport, 42-3. Frankfort hung a 25-5 defeat on Hanover and Hookstown edged Lawrenceville, 5-3.

Wittenberg U. Selects Miller

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Wittenberg University in recent years one of the nation's top small college basketball powers, has one of the nation's youngest cage coaches.

University officials Thursday announced the selection of Eldon Miller to succeed Ray Mears as head basketball coach at the school here. Miller will be 23 later this month.

Miller, who is still working toward a masters degree at Wittenberg, was one of the stars of Mear's 1961 NCAA college division champions.

Battle For Point Lead Close At Clinton Raceway

When the super modified drivers meet Friday night for the regular weekly racing events Lou Blaney of Hartford, Ohio, and Gus Linder of Baldwin, Pa., will be going at each other hammer and tongs. Blaney has moved within eleven points of Linder and could take over the point lead from Gus on Friday night.

Jim Seese of Akron, Ohio, is a definite threat to both Linder and Blaney and could move up into the second spot in the point standings with a real good showing.

Paul Reed of Morgantown, W. Va., is a driver to watch. Reed finished second behind Blaney in last Friday's feature event ahead of Linder and Seese and has jumped into the 10th spot in point standings.

J. D. Leas of Steubenville has moved ahead of Len Stumpf in the hardtop standings but with many new drivers that have joined the hardtop division, the point standings will change rapidly.

The Sunday night racing events started on June 3 so the Greater Pittsburgh Speedway will now operate twice a week, Friday and Sunday nights.

150-Pound Buck Hit By Car At Ohioville

A 150-pound, four - point buck deer had to be destroyed after it was critically injured when it bounded over a bank and into the path of an auto driven by a Midland motorist Thursday about 10:20 p.m. on Route 168 in Ohioville Borough in the area of the fire station.

Ohioville police reported the deer was hit by a 1959 two-door convertible driven by Paul Daniels of Virginia Ave. Midland. Police said the deer darted so quickly in front of the auto, the motorist could not stop in time.

Police said the carcass was too badly damaged to be given to an institution for consumption. There was about $90 damage to the auto.

Slugger Ed Mathews of the Milwaukee Braves drew 11 bases on balls in his team's first 14 games this spring, yet he had driven in 16 runs on 11 hits, including six homers.

By JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The richest of all Belmont stakes since the great classic was inaugurated in 1867, will be raced Saturday at Belmont Park.

Seven 3-year-olds are scheduled to go postward in the 1⅛-mile test, barring any late developments.

The leading contenders are George A. Pope Jr.'s Decidedly, Donald P. Ross' Greek Money, George D. Widener's Jaipur, and Peter W. SalmenSr.' Crimson Satan.

The others, who can't be counted out after last year's experience with Sherluck ($132.10—for $2), are Fred W. Hooper's Admiral's Voyage, Frank E. Power's Vimy Ridge, and Louis Wolfson's David K.

Decidedly broke the Churchill Downs track record in winning the Kentucky Derby five weeks ago. But ran poorly in the Preakness at Pimlico May 19, as Greek Money nosed Ridan in their rough finish line thriller.

Jim Hissom Hurls Second No-Hitter In Colt League

Hissom's masterpiece came Thursday as he pitched Friendly Bowling to a 4-0 victory over Riverview.

On his way to the no-hitter, Hissom fanned 10 batters and received some fine support from his teammates in the field. Friendly Bowling collected five hits off Miller, the loser who had 12 strikeouts to his credit.

Stephens and Horger paced the winners at the plate with a triple each.

When the super modified drivers meet Friday night for the regular weekly racing events Lou Blaney of Hartford, Ohio, and Gus Linder of Baldwin, Pa., will be going at each other hammer and tongs. Blaney has moved within eleven points of Linder and could take over the point lead from Gus on Friday night.

Jim Seese of Akron, Ohio, is a definite threat to both Linder and Blaney and could move up into the second spot in the point standings with a real good showing.

Paul Reed of Morgantown, W. Va., is a driver to watch. Reed finished second behind Blaney in last Friday's feature event ahead of Linder and Seese and has jumped into the 10th spot in point standings.

J. D. Leas of Steubenville has moved ahead of Len Stumpf in the hardtop standings but with many new drivers that have joined the hardtop division, the point standings will change rapidly.

The Sunday night racing events started on June 3 so the Greater Pittsburgh Speedway will now operate twice a week, Friday and Sunday nights.

150-Pound Buck Hit By Car At Ohioville

A 150-pound, four - point buck deer had to be destroyed after it was critically injured when it bounded over a bank and into the path of an auto driven by a Midland motorist Thursday about 10:20 p.m. on Route 168 in Ohioville Borough in the area of the fire station.

Ohioville police reported the deer was hit by a 1959 two-door convertible driven by Paul Daniels of Virginia Ave. Midland. Police said the deer darted so quickly in front of the auto, the motorist could not stop in time.

Police said the carcass was too badly damaged to be given to an institution for consumption. There was about $90 damage to the auto.

Slugger Ed Mathews of the Milwaukee Braves drew 11 bases on balls in his team's first 14 games this spring, yet he had driven in 16 runs on 11 hits, including six homers.

Canada, Mexico Alerted For Doctor In Girl Death

NEW YORK (AP) — A police alarm spread to Canada and Mexico in a search for a Queens physician after the dismembered body of a girl was found in the sewer of his sumptuous home and office.

However, authorities fear he may have fled to Cuba with which this country no longer has an extradition treaty.

The victim, identified as Barbara Lofrumento, 19, had been cut up by scalpel and a power saw, apparently after an abortion.

"It must have taken him many, many hours," Asst. Medical Examiner John Furey said Thursday.

The missing man, Dr. Harvey Lothringer, 41, disappeared last Sunday, some hours after the girl was brought to his office by her mother.

With him now, authorities believe, is Theresa Carillo, 25, one-time airline hostess and the doctor's receptionist-girl friend, who also is missing.

Police departments of Canada and Mexico are on the lookout for Lothringer. The Lothringer family—the elder Lothringer is a retired physician—has a hunting lodge about 60 miles north of Montreal. Police said a sister, not further identified, was thought to be in Mexico City.

Miss Carillo is a Cuban national. As hostess, her National Airlines run was to Cuba and her mother is said to live in Havana. Since no diplomatic relations exist between the U.S. and Castro's Cuba, any inquiries would have to be made by the State Department through the Swiss Embassy in Havana.

The dead girl was a sophomore at the College of New Rochelle, N.Y. She resided at Pelham, N.Y., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Lofrumento. The father is a well-to-do pharmacist.

In addition to finding fragments of bone and flesh, an orthodontist identified some teeth as those of Miss Lofrumento. The father identified parts of a skirt, coat and slip his daughter was wearing when she was taken to Lothringer.

The Lofrumentos reported their daughter missing to the Queens district attorney's office on Monday. Meanwhile, Lothringer had asked a policeman friend to arrange for a service firm to come on Tuesday and clean his sewer. The concern started the job on Wednesday, and the gruesome finds were made.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 18, 1962

AN ORDINANCE REGULATING THE PARKING AND TRAFFIC FLOW OF MOTOR VEHICLES AND AMENDING SECTION 467 OF THE CODE OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the City of East Liverpool, State of Ohio:

SECTION 1. That Section 467 of the Code of the City of East Liverpool providing for designation of certain streets as one way streets in southbound direction be amended, which amended section is hereby ordained to read as follows:

SECTION 467. SOUTHBOUND.

Upon the following described streets and portions of streets, vehicular traffic shall move only in a southerly direction when signs indicating the direction of traffic are erected and maintained at every intersection where movement in the opposite direction is prohibited:

Washington Street from Broadway to East Fourth Street,
Harker Avenue from Central Avenue to Sylvan Street,
Riley Avenue from Eugene Place to Bradshaw Avenue
Union Street from Fourth Street to Second Street,
Crook Alley from Fifth Street to Fourth Street.

SECTION 2. That the penalty for violation of said Section 467 shall be as provided in Section 9 of said Code.

SECTION 3. That existing Section 467 is hereby repealed.

SECTION 4. That this Ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 19, 1962

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE ISSUANCE OF NOTES BY THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL IN ANTICIPATION OF THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS FOR THE PURPOSE OF PURCHASING A STREETSWEEPER FOR THE STREET DEPARTMENT AND DECLARING THE NECESSITY OF THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS FOR SUCH PURPOSE.

WHEREAS, this Council has requested the City Auditor to issue his certificate as to the estimated life of the equipment to be purchased from the proceeds of the bonds hereinafter referred to and of the notes to be issued in anticipation of said bonds, and the City Auditor has certified to this Council such estimated life as five years and has further certified maximum maturity of such bonds as five years and such notes as five years;

NOW, THEREFORE,

SECTION 1. That it is deemed necessary to issue the bonds of the City of East Liverpool in the principal sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) in order to provide a fund for the purpose of purchasing a streetsweeper for the Street Department according to plans on file in the office of the Director of Public Service-Safety.

SECTION 2. That said bonds of the City of East Liverpool shall be issued in said principal sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) for the purpose aforesaid. Said bonds shall be of the denomination of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) and shall be dated approximately the first day of July, 1963; shall bear interest at not to exceed five per centum per annum; said bonds shall mature as follows:

In substantially equal annual installments over a period of five years from 1964 to 1968 inclusive.

SECTION 3. That it is necessary and this Council hereby determines that notes shall be issued in anticipation of the issue of said bonds.

SECTION 4. That such anticipatory note or notes in the amount of not exceeding Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00), which sum does not exceed the amount of the bond issue, shall be issued under and by virtue of the authority of Section 133.32 of the Revised Code of the State of Ohio. Such note or notes shall be dated the date of issuance and shall be in the denominations as fixed by the Auditor and Mayor of the City of East Liverpool, and shall be numbered as determined by said Auditor and Mayor.

Said note or notes shall bear interest at the rate of not exceeding four per centum per annum until paid and the interest on said notes shall be payable semi - annually. Said notes shall not be issued for a longer period of time than one year from date thereof, and shall be payable at the office of the Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool upon presentation and surrender of said notes as they respectively mature.

Said notes shall be due and payable as follows: One (1) year after dates of issuance thereof, provided that said notes may be paid prior to maturity at the option of the City.

Said notes shall be signed by the Mayor and Auditor of said City and sealed with the corporate seal of said City.

Each note shall express upon its face the purpose for which it is issued and that it is issued in pursuance of this Ordinance and under authority of the Revised Code and the General Laws of the State of Ohio and particularly Section 133.32 of the Revised Code of Ohio; and said notes shall bear the name of the improvement for which they are issued legibly written or printed upon them as follows:

"STREETSWEEPER NOTE"

SECTION 5. That said money so received by the issuance of said notes shall be placed to the credit of the following funds and in the amounts therein stated:

STREETSWEEPER FUND $15,000.00

and shall be deemed appropriated for the use for which it was borrowed and shall not be used for any other purpose.

SECTION 6. That the Director of Public Service be and he is hereby authorized and directed to issue voucher to the City Auditor for payments due under said contracts from said funds.

SECTION 7. For the payment of the principal and interest of said notes, the full faith, credit and revenue of the City of East Liverpool, be and they are hereby irrevocably pledged.

SECTION 8. Said notes shall be first offered to the Treasurer of said City in his official capacity as being in charge of the Bond payment fund, and so many of the same as shall not be taken by said Treasurer shall be sold at private sale by the City Auditor, but for not less than par and accrued interest and the proceeds from such sale, except any premium and accrued interest thereon (and the amount thereof necessary for the payment of interest prior to the maturity of said notes), shall be paid into the proper fund and used for the purpose aforesaid and for no other purpose. Any premium and accrued interest (and the amount necessary for the payment of interest prior to their maturity) shall be transferred to the Treasurer to be applied by him in the payment of principal and interest of said notes in the manner provided by law.

SECTION 9. The proceeds of the bonds to be issued and all unexpended balance remaining unpaid in the fund after the cost and expenses of the purchase have been paid, shall be applied to the payment of said notes and interest thereof as the same shall become due and to no other purposes whatsoever, until all of said notes and said interest have been fully paid.

SECTION 10. That for the purpose of providing the necessary funds to pay the interest on the foregoing issue of notes, promptly when and as the same falls due and also to provide a fund sufficient to discharge the said notes at maturity, there shall be and is hereby levied on all the taxable property in said City of East Liverpool, in addition to all other taxes, a direct tax annually during the period for which said notes are to run, in an amount sufficient to provide funds to pay interest upon said notes as and when the same falls due and also to provide a fund for the discharge of the principal of said notes at maturity, which said tax shall not be less than the interest and sinking fund tax required by Section 11 of the Article XII of the Constitution.

Said tax shall be and is hereby ordered computed, certified, extended and levied upon the tax duplicate and collected by the same officers, in the same manner and at the same time taxes for general purposes for each of said years are certified, extended and collected. Said tax shall be placed before and in reference to all other items and for the full amount thereof. The funds derived from said tax levied hereby required shall be placed in a separate and distinct fund which together with the interest collected on the same, shall be irrevocably pledged for the payment of the interest and principal of said notes when and as the same fall due.

SECTION 1. The City Auditor is hereby directed to forward a certified copy of this Ordinance to the County Auditor.

SECTION 12. That this Ordinance is hereby declared by Council to be an emergency measure and shall be in force immediately upon passage. Said emergency lies in the fact that the present equipment is in a run down condition and is wholly inadequate to take care of the work for which it is intended and the services of the Street Department are curtailed and is therefore necessary to protect the health, public peace and safety of the citizens of the City of East Liverpool.

Canada, Mexico Alerted For Doctor In Girl Death

NEW YORK (AP) — A police alarm spread to Canada and Mexico in a search for a Queens physician after the dismembered body of a girl was found in the sewer of his sumptuous home and office.

However, authorities fear he may have fled to Cuba with which this country no longer has an extradition treaty.

The victim, identified as Barbara Lofrumento, 19, had been cut up by scalpel and a power saw, apparently after an abortion.

"It must have taken him many, many hours," Asst. Medical Examiner John Furey said Thursday.

The missing man, Dr. Harvey Lothringer, 41, disappeared last Sunday, some hours after the girl was brought to his office by her mother.

With him now, authorities believe, is Theresa Carillo, 25, onetime airline hostess and the doctor's receptionist-girl friend, who also is missing.

Police departments of Canada and Mexico are on the lookout for Lothringer. The Lothringer family—the elder Lothringer is a retired physician—has a hunting lodge about 60 miles north of Montreal. Police said a sister, not further identified, was thought to be in Mexico City.

Miss Carillo is a Cuban national. As hostess, her National Airlines run was to Cuba and her mother is said to live in Havana. Since no diplomatic relations exist between the U.S. and Castro's Cuba, any inquiries would have to be made by the State Department through the Swiss Embassy in Havana.

The dead girl was a sophomore at the College of New Rochelle, N.Y. She resided at Pelham, N.Y., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Lofrumento. The father is a well-to-do pharmacist.

In addition to finding fragments of bone and flesh, an orthodontist identified some teeth as those of Miss Lofrumento. The father identified parts of a skirt, coat and slip his daughter was wearing when she was taken to Lothringer.

The Lofrumentos reported their daughter missing to the Queens district attorney's office on Monday. Meanwhile, Lothringer had asked a policeman friend to arrange for a service firm to come on Tuesday and clean his sewer. The concern started the job on Wednesday, and the gruesome finds were made.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 18, 1962

AN ORDINANCE REGULATING THE PARKING AND TRAFFIC FLOW OF MOTOR VEHICLES AND AMENDING SECTION 467 OF THE CODE OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the City of East Liverpool, State of Ohio:

SECTION 1. That Section 467 of the Code of the City of East Liverpool providing for designation of certain streets as one way streets in southbound direction be amended, which amended section is hereby ordained to read as follows:

SECTION 467. SOUTHBOUND.

Upon the following described streets and portions of streets, vehicular traffic shall move only in a southerly direction when signs indicating the direction of traffic are erected and maintained at every intersection where movement in the opposite direction is prohibited:

Washington Street from Broadway to East Fourth Street,

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE ISSUANCE OF NOTES BY THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL IN ANTICIPATION OF THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS FOR THE PURPOSE OF PURCHASING A STREETSWEEPER FOR THE STREET DEPARTMENT AND DECLARING THE NECESSITY OF THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS FOR SUCH PURPOSE.

WHEREAS, this Council has requested the City Auditor to issue his certificate as to the estimated life of the equipment to be purchased from the proceeds of the bonds hereinafter referred to and of the notes to be issued in anticipation of said bonds, and the City Auditor has certified to this Council such estimated life as five years and has further certified maximum maturity of such bonds as five years and such notes as five years;

NOW, THEREFORE,

SECTION 1. That it is deemed necessary to issue the bonds of the City of East Liverpool in the principal sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) in order to provide a fund for the purpose of purchasing a streetsweeper for the Street Department according to plans on file in the office of the Director of Public Service-Safety.

SECTION 2. That said bonds of the City of East Liverpool shall be issued in said principal sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) for the purpose aforesaid. Said bonds shall be of the denomination of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) and shall be dated approximately the first day of July, 1963; shall bear interest at not to exceed five per centum per annum; said bonds shall mature as follows:

In substantially equal annual installments over a period of five years from 1964 to 1968 inclusive.

SECTION 3. That it is necessary and this Council hereby determines that notes shall be issued in anticipation of the issue of said bonds.

SECTION 4. That such anticipatory note or notes in the amount of not exceeding Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00), which sum does not exceed the amount of the bond issue, shall be issued under and by virtue of the authority of Section 133.32 of the Revised Code of the State of Ohio. Such note or notes shall be dated the date of issuance and shall be in the denominations as fixed by the Auditor and Mayor of the City of East Liverpool, and shall be numbered as determined by said Auditor and Mayor.

Said note or notes shall bear interest at the rate of not exceeding four per centum per annum until paid and the interest on said notes shall be payable semi - annually. Said notes shall not be issued for a longer period of time than one year from date thereof, and shall be payable at the office of the Treasurer of the City of East Liverpool upon presentation and surrender of said notes as they respectively mature.

Said notes shall be due and payable as follows: One (1) year after dates of issuance thereof, provided that said notes may be paid prior to maturity at the option of the City.

Said notes shall be signed by the Mayor and Auditor of said City and sealed with the corporate seal of said City.

Each note shall express upon its face the purpose for which it is issued and that it is issued in pursuance of this Ordinance and under authority of the Revised Code and the General Laws of the State of Ohio and particularly Section 133.32 of the Revised Code of Ohio; and said notes shall bear the name of the improvement for which they are issued legibly written or printed upon them as follows:

"STREETSWEEPER NOTE"

SECTION 5. That said money so received by the issuance of said notes shall be placed to the credit of the following funds and in the amounts therein stated:

STREETSWEEPER FUND $15,000.00

and shall be deemed appropriated for the use for which it was borrowed and shall not be used for any other purpose.

SECTION 6. That the Director of Public Service be and he is hereby authorized and directed to issue voucher to the City Auditor for payments due under said contracts from said funds.

SECTION 7. For the payment of the principal and interest of said notes, the full faith, credit and revenue of the City of East Liverpool, be and they are hereby irrevocably pledged.

SECTION 8. Said notes shall be first offered to the Treasurer of said City in his official capacity as being in charge of the Bond payment fund, and so many of the same as shall not be taken by said Treasurer shall be sold at private sale by the City Auditor, but for not less than par and accrued interest and the proceeds from such sale, except any premium and accrued interest thereon (and the amount thereof necessary for the payment of interest prior to the maturity of said notes), shall be paid into the proper fund and used for the purpose aforesaid and for no other purpose. Any premium and accrued interest (and the amount necessary for the payment of interest prior to their maturity) shall be transferred to the Treasurer to be applied by him in the payment of principal and interest of said notes in the manner provided by law.

SECTION 9. The proceeds of the bonds to be issued and all unexpended balance remaining unpaid in the fund after the cost and expenses of the purchase have been paid, shall be applied to the payment of said notes and interest thereof as the same shall become due and to no other purposes whatsoever, until all of said notes and said interest have been fully paid.

SECTION 10. That for the purpose of providing the necessary funds to pay the interest on the foregoing issue of notes, promptly when and as the same falls due and also to provide a fund sufficient to discharge the said notes at maturity, there shall be and is hereby levied on all the taxable property in said City of East Liverpool, in addition to all other taxes, a direct tax annually during the period for which said notes are to run, in an amount sufficient to provide funds to pay interest upon said notes as and when the same falls due and also to provide a fund for the discharge of the principal of said notes at maturity, which said tax shall not be less than the interest and sinking fund tax required by Section 11 of the Article XII of the Constitution.

Said tax shall be and is hereby ordered computed, certified, extended and levied upon the tax duplicate and collected by the same officers, in the same manner and at the same time taxes for general purposes for each of said years are certified, extended and collected. Said tax shall be placed before and in reference to all other items and for the full amount thereof. The funds derived from said tax levied hereby required shall be placed in a separate and distinct fund which together with the interest collected on the same, shall be irrevocably pledged for the payment of the interest and principal of said notes when and as the same fall due.

SECTION 1. The City Auditor is hereby directed to forward a certified copy of this Ordinance to the County Auditor.

SECTION 12. That this Ordinance is hereby declared by Council to be an emergency measure and shall be in force immediately upon passage. Said emergency lies in the fact that the present equipment is in a run down condition and is wholly inadequate to take care of the work for which it is intended and the services of the Street Department are curtailed and is therefore necessary to protect the health, public peace and safety of the citizens of the City of East Liverpool.

Mr. Investor

here are some of the reasons:

NORGE drycleaning cannot be compared with any other coin-operated drycleaning method. The greater effectiveness of Norge drycleaning has been proven by research and by a majority of all coin-operated drycleaner users.

NORGE alone has the "Village" concept to make sure every Norge-equipped installation offers complete laundry and cleaning service. And Norge provides guidance on location, store layout, financing, insurance and promotion.

NORGE alone offers major consumer advertising support for Norge Laundry and Cleaning Village stores. No other manufacturer backs its operators with two network TV shows, "TODAY" and JACK PARR, plus big-space advertising in magazines like, LIFE, LOOK, McCALLS and other leading magazines, plus the local impact of bigspace newspaper ads!

We have choice locations available in this area.

here are some of the reasons:

NORGE drycleaning cannot be compared with any other coin-operated drycleaning method. The greater effectiveness of Norge drycleaning has been proven by research and by a majority of all coin-operated drycleaner users.

NORGE alone has the "Village" concept to make sure every Norge-equipped installation offers complete laundry and cleaning service. And Norge provides guidance on location, store layout, financing, insurance and promotion.

NORGE alone offers major consumer advertising support for Norge Laundry and Cleaning Village stores. No other manufacturer backs its operators with two network TV shows, "TODAY" and JACK PARR, plus big-space advertising in magazines like, LIFE, LOOK, McCALLS and other leading magazines, plus the local impact of bigspace newspaper ads!

We have choice locations available in this area.

QUESTION: How does the lie detector work?

ANSWER: The man on the left in our picture, seated in the chair, looks uncomfortable and he has good reason to be. He is a suspected criminal who has agreed to take a lie detector test. The test is not painful in any way and suspects are not forced to take it. Let's suppose the man in our picture is really guilty but that he's agreed to take the test because he thinks it will convince the police that he's innocent. He thinks it's safe to tell a lie because he doesn't believe any collection of wires and buttons could reveal it. But this man is wrong. As he sits in the chair there is a bandage around his arm with wires leading to the lieutenant's desk. These will show the suspects blood pressure. Other wires lead from the respiration tube across the chest and show the suspect's breathing. His hands are connected with electrodes and the chair has devices to record movements of the body. These movements or changes will be shown on a chart or graph. The suspect will be asked a set of questions, usually nine. If he is lying, he will usually hold his breath when certain questoins are asked or there will be an increase in his blood pressure and these will show up on the chart.

FOR YOU TO DO: Don't worry if you fear than an innocent person might be trapped by a lie detector test. Police know that these tests are not always completely accurate and so evidence from a lie detector cannot be used in a court trial.

Soviet Bloc Leaders End Short Parley

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet bloc leaders ended their economic strategy conference abruptly Thursday after only two days of talks on their nagging agricultural problems at home and the challenge of the West European Common Market abroad.

A communique on the closed-door conference is not due until Saturday. But the brevity of the meeting indicated that the Red satellite leaders were summoned to Moscow only to ratify whatever plans the Kremlin had already formulated.

These are believed to include measures to integrate more closely the economies of the Soviet Union and its European satellites and to create a Red counterpart to the flourishing West European Economic Union.

An indication of this was given earlier by the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia. It declared that "the objective laws of economic development" now demand that the East European nations move from "foreign trade forms of cooperation to direct production cooperation, coordination of the plans of all branches of the national economy."

This most likely would make the satellites represented at the meeting—East Germany, Poland, Bulgaria, Romania, Czechoslovakia and Hungary—more dependent than ever on the Soviet Union. Renegade Albania was not invited and has declared it will not be bound by the conference's decisions.

Presumably the Red leaders also adopted measures designed to spur agricultural expansion, since production is lagging in most of the East European countries and in the Soviet Union itself.

The Soviet bloc recently has shown increasing concern over the growing power of the Common Market. Premier Khrushchev called it a monopolist conspiracy against the Communist countries and last week proposed an international trade conference to combat what he called the Common Market's aggressive designs.

Khrushchev went from the economic meeting to a reception for a visiting Italian trade delegation and launched a blistering attack on Western Europe's economic alliance.

Public Program Held

Hookstown Grange Honors 32

Ten past masters and 22 members for 25 years were honored during a public program, Thursday evening at the Hookstown Grange Hall. Left to right are Mrs. O. W. Shannon of Harrisburg, state lecturer; William H. Thompson of Hookstown R. D. 1, second master of the Grange; Thomas Glenn of Georgetown R. D. 1, 25-year member, and Charles Stewart of Georgetown R. D. 1, present master. Thompson is the oldest living past master, having served from 1936 to 1940. He is shown receiving a past master's certificate from Glenn.

Glenn, also a member of the Executive Committee, distributed past master certificates and Mrs. Shannon, also a member of the Hookstown Grange, gave out certificates to the 25-year members, assisted by Mrs. Lawrence Searight, who was in charge of the program.

Past masters beside Thompson are David Mackall, John Thompson, Walker Shannon, Chester Elliott, Harry Shane, Robert Dawson, Raymond Searight and Carl McCormick.

The 25 - year members are Miss Olive K. Floyd, John Thompson, Miss Mary Thompson, Mrs. George Dawson, John N. Mercer, Elliott, Mrs. Raymond Searight, I. Earl Crooks, Mrs. Earl Crooks, David S. McCarrell, Mrs. David McCarrell, Mrs. Helen Leeper, Mrs. Daymon Frasier, Mrs. Hester Gallagher, Glenn, Joseph A. Mercer, J. Paul Morrow, Mrs. Paul Morrow, Mrs. Howard Narry, Floyd N. Shane, Harry Shane and Virginia Maki.

About 75 adults and some 40 juvenile grangers attended the program.

The program preceded the regular meeting. Next meeting will be June 21.

Senior Citizens Group Holds Farewell Event For Pastor

The Rev. Carl G. Beighley, pastor of the Calvary Methodist Church and organizer of the Senior Citizens Group, was honored at a farewell party when they met Thursday afternoon at the VFW Hall.

Rev. Beighley will leave this month for a new charge at the First Methodist Church at Mineral Ridge.

Ninety-eight persons, including five new members, were present. Guests included the pastor's wife and two children, Crystal and Jimmy, the Rev. John L. Clark, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and his wife; John N. Mostoller, minister of the First Church of Christ, and Glenn Rice, commander of VFW Post 66.

Tributes to Rev. Beighley were given by Mostoller and Rev. Clark, who said he would do his best to continue the work of Rev. Beighley with the group.

A poem written by Mrs. Maude Falconer in honor of Rev. Beighley, was read by Mrs. Rozella Hickenbottom as she presented a gift from the group to the Beighleys.

Mrs. Ethel Hagerman read a poem, "Preachers' Wives," and Mrs. Bertha Brown, "It Takes a Heap of Living." Mrs. Grace Wolfe, another guest, sang "The Lord's Prayer" with Mrs. Nell Pelley accompanist.

Rev. Beighley spoke briefly and thanked the group on behalf of his wife and children and wished members continued success.

A picture of President and Mrs. Kennedy, received by Mrs. Elma Howell, was presented to the group by Mostoller and accepted by Mrs. Hickenbottom.

The picture was received from Mrs. Kennedy in response to a letter the group sent to the White House. Mrs. Howell, one of the group, is a member of Mosteller's church.

Routine Arrest 'Revives' '61 Drunk Driving Case

The law has a long memory to match its legendary long arm, a 49-year-old Newell man learned Thursday night when he was jailed on a simple intoxication charge and then found a 10-month old charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol had come back to haunt him.

Earl W. Daugherty, 505 Grant St., had been wanted on the drunken driving charge since Aug. 29, 1961, as an aftermath of a collision between his auto and a tractor - trailer at the East Liverpool end of the Chester Bridge.

Thanks to the police department's filing system, the old charge against Daugherty was discovered after his arrest about 8:40 last night on Dresden Ave. on an intoxication charge.

Taken before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff this morning on the old drunk driving charge, Daugherty requested a continuance to obtain counsel. Judge Chertoff set his hearing Tuesday at 9 a.m. and fixed bond at $500.

Following the crash in which he was cited, Daugherty was admitted to City Hospital with a fractured arm and other injuries. Later, he was transferred to a Pittsburgh hospital. There is no further entry in the police department's record of the case.

Daugherty's car was involved in a collision with a big rig operated by William F. Shuber, 31, of Reading, Pa.

Another charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol, scheduled to be heard today, has been continued until next Thursday morning.

The defendant is Gale F. Hooper, 907 Vine St., arrested May 30 following a traffic mishap on Avondale St. near North St. He is free on a $500 cash bond. Hooper is represented by Atty. Donald D. Shay.

Three others were penalized on traffic charges today by Judge Chertoff.

Miss Linda Sue Fitzsimmons of Rogers R. D. 1 was fined $15 and costs and had her operator's permit suspended for 15 days when she pleaded guilty to a charge of speeding 85 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone Sunday on Route 7. She was cited by the State Highway Patrol.

Lester C. White of Densmore Ave. was fined $5 and costs on a charge he failed to halt for a stop sign at the intersection of a township road and State Route 267. He was cited by the patrol Thursday at 6:30 p. m.

Joe J. Allison of Lisbon R. D. 3, operator of a tractor trailer, was fined $5 and costs on a charge he failed to halt for a stop sign at the intersection of State St. and the River Rd. He was cited at 4:31 p. m. yesterday.

A hearing is set June 15 at 9 a. m. for William Rockenhouser, 703 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, cited by the patrol at 9:55 p. m. Thursday on a charge of driving 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on Route 7.

Patricia O'Hara of Drain St. was cited by the patrol Thursday at 7:15 p. m. on Route 267 on a charge of driving without an operator's permit. When she failed to appear for a scheduled hearing this morning, Judge Chertoff notified the patrol.

Marilyn Monroe Plans Return To Set Monday

HOLLYWOOD (AP) —Marilyn Monroe says she'll quit her sickbed Monday and return to the movie set, a development that could put an end to much recent bickering between studio and star.

The actress let it be known Thursday that she was ready and eager to get back to work on the movie her studio says has been twice shut down because of her absenteeism.
